The New Art Museum Library Amelia Nelson, Traci E. Timmons, 2021-04-15 The New Art Museum Library addresses the issues facing today's art museum libraries through a series of scholarly essays written by top librarians in the field. In 2007 the publication Art Museum Libraries and Librarianship edited by Joan Benedetti was the first to solely focus on the field of art museum librarianship. In the decade since then many changes have occurred in the field both technological and ideological prompting the need for a follow up publication. In addition to representing current thinking and practice this new publication also addresses the need to clearly articulate and define the art museum library's value within its institution. It documents the broad changes in the environment that art museum libraries now function within and to celebrate the many innovative initiatives that are flourishing in this new landscape. Librarians working in art museum face unique challenges as museums redefine what object based visitor centric learning looks like in the 21st century. These unique challenges mean that art museum libraries are developing new strategies and initiatives so that they can continue to thrive in this environment. The unique nature of these initiatives mean that they will be useful to librarians working in a wide range of special libraries as well as more broadly in academic and public libraries. The New Art Museum Library is uniquely positioned to present new strategies and initiatives including digital art history initiatives the new norms in art museum library staffing and the public programming priorities that are core to many art museum libraries today. This book is an endorsed project of ARLIS NA.

New York Alexandra Carroll, 2015-10-27 New York is an extraordinary city. A place of pilgrimage for world travelers it's a dream destination for the serious culture buff, style hunter and aesthetically minded wanderer. In this inspiring guide Alexandra Carroll takes you beyond the well known facades and into the depths of Manhattan and Brooklyn seeking out the very best the city has to offer: galleries large and small, the best bookstores, the locals' favourite flea markets, jaw dropping fashion and accessory emporiums and must visit eateries. Guided walks take you on a tour through the city's most enchanting neighbourhoods: you'll find clusters of vintage clothing stores in East Village, streets of galleries around Chelsea, unforgettable Art Deco architecture in Midtown East and gorgeous mid nineteenth century houses in Brooklyn Heights. Stunningly photographed and designed, New York will help you to navigate the grid and discover the aesthetic pleasures that make this city endlessly enticing and fascinating. This is a specially formatted fixed layout ebook that retains the look and feel of the print book.

David Zwirner: 25 Years Richard Shiff, Robert Storr, 2018-10-23 Published on the occasion of the twenty five year anniversary of David Zwirner this book paints a picture of the gallery's growth and development through the lens of the artists that have shaped it. Since its founding in 1993 David Zwirner has above all else been guided by its artist centric ethos. Beginning with the gallery's early days on Greens Street in SoHo to its transition and expansion to Chelsea, London, the Upper East Side and Hong Kong this book captures David Zwirner's devotion to its inimitable roster of artists and estates. The heart of the publication is a wide ranging dynamic selection of the gallery's standout exhibitions in many cases handpicked by David Zwirner himself. Many of these exhibitions highlight the countless works that ended up in major museum and private collections around the world. Also featured is an extensive gallery history that details all of the exhibitions by every artist and estate presented at David Zwirner accompanied by archival imagery. With contributions by Richard Schiff and Robert Storr as well as a foreword by David Zwirner, this publication offers rare insights into the growth of a commercial gallery through its long-term commitment to artists. The Handbook of Art and Design Librarianship Paul Glassman, Judy Dyki, 2017-10-24

The Handbook of Art and Design Librarianship integrates theory and practice to offer guidelines for information professionals working in art and design environments who need to support and anticipate the information needs of artists, designers, architects, and the historians who study those disciplines. Since the first edition of this title, the world of art and design libraries has been transformed by rapid advances in technology, an explosion in social media, and the release of new standards and guidelines. This new edition, offering mostly entirely new chapters, provides an accessible, fully updated guide to the world of academic art and design libraries from a range of international experts who reflect current practice at a global level. Coverage includes case studies and library profiles providing benchmarks for developing facilities, teaching and learning, including the ACRL Framework, teaching with special collections, meta-literacies, instructional design, and cultural differences, developments in institutional repositories, digital humanities, and makerspaces, contemporary library design spaces for collaboration and sustainability. This book will be useful reading for students taking library and information science courses in art librarianship, special collections, and archives, as well as practising library and information professionals in art and design, school libraries, art museum libraries, and public libraries.

The JAB Anthology Johanna Drucker, Brad Freeman, 2023-10-17

This anthology of articles selected from JAB: The Journal of Artists' Books, 1994-2020, contains some of the best critical writing on artists' books produced in the last quarter of a century. Driven by the editorial vision of artist Brad Freeman, JAB began as a provocative pamphlet and expanded to become a significant journal documenting artists' books from multiple perspectives. With its range of participants and approaches, JAB provided a unique venue for sustained critical writing in the field and developed a broad subscriber base among institutional and private collectors and readers. It featured artists' profiles, book reviews, reports from book fairs and conferences, interviews with major figures, and much lively debate about how to engage critically with artists' books. More than two hundred writers and artists from nearly two dozen countries around the globe were published in its pages. Contributions came from authors in Australia, North America, Europe, the UK, and South America, and from literary studies, visual arts, photography, media theory, and book history, as well as other backgrounds. The original issues each had covers designed and often printed by individual book artists. Later issues contained artists' books produced exclusively for its subscribers. No other journal dedicated exclusively to artists' books had so long a run or such broad representation. As JAB's visibility increased, more artists and writers contributed to its ongoing exchanges. The essays in this collection are all exemplary works of critical writing that illuminate individual books artists or presses but also offer a diverse range of methodological approaches to interpreting these vibrant and compelling works of art Providing new access to these essays will hopefully inspire new work in creative and intellectual areas of the field and offer a resource to those responsible for teaching and collecting artists books
