New South African Review 5 Beyond Marikana:

New South African Review 5 Gilbert M Khadiagala, Devan Pillay, Roger Southall, Prishani Naidoo, 2015-11-01 A series of essays explaining the impact of the events at Marikana upon the South African perspective of police and the keeping of order This fifth volume in the New South African Review series takes as its starting point the shock wave emanating from the events at Marikana on 16 August 2012 and how it has reverberated throughout politics and society Some of the chapters in the volume refer directly to Marikana In others the influence of that fateful day is pervasive if not direct Marikana has for instance made us look differently at the police and at how order is imposed on society Monique Marks and David Bruce write that the massacre has come to hold a central place in the analysis of policing and broader political events since 2012 The chapters highlight a range of current concerns political economic and social David Dickinson's chapter looks at the life of the poor in a township from within In contrast the chapter on foreign policy by Garth le Pere analyses South Africa's approach to international relations in the Mandela Mbeki and Zuma eras Anthony Turton's account When gold mining ends is a chilling forecast of an impending environmental catastrophe Both Devan Pillay and Noor Nieftagodien focus attention on the left and in different ways ascribe its rise to a new politics in the wake of Marikana The essays in NSAR 5 Beyond Marikana present a range of topics and perspectives of interest to general readers but the book will also be a useful work of reference for students and researchers

International Trade Policy and Class Dynamics in South Africa Simone Claar, 2017-12-07 This book provides an innovative perspective on class dynamics in South Africa focusing specifically on how different interests have shaped economic and trade policy As an emerging market South African political and economic actions are subject to the attention of international trade policy Claar provides an in depth class analysis of the contradictory negotiation processes that occurred between South Africa and the European Union on Economic Partnership Agreements EPA examining the divergent roles played by the political and economic elite and the working class The author considers their relationships with the new global trade agenda as well as their differing standpoints on the EPA

The D-Word: Perspectives on Democracy in Tumultuous Times Christi van der Westhuizen, Siphiwe Dube, Zwelethu Jolobe, 2024-03-12 This curated collection engages international debates about the current challenges facing democracy Given the proliferation of crisis literature on democracy this volume finds its distinctive niche in presenting perspectives from the global margins that bridge disciplinary sectoral national and conceptual divides South Africans enter into conversation with scholars and activists from elsewhere in the Global South including the Arab world and the rest of Africa and from the European periphery Insights on democracy are offered from a diversity of perspectives and voices spanning philosophy socio legal and political studies sociology public administration and queer and gender studies and activism The book will be of interest to academics activists policymakers development planners and the general public The D Word is a timely contribution addressing burning questions are current contestations about the relevance of democracy due to systemic flaws in how it is constituted received practised and even imagined and can the democratic project be salvaged The book's unique approach brings a variety of lenses to bear on the prospects for democracy The critical reflections it contains make for an enriching broad canvas of ideas Professor Sandy Africa University of Pretoria Building a Capable State Ian Palmer, Nishendra Moodley, Susan Parnell, 2017-11-15

The sustainable development goals signed in 2016 marked a new phase in global development thinking one which is focused on ecologically and fiscally sustainable human settlements Few countries offer a better testing ground for their attainment than post apartheid South Africa Since the coming to power of the African National Congress the country has undergone a policy making revolution driven by an urgent need to improve access to services for the country's black majority A quarter century on from the fall of apartheid Building a Capable State asks what lessons can be learned from the South African experience The book assesses whether the South African government has succeeded in improving service delivery focusing on the vital sectors of water and sanitation energy roads public transport and housing Emphasizing the often overlooked role of local government institutions and finance the book demonstrates that effective service delivery can have a profound impact on the social structure of emerging economies and must form an integral part of any future development strategy A comprehensive examination of urban service delivery in the global South Building a Capable State is essential reading for students and practitioners across the social sciences public finance and engineering sectors Reading for Water Isabel Hofmeyr, Charne Lavery, Sarah Nuttall, 2023-09-12

