Nice Diversity Practice Professional Careers Cambridge:

Gender, Age and Inequality in the Professions Marta Choroszewicz, Tracey L. Adams, 2019-03-13 The literature on gender and professions shows that professional careers continue to be impacted by gender albeit with important differences among professions and countries Much less researched is the issue of the significance of gender and age cohort or generation to professional work Gender Age and Inequality in the Professions explores men s and women s experiences of professional work and careers through an intersectional lens by focusing on the intersection of gender and age The chapters explore different professions including Medicine Nursing Law Academia Information Technology and Engineering in different Western countries in the present and over time Through original research and critical re analysis of existing research each of the chapters explores the significance of gender and age cohort or generation to professional work with particular attention to professionals just entering professional careers those building professional careers and comparisons of men and women in professions across generational cohorts The book contributes to literature on inequalities in the professions by demonstrating the ways in which gender and age converge to confer privilege and produce disadvantage and the ways in which gender inequality is reproduced and disrupted through the activities of professionals on the job The book constitutes a departure point for future research in terms of theoretical perspectives and empirical findings on how gendered and age related processes are produced and reproduced in particular organisational professional and socio cultural contexts To enhance generational understanding relationships and collaboration in educational institutions organisations and professions the book ends with a section on policy recommendations for educators professionals professional organisations as well as policy and decision makers This book will also appeal to students and researchers in the fields of Sociology Gender Studies Organisational and Management Studies Law Medicine Engineering and Information Technology as well as related disciplines

Gender and Careers in the Legal Academy Ulrike Schultz, Gisela Shaw, Margaret Thornton, Rosemary Auchmuty, 2021-02-25 In the past fifteen years there has been a marked increase in the international scholarship relating to women in law The lives and careers of women in legal practice and the judiciary have been extensively documented and critiqued but the central conundrum remains Does the presence of women make a difference What has been largely overlooked in the literature is the position of women in the legal academy although central to the changing culture To remedy the oversight an international network of scholars embarked on a comparative study which resulted in this path breaking book The contributors uncover fascinating accounts of the careers of the academic pioneers as well as exploring broader theoretical issues relating to gender and culture The provocative question as to whether the presence of women makes a difference informs each contribution

You Don't Look Like a Lawyer Tsedale M. Melaku, 2019-04-18 Now available in paperback with a new foreword from Victor Ray You Don t Look Like a Lawyer Black Women and Systemic Gendered Racism highlights how race and gender create barriers to recruitment professional development and advancement to partnership for black women in elite corporate law firms Utilizing narratives of black female lawyers this book offers a blend of accessible theory to benefit any reader willing to learn about the underlying challenges that lead to their high attrition rates Drawing from narratives of black female lawyers their experiences center around gendered racism and are embedded within institutional practices at the hands of predominantly white men In particular the book covers topics such as appearance white narratives of affirmative action differences and similarities with white women and black men exclusion from social and professional networking opportunities and lack of mentors sponsors and substantive training This book highlights the often hidden mechanisms elite law firms utilize to perpetuate and maintain a dominant white male system Weaving the narratives with a critical race analysis and accessible writing the reader is exposed to this exclusive elite environment demonstrating the rawness and reality of black women s experiences in white spaces Finally we get to hear the voices of black female lawyers as they tell their stories and perspectives on working in a highly competitive racialized and gendered environment and the impact it has on their advancement and beyond

Family Diversity Olaf Kapella, Christiane Rille-Pfeiffer, Marina Rupp, Norbert F. Schneider, 2010-03-17 Family in all its aspects Familienbande International experts provide an overview of the current state of the art of European family research and outline the multiple formations structures and configurations of family in Europe Four aspects are discussed in depth family images sex gender roles globalisation and family development processes Influenced by globalisation European countries experience processes which still have greatly varying consequences Cultural differences reflected in a range of family schemes and national family policies are one reason for the continued existence of differences in the scope and speed of change processes Quite generally images and concepts of family have become more heterogeneous and flexible The flip side of this coin is that family members are increasingly faced with the challenges of achieving a satisfactory work life balance a task aggravated by globalisation We therefore need to ask how family policy can help families enjoy adequate freedom of action and latitude for their decision making To summarise a read well worth the effort for all experts working in family research and family policy

Professions Mike Saks, 2021-04-19 Professions and professionalism have played an integral part in business and society In this book Mike Saks provides a thorough overview of this field through an analysis of a range of professions including amongst others accountants doctors and lawyers The book offers a critical analysis of such privileged occupational groups in modern societies Anticipating a positive if changing role for such groups in the years ahead the book outlines conflicting theoretical perspectives on professions and discusses current developments in an accessible multi disciplinary style The book documents their evolution and contemporary transformation from medieval guilds to fully fledged professions and international professional service firms while pointing a path towards their future in the world of work and beyond With insights into the recent challenges provided by clients citizens the state and corporations in neo liberal societies Professions provides a concise overview that will be essential reading for students academics and others interested in the operation of these key occupational groups in business and society     The Making of Lawyers' Careers Robert L. Nelson, Bryant G. Garth, Ronit Dinovitzer, Joyce S. Sterling, David B. Wilkins, Meghan Dawe, Ethan Michelson, 2023-10-03 How do hierarchies of race class gender and law school status condition the career trajectories of lawyers And how do individual lawyers strategically navigate the constraints and opportunities of their environments Where do they find professional satisfaction This book offers an unprecedented account of opportunity structures and social stratification within the early 21st century American legal profession combining unique longitudinal survey data with interviews storytelling and insights from social theory Starting in 2000 the authors collected over 10 000 survey responses from more than 5 000 lawyers following these lawyers through the first twenty years of their careers They also conducted in depth interviews with more than 200 lawyers They contextualize their findings through attention to the features of a market driven legal profession in particular the growth in recent decades of the private sector relative to the public sector and corresponding disparities in earnings and status between these different segments The analysis in this book reveals a legal profession that is highly stratified Although individual lawyers exercise agency and often find satisfaction in their work there are deep divisions within the profession by client type and practice setting and women and attorneys of color face discrimination and persistent barriers to advancement The careers of lawyers both reflect and reproduce inequalities in law and society writ large

Diversity in Practice Spencer Headworth, Robert L. Nelson, Ronit Dinovitzer, David B. Wilkins, 2016-04-01 Expressions of support for diversity are nearly ubiquitous among contemporary law firms and corporations Organizations back these rhetorical commitments with dedicated diversity staff and various diversity and inclusion initiatives Yet the goal of proportionate representation for people of color and women remains unrealized Members of historically underrepresented groups remain seriously disadvantaged in professional training and work environments that white upper class men continue to dominate While many professional labor markets manifest patterns of demographic inequality these patterns are particularly pronounced in the law and elite segments of many professions Diversity in Practice analyzes the disconnect between expressed commitments to diversity and practical achievements revealing the often obscure systemic causes that drive persistent professional inequalities These original contributions build on existing literature and forge new paths in explaining enduring patterns of stratification in professional careers These more realistic assessments provide opportunities to move beyond mere rhetoric to something approaching diversity in practice
