Gender and Prestige in Literature Alexandra Dane, 2020-07-10 Gender and Prestige in Literature Contemporary Australian Book Culture explores the relationship between gender power reputation and book publishing's consecratory institutions in the Australian literary field from 1965-2015. Focusing on book reviews, literary festivals and literary prizes, this work analyses the ways in which these institutions exist in an increasingly cooperative and generative relationship in the contemporary publishing industry, a system designed to limit field transformation. Taking an intersectional approach, this research acknowledges that a number of factors, in addition to gender, may influence the reception of an author or a title in the literary field and finds that progress towards equality is unstable and non-linear. By combining quantitative data analysis with interviews from authors, editors, critics, publishers and prize judges, Alexandra Dane maps the circulation of prestige in Australian publishing, addressing questions around gender, identity, literary reputation, literary worth and the resilience of the status quo that have long plagued the field. Book Lust Nancy Pearl, 2009-09-29. More than any other event in Australia's legal, political and cultural history, the High Court of Australia's 1992 Mabo decision challenged previous ways of thinking about land, identity, belonging, the nation and history. Now, more than a quarter of a century after Mabo, this book examines the broader impacts of this landmark legal decision on various forms of Australian culture and cultural practice. How is Australia's post-Mabo imaginary being reflected, refracted and articulated in contemporary film, fiction, poetry, biography and other forms of cultural expression? To what extent has the discussion and practice of history, linguistics, anthropology and other branches of the humanities been challenged or transformed by Mabo? While the judges in Mabo recognised native title, they also denied Indigenous people sovereignty over the continent. How is First Nations sovereignty being articulated and creatively imagined in more recent post-Mabo discourse? This interdisciplinary book, offering a transnational perspective via scholars based in Australia, continental Europe and the UK, provides an overview of the diverse impact and discursive influence of Mabo on fields of artistic endeavour and cultural practice in Australia today. Two Prospectors Sam Shepard, Johnny Dark, 2013-11-01. diminishing or downplaying the importance of speaking the gospel John Dickson shows that on the other hand downplaying the range of activities that promote Christ to the world has its own set of problems It can make those who are not confident about speaking of anything let alone Jesus feel inadequate and self conscious in the task of reaching out to others Equally it can make those who do have a flair for speaking feel as though they are fulfilling Christ s mission just by talking But the reality is that the Lord wants our whole life not just our lips in the task of bringing the gospel to the world Every facet of our lives can be used by God to promote the news of his power and mercy In this practical guide to the biblical art of sharing your faith John Dickson offers refreshing insight into the ways that all Christians can and should be involved in spreading the good news of Jesus While not all Christians are called and gifted to become evangelists we are all called to promote the gospel through a wide range of activities prayer financial partnership good deeds godly lives public worship daily conversation etc with and without our lips As readers engage with this book grapple with its arguments and hear the stories of people coming to faith they will be inspired to see the whole of life as significant for bringing the gospel to the world and they will be liberated out of guilt and self consciousness in evangelism into becoming perfectly natural promoters of Jesus Christ