An experiment in reading for water this book offers students and teachers a toolkit of methods that follow the sensory political and agentive power of water across literary texts The chapters in this book follow rivers rain streams tunnels and sewers connect atmospheric surface and ground water describe competing hydrological traditions and hydro epistemologies They propose new literary regions defined less by nation and area than by coastlines river basins monsoons currents and hydro cosmologies Whether thinking along water courses below the water line or through the fall of precipitation Reading for Water moves laterally vertically and contrapuntally between different water worlds and hydro imaginaries Addressing southern African and Caribbean texts the collection draws on a range of elementally inclined literary approaches critical oceanic studies new materialisms coastal and hydrocritical approaches hydrocolonialism black hydropoetics and atmospheric methods The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Interventions Emerging Powers in Africa Justin van der Merwe, Ian Taylor, Alexandra Arkhangelskaya, 2016-12-09

This empirically and theoretically grounded book provides insights into the ascendance of powers such as Turkey South Korea and Indonesia and their relationship with Africa Leading scholars present case studies from the BRICS and beyond to demonstrate the constantly evolving and complex character of these ties and their place in the global capitalist order They also offer new theoretical insights as well as theorisation of the spatio temporal dynamics involved in processes of accumulation within the African space Their contention is that despite their supposed anti imperialism these emerging powers have become agents for continued uneven development This innovative edited collection will appeal to students and scholars of international relations political science development studies area studies geography and economics

Fractured Militancy Marcel Paret, 2022-02-15 Drawing on extensive ethnographic fieldwork and interviews with activists Fractured Militancy tells the story of postapartheid South Africa from the perspective of Johannesburg's impoverished urban Black neighborhoods Nearly three decades after South Africa's transition from apartheid to democracy widespread protests and xenophobic attacks suggest that not all is well in the once celebrated rainbow nation Marcel Paret traces rising protests back to the process of democratization and racial inclusion This process dangled the possibility of change but preserved racial inequality and economic insecurity prompting residents to use militant protests to express their deep sense of betrayal and to demand recognition and community development Underscoring remarkable parallels to movements such as Black Lives Matter in the United States this account attests to an ongoing struggle for Black liberation in the wake of formal racial inclusion Rather than unified resistance however class struggles within the process of racial inclusion produced a fractured militancy Revealing the complicated truth behind the celebrated success of South African democratization Paret uncovers a society divided by wealth urban geography nationality employment and political views Fractured Militancy warns of the threat that capitalism and elite class struggles present to social movements and racial justice everywhere

African Foreign Policies in International Institutions Jason Warner, Timothy M. Shaw, 2018-05-18 This book is the first to exclusively consider the foreign policy tendencies of African states in international institutions As an edited volume offering empirically based perspectives from a variety of scholars this project disabuses the notion that Africa should be considered a niche interest in the field of foreign policy analysis It asserts that the actions of the continent's states collectively serve as an important heuristic by which to interrogate and understand the foreign policies of other global states and are not simply anomalously extant entities whose actions should be studied only insofar as they deviate from predictions based on the experiences of Western or other non-African states

