Mike Nichols Mark Harris, 2022-02-01 One of The Hollywood Reporter's 100 Greatest Film Books of All Time A National Book Critics Circle finalist One of People's top 10 books of 2021 An instant New York Times bestseller Named a best book of the year by NPR and Time A magnificent biography of one of the most protean creative forces in American entertainment history a life of dazzling highs and vertiginous plunges some of the worst largely unknown until now by the acclaimed author of Pictures at a Revolution and Five Came Back Mike Nichols burst onto the scene as a wunderkind while still in his twenties he was half of a hit improv duo with Elaine May that was the talk of the country Next he directed four consecutive hit plays won back to back Tonys ushered in a new era of Hollywood moviemaking with Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf and followed it with The Graduate which won him an Oscar and became the third highest grossing movie ever At thirty five he lived in a three story Central Park West penthouse drove a Rolls Royce collected Arabian horses and counted Jacqueline Kennedy Elizabeth Taylor Leonard Bernstein and Richard Avedon as friends Where he arrived is even more astonishing given where he had begun born Igor Peschkowsky to a Jewish couple in Berlin in 1931 he was sent along with his younger brother to America on a ship in 1939 The young immigrant boy caught very few breaks He was bullied and ostracized an allergic reaction had rendered him permanently hairless and his father died when he was just twelve leaving his mother alone and overwhelmed The gulf between these two sets of facts explains a great deal about Nichols's transformation from lonely outsider to the center of more than one cultural universe the acute powers of observation that first made him famous the nourishment he drew from his creative partnerships most enduringly with May his unquenchable drive his hunger for security and status and the depressions and self medications that brought him to terrible lows It would take decades for him to come to grips with his demons In an incomparable portrait that follows Nichols from Berlin to New York to Chicago to Hollywood Mark Harris explores with brilliantly vivid detail and insight the life work struggle and passion of an artist and man in constant motion Among the 250 people Harris interviewed Elaine May Meryl Streep Stephen Sondheim Robert Redford Glenn Close Tom Hanks Candice Bergen Emma Thompson Annette Bening Natalie Portman Julia Roberts Lorne Michaels and Gloria Steinem Mark Harris gives an intimate and evenhanded accounting of success and failure alike the portrait is not always flattering but its ultimate impact is to present the full story of one of the most richly interesting complicated and consequential figures the worlds of theater and motion pictures have ever seen It is a triumph of the biographer's art

Against White Feminism: Notes on Disruption Rafia Zakaria, 2021-08-17 A radically inclusive intersectional and transnational approach to the fight for women's rights Upper middle class white women have long been heralded as experts on feminism They have presided over multinational feminist organizations and written much of what we consider the feminist canon espousing sexual liberation and satisfaction LGBTQ inclusion and racial solidarity all while branding the language of the movement itself in whiteness and speaking over Black and Brown women in an effort to uphold privilege and perceived cultural superiority An American Muslim woman attorney and political philosopher Rafia Zakaria champions a reconstruction of feminism in Against White Feminism centering women of color in this transformative overview and counter manifesto to white feminism's global long standing affinity with colonial patriarchal and white supremacist ideals Covering such ground as the legacy of the British feminist imperialist savior complex and the colonial thesis that all reform comes from the West to the condescension of the white feminist led aid industrial complex and the conflation of sexual liberation as the sum total of empowerment Zakaria follows in the tradition of intersectional feminist forebears Kimberl Crenshaw Adrienne Rich and Audre Lorde Zakaria ultimately refutes and reimagines the apolitical aspirations of white feminist empowerment in this staggering radical critique with Black and Brown feminist thought at the forefront

The Rulebreaker Susan Page, 2024-04-23 A smart juicy deeply reported Katie Couric biography of the most successful female broadcaster of all time Barbara Walters a woman whose personal demons fueled an ambition that broke all the rules and finally gave women a permanent place on the air written by bestselling author Susan Page Barbara Walters was a force from the time TV was exploding on the American scene in the 1960s to its waning dominance in a new world of competition from streaming services and social media half a century later She was not just a groundbreaker for women Oprah announced when she was seventeen that she wanted to be Barbara Walters but also expanded the big TV interview and then dominated the genre By the end of her career she had interviewed more of the famous and infamous from presidents to movie stars to criminals to despots than any other journalist in history Then at sixty seven past the age of many female broadcasters found themselves involuntarily retired she pioneered a new form of talk TV called The View She is on the short list of those who have left the biggest imprints on television news and on our culture male or female So who was the woman behind the legacy In The Rulebreaker Susan Page conducts 150 interviews and extensive archival research to discover that Walters was driven to keep herself and her family afloat after her mercurial and famous impresario father attempted suicide But she never lost the fear of an impending catastrophe which is what led her to ask for things no woman had ever asked for before to ignore the rules of misogynistic culture to outcompete her most ferocious competitors and to protect her complicated marriages and love life from scrutiny Page breaks news on every front from the daring things Walters did to become the woman who reinvented the TV interview to the secrets she kept until her death This is the stunning Norah O'Donnell brilliantly written Andrea Mitchell account of the woman who knew she had to break all the rules so she could break all the rules about what viewers deserved to know
