Strategic Information and Developments IBP USA, Performance and Politics in Tanzania Laura

Edmondson,2007-07-20 In Performance and Politics in Tanzania Laura Edmondson examines how politics social values and gender are expressed on stage Now a disappearing tradition Tanzanian popular theatre integrates comic sketches acrobatics melodrama song and dance to produce lively commentaries on what it means to be Tanzanian These dynamic shows invite improvisation and spontaneous and raucous audience participation as they explore popular sentiments Edmondson asserts that these performances overturn the boundary between official and popular art and offer a new way of thinking about African popular culture She discusses how the blurring of state agendas and local desires presents a charged environment for the exploration of Tanzanian political and social realities What is the meaning of democracy and who gets to define it Who is in power and how is power exposed or concealed What is the role of tradition in a postsocialist state How will the future of the nation be negotiated This engaging book provides important insight into the complexity of popular forms of expression during a time of political and social change in East Africa Africa and the West Godfrey Mwakikagile,2000 Besides her natural beauty the scenery and the climate and her abundant wildlife and natural resources Africa is probably best known as the homeland of hundreds of millions of people who live in abject poverty Millions are wracked by disease and blinded by ignorance And just as many go hungry every day But there is something else which also distinguishes Africa lack of unity among her people That is one of the main reasons why they were conquered by foreigners and why Africa is still weak and poor today There is no other continent which is endowed with so much in terms of natural resources But there is also no other continent where it has been so easy for foreigners to take what does not belong to them This book began as a self examination of the African personality in an attempt to understand Africa s place in the world especially in relation to the West

Polygamy in Northern Malawi Mlenga, Moses, 2016-01-13 The early missionaries brought

Christianity from the monogamous West to the polygamous societies of Africa Were the missionaries right in demanding that converts dismiss all but one wife Was this the demand of the Christian faith or of Western civilization And were the converts right to dismiss their wives though they had married them according to the laws of the land And who asked the children if they wanted their mothers to be dismissed and may or may not be married to another man The book argues that while polygamy is an African reality it is below Christian moral standards However is stopping converted polygamous men and women from baptism best practice if we believe that sin can be forgiven for the one who repents Can the shedding of responsibility for wives and children be made a precondition for such forgiveness