Diverse Unfreedoms Sarada Balagopalan, Cati Coe, Keith Michael Green, 2019-10-11 The legacies of plantation slavery continue to inhabit animate and haunt the diverse forms of unfreedom that mark our present Diverse Unfreedoms charts a new way of thinking through these legacies of unfreedom via a more entangled and multidirectional model of what makes for historical change and continuity in practices and relationships of subjugation This volume troubles the stark opposition between slavery and freedom by foregrounding the diversity of types of exploitation above and beyond the most extreme forms of dehumanization characterized by slavery The chapters from multiple disciplines and discussing diverse regions and historical periods illustrate the significance of interdisciplinary and international perspectives in understanding diverse unfreedoms and offer a nuanced account of historical change and continuity in systems that generate and perpetuate unfreedom Through examining the frictions that mark certain key moments of legal social and institutional transition the essays in this volume express the limits of liberal humanist projects and present a critique of the liberal notion of freedom as the necessary horizon of emancipatory imagination and labor      The Future of the South African Political Economy Post-COVID 19 Mzukisi Qobo, Mills Soko, Nomfundo Xenia Ngwenya, 2022-10-31 This book examines the COVID 19 pandemic through socioeconomic lens that draw on history approaches to state market relations and public policy perspectives In 2020 the world experienced the worst pandemic since the outbreak of the Spanish Flu of 1918 which continues to have far reaching implications for the global economy and triggered macro economic dislocations that severely affected the most vulnerable countries and segments of society This book was conceived as a response to the disruptive shifts induced by the pandemic with a particular focus on South Africa International experience has shown that countries and societies that have gone through tough economic times either as a consequence of wars or economic depressions have responded to crises by enacting unpopular policy measures based on difficult tradeoffs which often made way for innovation The authors outline policy responses to the COVID 19 crisis and propose several interventions to mitigate its effects These include developing innovative approaches to fiscal and monetary policies labour market policies industrial policies as well as social policies Building state capabilities improving the governance and performance of state institutions and managing digital change are some of the clear policy interventions that are laid out in this book      ,      Mass Strikes and Social Movements in Brazil and India Jörg Nowak, 2019-03-20 This book explores new forms of popular organisation that emerged from strikes in India and Brazil between 2011 and 2014 Based on four case studies the author traces the alliances and relations that strikers developed during their mobilisations with other popular actors such as students indigenous peoples and people displaced by dam projects The study locates the mass strikes in Brazil s construction industry and India s automobile industry in a global conjuncture of protest movements and develops a new theory of strikes that can take account of the manifold ways in which labour unrest is embedded in local communities and regional networks J rg Nowak has written an ambitious wide ranging and very important book Based on extensive empirical research in Brazil and India and a thorough analysis of the secondary literature Nowak reveals that numerous labour conflicts develop in the absence of trade unions but with the support of kinship networks local communities social movements and other types of associations This impressive work may well become a major building block for a new interpretation of global workers struggles Marcel van der Linden International Institute of Social History The Netherlands Nowak s book meticulously details the trajectory of strikes and its resultant new forms of organisations in India and Brazil The central focus of this analytically rich and thought provoking book is to search for a new political alternative model of organising workers A very good deed indeed Nandita Mondal Tata Institute of Social Sciences India J rg Nowak analyses with critical sense forms of popular organization that often remain invisible It is an indispensable book for all those who are looking for more effective analytical resources to better understand the present situation and the future promises of the workers movements Roberto V rasde Oliveira Federal University of Para ba Brazil In this timely and important study Nowak convincingly challenges the dominant Eurocentric approach to labour conflict and calls for a new theory of strikes He stresses the need to engage in a wider perspective that includes social reproduction neighbourhood mobilisations and the specific traditions of struggles in the Global South Edward Webster University of Witwatersrand South Africa BRICS and Resistance in Africa Justin van der Merwe, Patrick Bond, Nicole Dodd, 2019-10-15 Though initially considered a welcome counterweight to Western interest across Africa the BRICS are increasingly being viewed as another example of foreign interference and exploitation BRICS and Resistance in Africa explores the varied forms of African resistance being developed in response to the growing influence of the BRICS Its case studies cover such instances as the opposition to China's One Belt One Road initiative in East Africa resistance to the BRICS oil activities in the Niger Delta and the role of the BRICS in Zimbabwe's political transition The contributors expose the contradictions between the group's rhetoric and its real impact as well as the complicity of local elites in serving as proxies for the BRICS nations By challenging and expanding the debates surrounding BRICS involvement in Africa this collection offers new insight into resistance to globalization in the global South

