Building Migrant Cities in the Gulf Florian Wiedmann, Ashraf M. Salama, 2019-07-25 Human history has seen many settlements transformed or built entirely by expatriate work forces and foreigners arriving from various places Recent migration patterns in the Gulf have led to emerging airport societies on unprecedented scales Most guest workers both labourers and mid to high income groups perceive their stay as a temporary opportunity to earn suitable income or gain experience This timely book analyses the essential characteristics of this unique urban phenomenon substantiated by concrete examples and empirical research Both authors have lived and worked in the Gulf including Qatar Bahrain and the United Arab Emirates during various periods between 2006 and 2014 They explore Gulf cities from macro and interconnected perspectives rather than focusing solely on singular aspects within the built environment As academic architects specialised in urbanism and the complex dynamics between people and places the authors build new bridges for understanding demographic and social changes impacting urban transformations in the Gulf

Transnational Geographies of The Heart Katie Walsh, 2018-07-23 Transnational Geographies of the Heart explores the spatialisation of intimacy in everyday life through an analysis of intimate subjectivities in transnational spaces Draws on ethnographic research with British migrants in Dubai United Arab Emirates during a phase of rapid globalisation and economic diversification in 2002 2004 Highlights the negotiation of inter personal relationships as enormously significant in relation to the dialectic of home and migration Includes four empirical chapters focused on the production of expatriate subjectivities community and friendships sex and romance and families Demonstrates that a critical analysis of the geographies of intimacy might productively contribute to our understanding of the ways in which intimate subjectivities are embodied emplaced and co produced across binaries of public private and local global space

Becoming a Migrant Worker in Nepal Hannah Uprety, 2022-09-01 High profile events such as the 2022 FIFA World Cup in Qatar have made one thing abundantly clear Much of today s economic growth would be unthinkable without the low wage employment of migrant workers But which cultural economic and political infrastructures in the source countries make these types of migration possible in the first place Based on multi sensory ethnographic research in Nepal Hannah Uprety retraces the practices of recruitment and instruction that step by step transform Nepali labor into an internationally marketable commodity In doing so she uncovers a migration regime that effectively turns local men and women into migrant workers before they even leave the country

Who Needs Migrant Workers? Martin Ruhs, Bridget Anderson, 2010-08-26 This book discusses the demand for migrant labour both conceptually and empirically with a focus on the UK

Class Inequality in the Global City J. Ye, 2016-04-29 In striving to become cosmopolitan global cities aim to attract highly skilled workers while relying on a vast underbelly of low waged low status migrants This book tells the story of one such city revealing how national development produces both aspirations to be cosmopolitan and to improve one s class standing along with limitations in achieving such aims Through the analysis of three different groups of workers in Singapore Ye shows that cosmopolitanism is an exclusive and aspirational construct created through global and national development strategies transnational migration and individual senses of identity This dialectic relationship between class and cosmopolitanism is never free from power and is constituted through material and symbolic conditions struggles and violence Class is also constituted through the self and lies at the very heart of different constructions of personhood as they intersect with gender race sexuality ethnicity and nationality

