Past Questions And Answers For Nigerian Army:

Directory of Nigerian Book Development Vincent Chukwuemeka Ike,1998      Mohammed Chris Alli's The Federal Republic of Nigerian Army Dukor, Maduabuchi,2018-07-14 Mohammed Chris Alli is a retired Nigerian Army Major General who served as Chief of Army Staff from 1993 to 1994 under General Sanni Abacha's regime and was military governor of Plateau State Nigeria from August 1985 to 1986 during the military regime of General Ibrahim Babangida. Many years later he was appointed interim administrator of the state during a 2004 crisis in the state following ethno religious killings in Shendam Yelwa Local Government. In this anthology organized as a symposium on Mohammed Christopher Alli's work he is identified as one of those critical and rational thinkers/philosophers albeit a General in the Nigerian Army whose work finds a befitting logical space in the contemporary African philosophical tapestry. The book also captures the elements of military misrule in Nigeria and its undue influence on the body polity; it is a critical survey of past military misadventures and a satire against false federalism; it is a firm warning against future corruption and impunity in the military.      The Trial of Biafra's Leaders Nelson Ottah,1980      The Federal Republic of Nigerian Army Mohammed Chris Alli,2001 A former general in the Nigerian army, defence attaché to Zimbabwe and member of the Abacha caucus, chronicles the role played by the army in Nigerian history from the first military coup in 1966 to Obasanjo's accession to power in 1998. He describes his own experiences in the army at home and abroad, including a section on his personal interactions with Abacha and the caucus. The author writes in anger at the domination of political hegemony and the subsequent intervention of the military into politics; the perceived dichotomy between people and state and its implications for issues of development and human rights. He states: "This book is not an indictment of the military of which I am a part. It is my perception of the conduct of my generation and the multifarious forces at work amongst and about them. It is not a verdict on society; rather, it is an articulation of the ecstasy, the fears, the constrictions of a nation in turmoil, a nation pulling itself apart."      Military Integration after Civil Wars Florence Gaub,2010-09-13 This book examines the role of multiethnic armies in post conflict reconstruction and demonstrates how they can promote peacebuilding efforts. The author challenges the assumption that multiethnic composition leads to weakness of the military and shows how a multiethnic army is frequently the impetus for peacemaking in multiethnic societies. Three case studies: Nigeria, Lebanon and Bosnia Herzegovina determine that rather than external factors, it is the internal structures that make or break the military institution in a socially challenging environment. The book finds that where the political will is present, the multiethnic military can become a symbol of reconciliation and coexistence. Furthermore, it shows that the military as a professional identity can supersede ethnic considerations and thus facilitates cooperation within the armed forces despite a hostile post conflict setting. In this, the book challenges widespread theories about ethnic identities and puts professional identities on an equal footing with them. The book will be of great interest to students of military studies, ethnic conflict, conflict studies and peacebuilding and IR in general. Florence Gaub is a