Global Literature and the Environment Matthew Whittle, Jade Munslow Ong, 2024-08-02 Global Literature and the Environment analyses literatures from across the world that connect readers to the localized impacts of the climate and ecological emergencies The book contextualizes ecological breakdown within the history of imperialist capitalism exploring how literature helps us to imagine and create a habitable and just world for all forms of life The four chapters are organised according to the elements of the climate system that are at risk Earth examines Caribbean American South African and British literatures that explore how dominant human groups have exploited soils minerals metals and oil in pursuit of economic aims Water engages with poetic representations of and responses to extraction pollution and global warming in the fresh and saltwaters of Nigeria and the icescapes of Alaska Air analyses prose and poetry that depicts atmospheric pollution caused by gas flaring in the Niger Delta and the production of pesticides in India Life attends to the ways in which literature contextualizes the drivers of and proposed solutions to mass species extinction across North America Africa Australasia and Aotearoa New Zealand This accessible and engaging book explores novels plays and poetry by writers including Octavia Butler C L R James J. M. Coetzee and Henrietta Rose Innes amongst many others It introduces readers to the concept of the Anthropocene alongside perspectives that challenge the assumption that the climate crisis is caused by an undifferentiated humanity In doing so the book draws on and combines a range of theoretical approaches including postcolonialism Indigenous studies ecocriticism cultural materialism and animal studies Destroying Democracy Jane Duncan, Linda Gordon, Gunnett Kaaf, Dale T McKinley, Alf Gunvald Nilsen, Devan Pillay, Mandla J Radebe, Alfredo Saad-Filho, Ingar Solty, 2021-08-01 A history of the erosion of democracy across the globe Democracy is being destroyed This is a crisis that expresses itself in the rising authoritarianism visible in divisive and exclusionary politics populist political parties and movements increased distrust in fact based information and news and the withering accountability of state institutions Over the last four decades democracy has radically shifted to a market democracy in which all aspects of human non human and planetary life are commodified with corporations becoming more powerful than states and their citizens This is how neoliberal capitalism functions at a systemic level and if left unchecked is the greatest threat to democracy and a sustainable planet Volume six of the Democratic Marxism series focuses on how decades of neoliberal capitalism have eroded the global democratic project and how in the process authoritarian politics are gaining ground Scholars and activists from the political left focus on four country cases India Brazil South Africa and the United States of America in which the COVID 19 pandemic has fuelled and highlighted the pre existing crisis They interrogate issues of politics ecology state security media access to information and political parties and affirm the need to reclaim and re build an expansive and inclusive democracy Destroying Democracy is an invaluable resource for the general public activists scholars and students who are interested in understanding the threats to democracy and the rising tide of authoritarianism in the global south and the global north Contemporary South Africa Anthony Butler,2017-09-09 This highly regarded text provides a wide ranging introduction to the social political cultural and economic life of South Africa Thoroughly revised and updated the third edition takes account of recent key developments including the impact of the economic crisis the ongoing HIV AIDS epidemic and increasing tensions within South Africa s politics and government

Racism After Apartheid Vishwas Satgar,2019-03-01 Racism after Apartheid volume four of the Democratic Marxism series brings together leading scholars and activists from around the world studying and challenging racism In eleven thematically rich and conceptually informed chapters the contributors interrogate the complex nexus of questions surrounding race and relations of oppression as they are played out in the global South and global North Their work challenges Marxism and anti racism to take these lived realities seriously and consistently struggle to build human solidarities

The Political Economy of Underdevelopment in the Global South Justin van der Merwe,Nicole Dodd,2019-01-07 This book presents a new theory explaining underdevelopment in the global South and tests whether financial inputs the government business media GBM complex and spatiotemporal influences drive human development Despite the entrance of emerging powers and new forms of aid trade and investment international political economic practices still support well established systems of capital accumulation to the detriment of the global South Global asymmetrical accumulation is maintained by affective consent forming hegemonic practices and infrastructural uneven economic exchanges labours and by power networks The message for developing countries is that robust GBMs can facilitate human development and development is constrained by spatiotemporal limitations This work theorizes that aid and foreign direct investment should be viewed with caution and that in the global South these investments should not automatically be assumed to be drivers of development

Workers' Movements and Strikes in the Twenty-First Century Jörg Nowak,Madhumita Dutta,Peter Birke,2018-04-05 While workers movements have been largely phased out and considered out dated in most parts of the world during the 1990s the 21st century has seen a surge in new and unprecedented forms of strikes and workers organisations The collection of essays in this book spanning countries across global South and North provides an account of strikes and working class resistance in the 21st century Through original case studies the book looks at the various shades of workers movements analysing different forms of popular organisation as responses to new social and economic conditions such as restructuring of work and new areas of investment Acts of Transgression Catherine Boulle, 2019-02-01 Fifteen writers explore the experimental interdisciplinary and radically transgressive field of contemporary live art in South Africa focusing on a wide range of perspectives personalities and theoretical concerns Contemporary South African society is chronologically post apartheid but it continues to grapple with material redress land redistribution and systemic racism Acts of Transgression represents the complexity of this moment in the rich potential of a performative art form that transcends disciplinary boundaries and aesthetic conventions The contributors who are all significantly involved in the discipline of performance art probe its intersection with crisis and socio political turbulence shifting notions of identity and belonging embodied trauma and loss Narratives of the past and visions for the future are interrogated through memory and the archive thus destabilising entrenched colonial systems Collectively analysing the work of more than 25 contemporary South African artists including Athi Patra Ruga Mohau Modisakeng Steven Cohen Dean Hutton Mikhael Subotzky Tracey Rose and Donna Kukama among others the analysis is accompanied by a visual record of more than 50 photographs For those working in the fields of theatre performance studies and art this is a must have collection of critical essays on a burgeoning and exciting field of contemporary South African research
