Modern European Borders in Fiction Andrew Hammond, 2025-09-18 There are few features of the contemporary world more significant than national and regional borders In modern Europe the practices of human division have defined the continent from the early years of the Cold War to the present barriers of Fortress Europe whose exposure of irregular migrants to trafficking discrimination and deportation is rarely absent from the daily news Modern European Borders in Fiction offers a comprehensive study of literary responses to the topic Through reference to over 600 novels and short stories Andrew Hammond analyses the wide ranging engagement of post 1945 novelists with the ideologies processes and effects of territorialisation as well as the related issues of military conflict migration populism nationalism and regionalism Among the topics under study are the ideological divisions of the Cold War the closed societies of totalitarian communism the labour migrations of the 1950s and 1960s the tightening of border controls from the 1970s the twenty first century war on migration the official restrictions on borderland communities the conflicts in Bosnia Georgia and Ukraine and the patterns of social segregation that have marked the continent from the Second World War to the present Drawing on theoretical work in the social sciences and the humanities this is a ground breaking contribution to European literary studies establishing the importance of continental border writing and opening up fresh avenues for decolonised teaching and research

Postcolonial Europe? Essays on Post-Communist Literatures and Cultures, 2015-07-28 This collective monograph analyzes post 1989 Central and Eastern Europe through the paradigm of postcoloniality Based on the assumption that both Western and Soviet imperialism emerged from European modernity the book is a contribution to the development of a global postcolonial discourse based on a more extensive and nuanced geohistorical comparativism It suggests that the inclusion of East Central Europe in European identity might help resolve postcolonialism's difficulties in coming to terms with both postcolonial and neo colonial dimensions of contemporary Europe Analyzing post communist identity reconstructions under the impact of transformative political economic and cultural experiences such as changes in perception of time and space landscapes cityscapes migration and displacement collective memory and trauma objectifying gaze cultural self colonization and language as a form of power the book facilitates a mutually productive dialogue between postcolonialism and post communism Together the studies map the rich terrain of contemporary East Central European creative writing and visual art the latter highlighted through accompanying illustrations

In Europe's Shadow Robert D. Kaplan, 2016-11-01 Sweeping and replete with alluring detail a haunting yet ultimately optimistic examination of the human condition as found in Romania Alison Smale The New York Times Book Review From the New York Times bestselling author Robert D Kaplan named one of the world's Top 100 Global Thinkers by Foreign Policy magazine comes a riveting journey through one of Europe's frontier countries and a potent examination of the forces that will determine Europe's fate in the postmodern age Robert Kaplan first visited Romania in the 1970s when he was a young journalist and the country was a bleak Communist backwater It was one of the darkest corners of Europe but few Westerners were paying attention What ensued was a lifelong obsession with a critical often overlooked country a country that today is key to understanding the current threat that Russia poses to Europe In Europe's Shadow is a vivid blend of memoir travelogue journalism and history a masterly work thirty years in the making the story of a journalist coming of age and a country struggling to do the same Through the lens of one country Kaplan examines larger questions of geography imperialism the role of fate in international relations the Cold War the Holocaust and more Here Kaplan illuminates the fusion of the Latin West and the Greek East that created Romania the country that gave rise to Ion Antonescu Hitler's chief foreign accomplice during World War II and the country that was home to the most brutal strain of Communism under Nicolae Ceaușescu Romania past and present are rendered in cinematic prose the ashen faces of citizens waiting in bread lines in Cold War era Bucharest the Bârgan Steppe laid bare by centuries of foreign invasion the grim labor camps of the Black Sea Canal the majestic Gothic church spires of Transylvania and Maramureș Kaplan finds himself in dialogue with the great thinkers of the past and with the Romanians of today the philosophers priests and politicians those who struggle to keep the flame of humanism alive in the era of a resurgent Russia Upon his return to Romania in 2013 and 2014 Kaplan found the country transformed yet again now a traveler's destination shaped by Western tastes yet still emerging from the long shadows of Hitler and Stalin In Europe's Shadow is the story of an ideological and geographic frontier and the book you must read in order to truly understand the crisis Europe faces from Russia and from within

Migration and Mobility in the Modern Age Anika Walke,Jan Musekamp,Nicole Svobodny,2016-12-12 A collection that eloquently examines the numerous forms of movement from and across Central Eastern Europe and Russia from a historical perspective Comparative Literature Studies Combining methodological and theoretical approaches to migration and mobility studies with detailed analyses of historical cultural or social phenomena the works collected here provide an interdisciplinary perspective on how migrations and mobility altered identities and affected images of the other From walkways to railroads to airports the history of travel provides a context for considering the people and events that have shaped Central and Eastern Europe and Russia

Habsburg Galicia and the Romanian Kingdom Raluca Goleşteanu-Jacobs,2023-12-01 This comparative attempt intended for postgraduates and scholars of Eastern Central Europe investigates the political economic and cultural landscape of Habsburg Galicia and the Romanian Kingdom in the second half of the 19th century Often in historiography and in the public sphere alike the two cases under study have been separately regarded as contexts that provided atypical answers to modernity and parts of a region that has been regarded as atypical in itself. Recently efforts have been made to integrate each of the cases in a post imperial paradigm identifying the complex interactions between their socio political modernisation and historical memory. This book continues this trend by investigating for the first time the two cases together as parts of a space of alterity as labs of shifting ideologies and labels. The public figures and the institutions depicted in the book are physically located in Central and in Eastern Europe but by sometimes competing experiences they are illustrative for several identities and historical realms local regional and continental. Secondly the current work addresses dilemmas related to Nationalism and nation building for the sake of separating those discourses which reflected on civic nationalism from those which directed the public mind to the values of ethnic nationalism.

