A British Education Control Officer in Occupied Germany, 1945-1949 David Phillips, 2023-11-30 Edward Aitken Davies 1899 1981 served as an Education Control Officer in the British Zone of occupied Germany from the early summer of 1945 until December 1949 He thus experienced the implementation of policy in the Zone from the very beginnings of the occupation until the founding of the Federal Republic of Germany in 1949 During the period 1945 to 1947 he wrote weekly letters home to his mother Those letters together with the many speeches he gave in Germany during his time as a leading British officer in the Hanover region have not hitherto been available to researchers but can now be made accessible in edited form The letters are placed in the context of developments in British policy and with explanatory notes on the detail Taken together his letters and other documents provide insights into the day to day lives of the impressive group of individuals who oversaw the development of education in Germany from post war chaos to the reform and stability which restored the education system of the country to a pre eminent status in Europe Teaching Comparative Education Patricia K. Kubow, Allison H. Blosser, 2016-03-01 With chapter contributions from seminal scholars in the field of comparative and international education CIE this book examines the ways in which comparative education is being taught or advocated for in teacher education within higher education institutions worldwide A particular concern raised by the authors in locations as diverse as Germany Singapore the United Kingdom and the United States is the utilitarian approach in teacher education where that which is valued is that which is measurable The implications for what and how CIE should be taught is examined in light of the ideological sociocultural political and economic trends influencing education worldwide The main questions posed in the book include What are the challenges and opportunities for CIE and its practice now and in the future A History of Western Public Law Bruno Aguilera-Barchet, 2014-12-31 The book outlines the historical development of Public Law and the state from ancient times to the modern day offering an account of relevant events in parallel with a general historical background establishing and explaining the relationships between political religious and economic events The Common School Awakening David Komline, 2020-08-24 A statue of Horace Mann erected in front of the Boston State House in 1863 declares him the Father of the American Public School System For over a century and a half most narratives about early American education have taken this epithet as the truth As Mann looms over the Boston Common so he has also loomed over discussions of early American schooling Other scholarship has emphasized economic factors as the main reason for the emergence of public schools The Common School Awakening offers a new narrative about the rise of public schools in America that counters these conceptions In this book David Komline explains how a broad and distinctly American religious consensus emerged in the first half of the nineteenth century allowing people from across the religious spectrum to cooperate in systematizing and professionalizing America's schools in an effort to Christianize the country At the height of this movement several states introduced state sponsored teacher training colleges and concentrated government oversight of schools in offices such as the one held by Mann Shortly thereafter the religious consensus that had served as the foundation for this common school system disintegrated But the system itself remained the legacy of not just one man but of a whole network of reformers who put into motion a transatlantic and transdenominational religious movement the Common School Awakening The School World ,1903 Report of the Commissioner of Education United States. Office of Education,1892 The Educational record, with the proceedings at large of the British and foreign school society British and foreign school society,1863 Report of the Commissioner of Education Made to the Secretary of the Interior for the Year ... with Accompanying Papers United States. Bureau of Education,1895 Something Borrowed, Something Blue? Part One David Finegold,Laurel McFarland,William Richardson,1993-01-01 For Part Two please see https://play.google.com/store/books/details/David_Finegold_Something_Borrowed_Something_Blue_P?id=CvXCgAAQBAJ A distinct pattern emerged in the British education and training reform process in the latter half of the 1980s A government minister or a team of policy experts paid a brief study visit to the United States a short time later a new initiative was announced which bore a close resemblance to a US programme More recently the flow of policy ideas across the Atlantic appears to have reversed direction This book develops a three tiered approach to the analysis of policy borrowing The first section draws on a number of different literatures relevant to this area to create an analytical framework for the study of policy borrowing Section Two examines the specific context in which these borrowing episodes occurred asking Why did Britain look to America for policy inspiration in the latter half of the 1980s The final section examines individual cases of policy borrowing at the local and national levels attempting to distill lessons about the borrowing process The Journal of Education ,1907 Education Outlook ,1892 Investigating Education in Germany David Phillips,2015-06-26 This book brings together the work of established researcher Professor David Phillips in one authoritative volume Including key chapters on education in Germany from the last three decades topics range from historical studies of universities and schools to detailed research on the role of the British in reconstructing education in Germany after 1945 and education in post unification Germany Together the body of work draws from a multitude of primary sources and constitutes a comprehensive analysis of educational provision in Germany over a long historical period In addition to 16 chapters spanning Phillips research from 1981 to 2012 the book includes a new introduction bringing his ideas together and demonstrating their continuing relevance to the field Investigating Education in Germany will be invaluable reading for academics researchers and postgraduate students in the fields of international and comparative education German studies history of education and sociology The Athenaeum ,1917 Comparative and International Education David Phillips,Michele Schweisfurth,2014-03-13 This revised and updated second edition of Comparative and International Education An Introduction to Theory Method and Practice provides a comprehensive and authoritative introduction to the key themes definitions and approaches in this important field It covers the history theory and methods of comparative and international education as well as the relationship with education and national development and outlines what we can learn from comparative studies Clear explanations are complemented with examples of real research in the field including work on policy borrowing learner centred pedagogy and university internationalization

The Global Politics of Educational Borrowing and Lending Gita Steiner-Khamsi, 2004-10-14 The globalization of educational policy has become a popular if not ubiquitous phenomenon among educational policymakers across the world It has led many observers to conclude that educational systems in different parts of the world are converging towards one international neo liberal model of school reform This practice of borrowing and lending school reforms requires a serious examination of the politics and the economics of transnational educational transfer In this volume Steiner Khamsi and her colleagues provide an in depth empirical and critical examination of the practice of global educational policy Contributors question the value of importing and exporting educational policies analyze who benefits from these arrangements and test the effectiveness of adapting one country's policies in other often quite culturally distinct countries The book investigates how global policies have been implemented locally and examines the extent to which they work in diverse locales teiner Khamsi and her colleagues also examine the role and practices of non governmental organizations NGOs multilateral organizations and the World Bank in fostering how educational policies are disseminated and adapted across national and cultural boundaries American Education ,1905

European Educational Research (Re)Constructed Mike Zapp, Marcelo Marques, Justin J.W.
