Passing Penguin Classics:

Passing Nella Larsen, 2025-02-14 Passing by Nella Larsen is a powerful novel that explores themes of race identity and societal expectations in 1920s America. The story centers around two childhood friends, Clare Kendry and Irene Redfield, who reconnect as adults. Clare is of mixed race and has a light complexion that allows her to pass as white. She has chosen to live in white society, distancing herself from her African American heritage. Irene, on the other hand, embraces her identity as a Black woman and is married to a successful African American man. As the two women meet again, their lives take different paths. Clare's life is filled with glamour and privilege, but it also comes with the complexities of hiding her true identity. Irene is initially intrigued by Clare's world but soon feels a mix of admiration and jealousy. The novel delves into the internal struggles both women face regarding their racial identities and the choices they make. Clare's desire to reconnect with her Black roots creates tension in her relationship with Irene. Irene becomes increasingly aware of the dangers and challenges Clare faces in her quest for acceptance in both worlds. The friendship between Clare and Irene highlights the emotional and psychological toll of passing for another race. It raises questions about loyalty, identity, and the societal pressures that dictate how individuals navigate their lives. The narrative is rich with vivid imagery and explores the vibrant cultural backdrop of the Harlem Renaissance. Larsen's writing captures the essence of the time, showcasing the complexities of race relations and the struggles of individuals seeking their place in society. The novel also addresses the intersections of gender and class, adding depth to the characters' experiences. Passing is a poignant exploration of the human experience and the choices people make in the face of societal expectations. It challenges readers to reflect on their own perceptions of race and identity. Nella Larsen's masterful storytelling invites readers into a world of intrigue and emotional depth. This novel remains relevant today, resonating with contemporary discussions about race and identity. Passing is a must-read for those interested in literature that confronts the complexities of race and the search for self in a divided society.

Passing Nella Larsen, 2024 Passing is a novel by American author Nella Larsen, first published in 1929. Set primarily in the Harlem neighborhood of New York City in the 1920s, the story centers on the reunion of two childhood friends, Clare Kendry and Irene Redfield, and their increasing fascination with each other's lives. The title refers to the practice of racial passing and is a key element of the novel. Clare Kendry's attempt to pass as white for her husband, John Jack Bellew, is a significant depiction in the novel and a catalyst for the tragic events.

The Cambridge Companion to the Black Body in American Literature Cherene Sherrard-Johnson, 2024-05-16 This volume tracks and uncovers the Black body as a persistent presence and absence in American literature. It provides an invaluable guide for teachers and students interested in literary representations of Blackness and embodiment. It centers Black thinking about Black embodiment from current, diverse, and intersectional perspectives.

Passing (African American Heritage Classics) Nella Larsen, 2010-08 Nellallitea Nella Larsen, first called Nellie Walker (1891–1964), was an American novelist of the Harlem Renaissance who wrote two novels and a few short stories.

Though her literary output was scant what she wrote earned her recognition by her contemporaries and by present day critics In Passing Clare and Irene were two childhood friends They lost touch when Clare s father died and she moved in with two white aunts By hiding that Clare was part black they allowed her to pass as a white woman and marry a white racist Irene lives in Harlem commits herself to racial uplift and marries a black doctor The novel centers on the meeting of the two childhood friends later in life and the unfolding of events as each woman is fascinated and seduced by the other s daring lifestyle The novel traces a tragic path as Irene becomes paranoid that her husband is having an affair with Clare Human Contradictions in Octavia E. Butler's Work Martin Japtok, Jerry Rafiki Jenkins, 2020-07-23 Human Contradictions in Octavia Butler s Work continues the critical discussions of Butler s work by offering a variety of theoretical perspectives and approaches to Butler s text This collection contains original essays that engage Butler s series Seed to Harvest Xenogenesis Parables her stand alone novels Kindred and Fledgling and her short stories The essays explore new facets of Butler s work and its relevance to philosophy sociology anthropology psychology cultural studies ethnic studies women s studies religious studies American studies and U S history The volume establishes new ways of reading this seminal figure in African American literature science fiction feminism and popular culture American Literature in Transition, 1920-1930 Ichiro Takayoshi, 2017-12-28 American Literature in Transition 1920 1930 examines the dynamic interactions between social and literary fields during the so called Jazz Age It situates the era s place in the incremental evolution of American literature throughout the twentieth century Essays from preeminent critics and historians analyze many overlapping aspects of American letters in the 1920s and re evaluate an astonishingly diverse group of authors Expansive in scope and daring in its mixture of eclectic methods this book extends the most exciting advances made in the last several decades in the fields of modernist studies ethnic literatures African American literature gender studies transnational studies and the history of the book It examines how the world of literature intersected with other arts such as cinema jazz and theater and explores the print culture in transition with a focus on new publishing houses trends in advertising readership and obscenity laws