Muslim Mobilities ,2024-12-30 A translocal ethnography about Tajik migrants engagement in projects of reform Islamic life in Dubai the book maps Gulf migration onto larger geographies of Muslim mobility piety and belonging across places in Eurasia the Gulf and wider Middle East Spatializing the intersection of migration work and Muslim piety the book examines how formations of ethical subjectivity are closely tied to the multiple places that shape migrants travel itineraries and related experiences of dwelling there and crossing them Situating these spatial biographies in broader transregional fields of Muslim mobility connectedness and placemaking the book explores why in the early 2000s young Tajik Muslims pursued spiritual social and moral progress in the booming religious economy of Dubai s fur coat business sector The book s spatial approach works threefold With a focus on abroad it interrogates the interplay of spatial perceptions of the good elsewhere with migrants placemaking there A second focus is on how multiplicity and flexibility of migrant situatedness spatially temporally socially in Persianate Russophone and Arab culturescapes shape mobile pious subjectivities and cosmopolitan belongings The book also develops a situated Tajik perspective on Gulf migration that grounds in circulating spatial imaginaries Muslim knowledge repertoires as well as in individual travel modes paths and migrant experiences resulting from precarious livelihoods and discriminating migrant regimes Linking anthropology with new area studies approaches this book seeks to enhance multidisciplinary scholarship about the complex relation between religion migration and mobile subjectivity in both Central Asian and Gulf studies and in the anthropology of Islam     Revisiting the Law and Governance of Trafficking, Forced Labor and Modern Slavery Prabha Kotiswaran,2017-05-25 This edited volume examines contemporary global discourses on trafficking forced labor and modern slavery from a variety of perspectives     International Encyclopedia of Human Geography ,2019-11-29 International Encyclopedia of Human Geography Second Edition Fourteen Volume Set embraces diversity by design and captures the ways in which humans share places and view differences based on gender race nationality location and other factors in other words the things that make people and places different Questions of for example politics economics race relations and migration are introduced and discussed through a geographical lens This updated edition will assist readers in their research by providing factual information historical perspectives theoretical approaches reviews of literature and provocative topical discussions that will stimulate creative thinking Presents the most up to date and comprehensive coverage on the topic of human geography Contains extensive scope and depth of coverage Emphasizes how geographers interact with understand and contribute to problem solving in the contemporary world Places an emphasis on how geography is relevant in a social and interdisciplinary context     The Transnational Middle East Leïla Vignal,2016-10-04 The Middle East has been undergoing new crises since the powerful socio political uprisings known as the Arab Spring took place in several countries in 2011 Some countries are experiencing a long term collapse of their political and social structures out of internal conflicts and external interventions The Transnational Middle East posits that in the Middle East the development of regional dynamics of processes and circulations of all kinds can be documented In this regard the approaches it develops bottom up regionalisation globalisation from below allow for a better understanding of the ways in which the Middle East is part of global transformations The book analyses how through their practices Middle East societies elaborate a regional space which is not institutionalised Based on fieldwork in the Middle East the book provides venues for further theoretical elaboration on globalisation and contemporary societies as well as on processes of regionalisation It draws on the emergence of genuine regional spaces of culture art economic activity human circulation which supplement and do not contradict other infra national national or global social processes As in other areas of the world these transformations are to a large extent the mode of the Middle East s insertion into globalisation In this respect they go against standard narratives of the supposed exceptionalism of the region This book will be a great contribution to comparative politics Middle Eastern studies globalisation and international relations

A Good Provider Is One Who Leaves Jason DeParle, 2020-08-18 One of The Washington Post s 10 Best Books of the Year A remarkable book indispensable The Boston Globe A sweeping deeply reported tale of international migration DeParle s understanding of migration is refreshingly clear eyed and nuanced The New York Times This is epic reporting nonfiction on a whole other level One of the best books on immigration written in a generation Matthew Desmond author of Evicted The definitive chronicle of our new age of global migration told through the multi generational saga of a Filipino family by a veteran New York Times reporter and two time Pulitzer Prize finalist When Jason DeParle moved into the Manila slums with Tita Comodas and her family three decades ago he never imagined his reporting on them would span three generations and turn into the defining chronicle of a new age the age of global migration In a monumental book that gives new meaning to immersion journalism DeParle paints an intimate portrait of an unforgettable family as they endure years of sacrifice and separation willing themselves out of shantytown poverty into a new global middle class At the heart of the story is Tita s daughter Rosalie Beating the odds she struggles through nursing school and works her way across the Middle East until a Texas hospital fulfills her dreams with a job offer in the States Migration is changing the world reordering politics economics and cultures across the globe With nearly 45 million immigrants in the United States few issues are as polarizing But if the politics of immigration is broken immigration itself tens of millions of people gathered from every corner of the globe remains an underappreciated American success Expertly combining the personal and panoramic DeParle presents a family saga and a global phenomenon Restarting her life in Galveston Rosalie brings her reluctant husband and three young children with whom she has rarely lived They must learn to become a family even as they learn a new country Ordinary and extraordinary at once their journey is a twenty first century classic rendered in gripping detail

The UAE William Gueraiche, 2016-08-10 William Gueraiche s work is the first scholarly study of the UAE s campaign to establish itself on the international stage and to explore the impact that its economic transformation has had on the country Emirati society remains at core conservative and the preservation of Arab Islamic identity remains important yet the UAE has the highest proportion of foreigners of any country in the world What does this mean for the identity of Emiratis living there and what are the implications for foreigners working there The author also explores the environmental costs of the Dubai lifestyle its Look East policy and increasing volume of trade with eastern Asia and the ways in which the UAE has sought to challenge the traditional hegemony of Saudi Arabia in the region In a final chapter the author examines the impact of the economic depression that called the whole representation of Dubai into question

