The Mythologies of Capitalism and the End of the Soviet Project Olga Baysha, 2014-08-14 The purpose of The Mythologies of Capitalism and the End of the Soviet Project is to show that in order to understand popular disillusionment with democratization liberalization and other transformations associated with the attempts of non Western societies to appropriate the ideas of Western modernity one must consider how these ideas are mythologized in the course of such appropriations Olga Baysha argues that the seeds of popular post revolutionary frustration should be sought in pre revolutionary discourses on democracy liberalism and other concepts of Western modernity that are produced outside local contexts and introduced through the channels of global communication and the interpretations of politicians activists and experts Analyzing the opinions of working people and intellectuals published in two Ukrainian newspapers of perestroika times the author shows how the concepts of democracy the market and the West acquired schizophrenic mythical significations The study is situated within the context of Ulrich Beck s theory of world risk society and Gregory Bateson s theory of schizophrenia as communicative disorder The author argues that schizophrenic mythologies constructed through globalized networks can lead to disorientation frustration and the sense of uncertainty and insecurity on the part of mass publics

The Goodness of Judgment Jeff McSwain, 2024-11-12 In this volume McSwain continues to deploy Karl Barth Julian of Norwich Athanasius James Cone and dozens of others to buttress his claim about human duplicity and the Easter asymmetry which allows us to properly interpret our lives by the gospel Specifically the focus is on Christ s cross which provides the radical discontinuity judgment needed to preserve the continuity of God s good creation In resurrection light we see the inner connection of re creation to creation an atonement that disentangles good from evil righteousness from sin and life from death Even though the perfect clarity of this liberating separation is reserved for judgment day this same judgment of grace frees us to live now as eschatological activists in the Liberator s way of justice and peace In view of the cross the Spirit empowers us to live in the hidden truth of who Christ is and who we have always been in Christ as God s beloved in the Trinitarian communion McSwain s cosmic vision pictures all people sharing in Christ s sufferings and also in his glory Thus the reconciled human community genuinely participates as one in Christ s victory over sin death and the devil
