Nice Extracting Stone Madness Poems 1962:

Extracting the Stone of Madness Alejandra Pizarnik, 2016-05-17 The first full length collection in English by one of Latin America's most significant twentieth century poets. Revered by the likes of Octavio Paz and Roberto Bolaño, Alejandra Pizarnik is still a hidden treasure in the U.S. Extracting the Stone of Madness (1962/1972) comprises all of her middle to late work as well as a selection of posthumously published verse. Obsessed with themes of solitude, childhood madness, and death, Pizarnik explored the shifting valences of the self and the border between speech and silence. In her own words, she was drawn to the suffering of Baudelaire, the suicide of Nerval, the premature silence of Rimbaud, the mysterious and fleeting presence of Lautréamont, as well as to the unparalleled intensity of Artaud's physical and moral suffering. A Jungian Exploration of the Puella Archetype Susan E. Schwartz, 2024-12-16 This fascinating new book explores the puella as an archetypal, symbolic, and personality figure reaching into the classical foundations of Jungian analytical psychology, focusing on the modern conflicts reverberating personally and culturally to remove the obstacles for accessing our more complete selves. Puella is youthful, charming, and seductive and unfolds the creative, unusual wisdom of the feminine. Postmodern fluidity presents other realities, rethinking and reenacting the truth to oneself. If a denigrated psyche is halted from development until addressed, the author employs a cross-disciplinary approach and clinical vignettes from narratives of real people from diverse backgrounds, reflecting Jungian thought and treatment along with other psychoanalytical perspectives for the unfolding of puella. Examining the puella as a key figure in psychological development within a diverse world, this book will be appealing to Jungian analysts and also to mental health professionals of various paradigms interested in Jungian analytical and philosophical thought. Nothing As We Need It Daniela Cascella, 2022-06-30 Nothing As We Need It A Chimera imagines and writes a composite and impure form of criticism that embodies the writing of research as recursive, entangled, and many-voiced. Shaped by encounters with literature not translated in English by the polyphonies, artifices, and concealments of a bilingual self and by the sense of speechlessness and haunting when writing of works that cannot be instantly quoted, this book's subtitle derives from the mythological Chimera, a monstrous creature made of three different parts impossible in theory but real in the imagination and in the reading of the myth. Similarly, the book is written in different styles, some of which may seem impossible, monstrous, and disturbing. It manifests critical writing as enmeshment and conversation with its subject matters, favours impurity rather than detachment, embraces exaggeration, repetition, laughter, and self-parody as legitimate forms of knowledge. Yet a chimera also designates the object of a yearning deemed unattainable; this book exists in the space of such yearning, in the tension between words and what exceeds them, their overtones. The critic is exhausted by yearning rather than the owner of exhaustive knowledge. A Menippean satire for critical writing, Nothing As We Need It sustains its argument for composite and impure writing in its form. It demands ways of reading equally varied and wildly imaginative. Listening to literature beyond the limits of textual analysis, it dismisses the visual implications of reflection.

which assumes detachment and polished surfaces in favour of an aural method of resonance allowing enmeshment and interference This book unsettles language welcomes uninhibited exaggeration and wordplay and manifests possibilities for working with citation beyond the boundaries of inverted commas Daniela Cascella is an Italian British writer working with forms and transformations of critical writing that inhabit echo and are haunted by their subjects literature voices concealments of the self Writing in English as a second language writing as a stranger in a language she is drawn toward unstable and uncomfortable forms of writing as sounding and toward the transmissions and interferences of knowledge across cultures Her books include Chimeras A Deranged Essay An Imaginary Conversation A Transculation Sublunary Editions 2022 Singed Muted Voice Transmissions After The Fire Equus Press 2017 F M R L Footnotes Mirages Refrains and Leftovers of Writing Sound Zer0 Books 2015 and En Ab me Listening Reading Writing An Archival Fiction Zer0 Books 2012 Cascella is Programme Tutor in the Art Writing MLitt at the Glasgow School of Art Associate Lecturer in the Sound Arts MA at London College of Communication and Commissioning Editor at MAP Magazine She publishes and lectures internationally and often works with artists writers and musicians on collaborative projects and performative readings