The Idea of Europe, 2021-03-22 Recent developments within and beyond Europe have variously challenged the very idea of Europe calling it into question and demanding reconsideration of its underlying assumptions. The essays collected here reassess the contemporary position of a perceived European identity in the world overshadowed as it is by the long antecedents and current crisis of triumphalist Eurocentrism. While Eurocentrism itself is still a potent mind set it is now increasingly challenged by intra European crises and by the emergence of autonomously non European perceptions of Europe. The perspectives assembled here come from the fields of political cultural and literary history contemporary history social and political science and philosophy. Contributors are Damir Arsenijević, Luiza Bialasiewicz, Vladimir Biti, Lucia Boldrini, Gerard Delanty, Csar Dom nguez, Nikol Dziub, Rodolphe Gasch, Aage Hansen, L ve Shigemi, Inaga Joep Leerssen and Vivian Liska.

Reinventing Eastern Europe: Imaginaries, Identities and Transformations Evinç Doğan, 2019-01-22 This edited collection brings together a wide range of topics that shed light on the social cultural economic political and spatio temporal changes influencing post socialist cities of Eastern Europe. Different case studies are presented through papers that were presented at the Euroacademia International Conference series. Imaginaries identities and transformations represent three blocks for understanding the ways in which visual narratives memory and identity and processes of alterity shape the symbolic meanings articulated and inscribed upon post socialist cities. As such this book stimulates a debate in order to provide alternative views on the dynamics persistence and change broadly shaping mental mappings of Eastern Europe. The volume offers an opportunity for scholars activists and practitioners to identify discuss and debate the multiple dimensions in which specific narratives of alterity making towards Eastern Europe preserve their salience today in re furbished and re fashioned manners.

Being Poland Tamara Trojanowska, Joanna Ni?y?ska, Przemys?aw Czapli?ski, 2018-01-01 Being Poland offers a unique analysis of the cultural developments that took place in Poland after World War One a period marked by Poland s return to independence. Conceived to address the lack of critical scholarship on Poland s cultural restoration Being Poland illuminates the continuities paradoxes and contradictions of Poland s modern and contemporary cultural practices and challenges the narrative typically prescribed to Polish literature and film. Reflecting the radical changes rifts and restorations that swept through Poland in this period Polish literature and film reveal a multitude of perspectives Addressing romantic perceptions of the Polish immigrant the politics of post war cinema poetry and mass media Being Poland is a comprehensive reference work written with the intention of exposing an international audience to the explosion of Polish literature and film that emerged in the twentieth century Beat Literature in a Divided Europe ,2018-12-24 Beat Literature in Europe offers twelve in depth analyses of how European authors and intellectuals on both sides of the Iron Curtain read translated and appropriated American Beat literature The chapters combine textual analysis with discussions on the role Beat had in popular music art and different subcultures The book participates in the transnational turn that has gained in importance during the past years in literary studies looking at transatlantic connections through the eyes of European authors artists and intellectuals and showing how Beat became a cluster of texts images and discussions with global scope At the same time it provides vivid examples of how national literary fields in Europe evolved during the cold war era Contributors are Thomas Antonic Franca Bellarsi Frida Forsgren Santiago Rodriguez Guerrero Strachan J zsef Havasr ti Tiit Hennoste Benedikt Hjartarson Petra James Nuno Neves Maria Nikopoulou Harri Veivo Dorota Walczak Delanois Gregory Watson Cartographies of Empire Myka Tucker-Abramson,2025-03-18 The road novel is often dismissed as a mundane nostalgic genre Jack Sal and other tedious white men on the road trying to recapture an authentic youth and American past that never existed Yet new road novels appear every year tackling unexpected questions and spanning new geographies from Mexico Brazil Bulgaria Palestine Ukraine and former Yugoslavia Why did the road novel emerge and why does it persist What does it do and why has it traveled so widely Myka Tucker Abramson draws from an archive of more than 140 global road novels from over twenty countries challenging dominant conceptions of the road novel as primarily concerned with American experiences and subjectivities Grounding her analysis in materialist theories of genre world ecology and commodity frontier frameworks and post 45 American literary studies Tucker Abramson persuasively argues that the road novel is a genre specific to coterminous with and revealing of US hegemony s global trajectory Shifting our focus from Americanness to the fraught geopolitics of US Empire from the car to the built environment through which it moves and from passengers to those left behind Tucker Abramson remaps the road novel elucidating the genre s unique ability both to reveal the violent and vertiginous processes of capitalist modernization and to obfuscate these harsh truths through seductive narratives of individual success and failure David's House , My Road of Life Sabir Rustamkhanli,2013-04-19 My Road of Life is his last work written during the Soviet rule This book treasures love love of everyone love to motherland history culture The book speaks out for the whole Azerbaijani people expressing its benevolent nature and good will The 90s of the last century marked Azerbaijan's history with independence from the Soviet regime and greatly contributed to introduce My Road of Life as one of the cult books of those times spreading thoughts and spirit of liberty independence nations self governance Fighters for independence used to come to The Liberty Square in Baku with this book in their hands to demand the end of the