A Critical Political Economy of the Middle East and North Africa Joel Beinin, Bassam Haddad, Sherene Seikaly, 2020-12-22 This book offers the first critical engagement with the political economy of the Middle East and North Africa Challenging conventional wisdom on the origins and contemporary dynamics of capitalism in the region these cutting edge essays demonstrate how critical political economy can illuminate both historical and contemporary dynamics of the region and contribute to wider political economy debates from the vantage point of the Middle East Leading scholars representing several disciplines contribute both thematic and country specific analyses Their writings critically examine major issues in political economy notably the mutual constitution of states markets and classes the co constitution of class race gender and other forms of identity varying modes of capital accumulation and the legal political and cultural forms of their regulation relations among local national and global forms of capital class and culture technopolitics the role of war in the constitution of states and classes and practices and cultures of domination and resistance Visit politicaleconomyproject.org for additional media and learning resources

Political Economy and Tourism Jan Mosedale, 2010-01-11 Political economy in its various guises and transfigurations is a research philosophy that presents both social commentary and theoretical progress and is concerned with a number of different topics politics regulation and governance production systems social relations inequality and development amongst many others As a critical theory political economy seeks to provide an understanding of societies and of the structures and social relations that form them in order to evoke social change toward more equitable conditions Despite the early influence of critical development studies and political economy on tourism research political economy has received relatively little attention in tourism research Political Economy and Tourism the first volume to bring together different theoretical perspectives and discourse in political economy related to tourism Written by leading scholars the text is organised into three sequential Parts linked by the principle that the political and the economic are intimately connected Part one presents different approaches to political economy including Marxist political economy regulation comparative political economy commodity chain research and alternative political economies Part two links key themes of political economy such as class gender labour development and consumption to tourism and Part three examines the political economy at various geographical scales and focuses on the outcomes and processes of the political act of planning and managing tourism production This engaging volume provides insights and alternative critical perspectives on political economy theory to expand discussions of tourism development and policy in the future Political Economy and Tourism is a valuable text for students researchers and academics interested in Tourism and related disciplines

Workers in Asia Nicole Constable, 2013-09-13 This book provides rich and provocative comparative studies of South and Southeast Asian domestic workers who migrate to other parts of Asia These studies range from Hong Kong Macau and Singapore to Yemen Israel Jordan and the UAE Conceptually and methodologically this book challenges us to move beyond established regional divides and proposes new ways of mapping inter Asian connections The authors view migrant workers within a wider spatial context of intersecting groups and trajectories through time Keenly attentive to the importance of migrants of diverse nationalities who have labored in multiple regions this book examines intimate connections and distant divides in the social lives and politics of migrant workers across time and space Collectively the authors propose new themes new comparative frameworks and new methodologies for considering vastly different degrees of social support structures and political activism and the varied meanings of citizenship and state responsibility in sending and receiving countries They highlight the importance of formal institutions that shape and promote migratory labor advocacy for workers or curtail workers rights as well as the social identities and cultural practices and beliefs that may be linked to new inter ethnic social and political affiliations that traverse and also transform inter Asian spaces and pathways to mobility This book was published as a special issue of Critical Asian Studies

Everyday Life in the Spectacular City Rana AlMutawa, 2024-01-09 Everyday Life in the Spectacular City is a groundbreaking urban ethnography that reveals how middle class citizens and longtime residents of Dubai interact with the city s so called superficial spaces to create meaningful social lives Rana AlMutawa shows that inhabitants adapt themselves to top down development projects from big malls to megaprojects These structures serve residents evolving social needs transforming Dubai s spectacular spaces into personally important cultural sites These practices are significant because they expand our understanding of agency as not only subversive but also adaptive Through extensive fieldwork AlMutawa herself an Emirati native to Dubai finds a more nuanced story of belonging This story does not seek to uncover the real city that lies beneath the veneer of the spectacle but rather to demonstrate that social meanings and forms of belonging take place within the spectacle itself By offering an alternative to the discourse of authenticity and elucidating the dynamics of ambivalent belonging AlMutawa belies stereotypes that portray Dubai s developments as alienating and inherently disempowering Everyday Life in the Spectacular City speaks beyond the Middle East to a globalized phenomenon for Dubai s spectacles are unexceptional in today s changing world

Multinational Corporations and Organization Theory Christoph Dörrenbächer, Mike Geppert, 2017-02-24 This volume covers a range of on going and newly emerging debates in the study of multinational companies MNCs A key aim is to consolidate and make available in one place new conceptual methodological and critical MNC research
