Next Of Kin The Family In Chicano Cultural Politics:

Next of Kin Richard T. Rodríguez, 2009-06-16 A feminist analysis of the Chicano family that sees it as a site of political struggle with patriarchal masculinity nationalism and homophobia

Autobiography in Black and Brown Michael Nieto Garcia, 2014-11-15 Richard Wright was the grandson of slaves Richard Rodriguez the son of immigrants One black the other brown each author prominently displays his race in the title of his autobiography Black Boy and Brown Wright was a radical left winger while Rodriguez is widely viewed as a reactionary Despite their differences Michael Nieto Garcia points out the two share a preoccupation with issues of agency class struggle ethnic identity the search for community and the quest for social justice Garcia's study the first to compare these two widely read writers argues that ethnic autobiography reflects the complexity of ethnic identity revealing a narrative self that is bound to a visible ethnicity yet is also protean and free These autobiographies according to Garcia exemplify the tensions and contradictions inherent in identity In their presentation of the self we see the rejection not only of essentialized notions of ethnic authenticity but also of any conception of an ethnic self that is not also communally derived The image reflected in the mirror of autobiography also reminds us that consciousness itself is altered by our reading and that the construction of modern ethnicity is shaped to a considerable extent by print culture

Negotiating Feminisms Eilidh AB Hall, 2021-03-04 Negotiating Feminisms examines intergenerational feminism in Chicanx family life It analyses literary representations of the ways that Chicanas negotiate feminisms in the family across generations through the maintenance contestation and adaptation of traditional gender roles Using an original theoretical lens of negotiation to read the works of Ana Castillo and Sandra Cisneros this book unpacks intergenerational resistance to patriarchal oppression This book shows how the works of Cisneros and Castillo articulate a politics of negotiation that critiques the gendered ideologies and roles of the family In doing so the book's discussion not only engages with literary representations but also connects these representations to the contextual experience of Chicanx family life This book calls for a rethinking of women characters beyond limited and limiting familial roles and uses the framework of feminist negotiation as a means to explore the empowering possibilities of intergenerational female relationships

The Oxford Handbook of Latino Studies Ilan Stavans, 2020-03-03 At the beginning of the third decade of the 21st century the Latino minority the biggest and fastest growing in the United States is at a crossroads Is assimilation taking place in comparable ways to previous immigrant groups Are the links to the countries of origin being redefined in the age of contested globalism How are Latinos changing America and how is America changing Latinos The Oxford Handbook of Latino Studies reflects on these questions offering a sweeping exploration of Latinas and Latinos complex experiences in the United States Edited by leading expert Ilan Stavans the handbook traces the emergence of Latino studies as a vibrant and interdisciplinary field of research starting in the 1980s assessing the current state of the discipline while suggesting new paths for exploration With its twenty three essays and a conversation by established and emerging scholars the book discusses various aspects of Latino life and history from literature popular culture and music to religion philosophy and language identity The articles present new interpretations of important themes such as the Chicano Movement gender and race relations the changes in demographics the tension between rural and urban communities immigration and the US Mexico border the legacy of colonialism and the controversy surrounding Spanglish The first handbook on Latino Studies this collection offers a multifaceted and thought provoking look at how Latinos are redefining the American identity Domestic Negotiations Marci R. McMahon, 2013-07-01 This interdisciplinary study explores how US Mexicana and Chicana authors and artists across different historical periods and regions use domestic space to actively claim their own histories Through negotiation a concept that accounts for artistic practices outside the duality of resistance accommodation and self fashioning Marci R McMahon demonstrates how the very sites of domesticity are used to engage the many political and recurring debates about race gender and immigration affecting Mexicanas and Chicanas from the early twentieth century to today Domestic Negotiations covers a range of archival sources and cultural productions including the self fashioning of the chili queens of San Antonio Texas Jovita Gonz lez s romance novel Caballero the home economics career and cookbooks of Fabiola Cabeza de Baca Sandra Cisneros s purple house controversy and her acclaimed text The House on Mango Street Patssi Valdez s self fashioning and performance of domestic space in Asco and as a solo artist Diane Rodr guez s performance of domesticity in Hollywood television and direction of domestic roles in theater and Alma L pez s digital prints of domestic labor in Los Angeles With intimate close readings McMahon shows how Mexicanas and Chicanas shape domestic space to construct identities outside of gendered racialized and xenophobic rhetoric Flying Under the Radar with the Royal Chicano Air Force Ella Maria Diaz, 2017-04-11 Winner National Association for Chicana and Chicano Studies Book Award 2019 The Royal Chicano Air Force produced major works of visual art poetry prose music and performance during the second half of the twentieth century and first decades of the twenty first Materializing in Sacramento California in 1969 and established between 1970 and 1972 the RCAF helped redefine the meaning of artistic production and artwork to include community engagement projects such as breakfast programs community art classes and political and labor activism The collective s work has contributed significantly both to Chicano a civil rights activism and to Chicano a art history literature and culture Blending RCAF members biographies and accounts of their artistic production with art historical cultural and literary scholarship Flying under the Radar with the Royal Chicano Air Force is the first in depth study of this vanguard Chicano a arts collective and activist group Ella Maria Diaz investigates how the RCAF questioned and countered conventions of Western art from the canon taught in US institutions to Mexican national art history while advancing a Chicano a historical consciousness in the cultural borderlands In particular she demonstrates how women significantly contributed to the collective s output navigating and challenging the overarching patriarchal cultural norms of the Chicano Movement and their manifestations in the RCAF Diaz also shows how the RCAF s verbal and visual architecture a literal and figurative construction of Chicano a signs symbols and texts established the groundwork for numerous theoretical interventions made by key scholars in the 1990s and the twenty first century

Graphic Borders Frederick Luis Aldama, Christopher González, 2016-04-12 From the influential work of Los Bros Hernandez in Love Latino comic book author artists who complicate issues of race and gender through their careful reconfigurations of the body comic strips Latino superheroes in mainstream comics and the complex ways that Latino superheroes are created and consumed within larger popular cultural trends Taken as a whole the book unveils the resplendent riches of comics by and about Latinos and proves that there are no limits to the ways in which Latinos can be represented and imagined in the world of comics

A Promising Problem Carlos Kevin Blanton, 2016-03-08 Chicana o history has reached an intriguing juncture While academic and intellectual studies are embracing new highly nuanced perspectives on race class gender education identity and community the field itself continues to be viewed as a battleground subject to attacks from outside academia by those who claim that the discipline promotes racial hatred and anti Americanism Against a backdrop of deportations and voter suppression targeting Latinos A Promising Problem presents the optimistic voices of scholars who call for sophisticated solutions while embracing transnationalism and the reality of multiple overlapping identities Showcasing a variety of new directions this anthology spans topics such as growth and reassessment in Chicana o history manifested in a disruption of nationalism and geographic essentialism the impact of legal history interracial relations and the experiences of Latino subpopulations in the US South race and the politics of religious history transborder feminism in the early twentieth century and aspirations for a field that increasingly demonstrates the relational dynamics of cultural production As they reflect on the state of their field the contributors offer significant insights into sociology psychology anthropology political science education and literature while tracing the history of activism throughout the last century and debating the very concepts of Chicano and Chicano history Although the political landscape is fraught with closed off rhetoric A Promising Problem encourages diversity of thought and opens the possibilities of historical imagination