Researcher and Lecturer at the NATO Defence College in Rome She holds a PhD in International Politics from Humboldt University Berlin Military Past, Civilian Present Paul Taylor, Emma Murray, Katherine Albertson, 2019-11-17 This edited book presents a synthesis of current international knowledge on the topic of military veteran transition to civilian life Understanding the transition of individuals from military institutions to civilian life is of great importance The essential elements of transition support are currently widely debated in order to assess current practice and potential shortcomings in the intention to improve health welfare and social outcomes for military veterans This text links original research and critical commentary to public policy and practice in the area of veteran transition Doing so through a collection of international perspectives assists in locating continuity and difference between strategies agendas and the realities of what is actually known of the veteran s experience Chapters in this text examine the subject of transition along lines of enquiry that focus in on themes such as social justice veteran identity and developments in transition agendas Globally many veterans face complex social issues such as low income barriers to employment and problems of health and welfare Chapters take stock of the real world issues affecting veterans and at the same time casts a critical eye over the limitations in accessing or denial of access to opportunities support and remedy The veteran identity is an important dimension of enquiry here This book looks at the relational factors between the veteran and the public the creation of a master status and the challenges faced by veterans in transitioning into a cultural context that is saturated with imagery of what a veteran is Chapters also seek to pose recommendations as to how the policy and practice agenda that surrounds veterans and the bridging of the gap between military and civilian life may be developed Here authors point towards the value of knowledge research and analysis that is underpinned by participatory strategies with veterans themselves For example seeking to establish lines of enquiry that value the voice of veterans as an ongoing and iterative dimension of developing understanding Nigeria Alfred Obiora Uzokwe, 2015-08-22 This book is a collection of Alfred Obiora Uzokwe's critical commentaries about Nigerias triumphs woes and the way forward It brings his writings into one volume as a reference material for those conducting research about the country It will also serve as another tool for Nigerias policy makers in their everyday quest for better decision making The subjects of the commentaries are diverse including politics aviation infrastructure health welfare and economy Nigerians are resilient and ingenious but the country continues to flounder plagued by poor transportation infrastructure corruption unemployment inflation insecurity and poor standard of education The problems of Africas most populous nation can be traced to rudderless and selfish leaders that have continued to preside over a unidimensional economy With plummeting oil prices the nation is now in dire straits more than ever before Yearning for a change in leadership and direction Nigerians recently voted in a new government at the center headed by a former military leader who has vowed to institute change The world is keenly watching to see if the soldier turned politician would make a positive difference In spite of the difficulties of the present time Nigeria still has the potential of becoming a great economy Social media where citizens freely vent their thoughts about their leadership is slowly gaining the attention of leaders Furthermore the sometimes scathing commentaries about Nigerias leaders by the media and commentators like Alfred Obiora Uzokwe can no longer be ignored by the leaders because of their reach in this internet age Nigerian leaders are slowly being forced to listen to and pay heed to the yearnings and aspirations of the masses and that is a step in the right direction      Translations on Sub-Saharan Africa United States. Joint Publications Research Service,      The Oxford Handbook of Nigerian Politics A. Carl LeVan,Patrick Ukata,2018 This volume is an authoritative and agenda setting examination of Nigerian politics      Statement to World Press and Diplomats, Monday 13 March 1967 Chukwuemeka Odumegwu Ojukwu,1967      Counter-Insurgency in Nigeria Akali Omeni,2017-09-08 This book offers a detailed examination of the counter insurgency operations undertaken by the Nigerian military against Boko Haram between 2011 and 2017 Based on extensive fieldwork conducted with military units in Nigeria Counter Insurgency in Nigeria has two main aims First it seeks to provide an understanding of the Nigerian military s internal role a role that today as a result of internal threats pivots towards counter insurgency The book illustrates how organizational culture historical experience institutions and doctrine are critical to understanding the Nigerian military and its attitudes and actions against the threat of civil disobedience today and in the past The second aim of the book is to examine the Nigerian military campaign against Boko Haram insurgents specifically plans and operations between June 2011 and April 2017 Within this second theme emphasis is placed on the idea of battlefield innovation and the reorganization within the Nigerian military since 2013 as the Nigerian Army and Air Force recalibrated themselves for COIN warfare A certain mystique has surrounded the technicalities of COIN operations by the Army against Boko Haram and this book aims to disperse that veil of secrecy Furthermore the work s analysis of the air force s role in counter insurgency is unprecedented within the literature on military warfare in Nigeria This book will be of great interest to students of military studies counter insurgency counter terrorism African politics and security studies in general      Link with the Past Alfred Rewane,2000

Nigeria: an Experiment in Nation Building Charles Akujieze,2019-05-08 In this painstakingly updated and comprehensive political masterpiece Charles Nnaemeka Akujieze explores Nigeria s pre colonial colonial and postcolonial history and current affairs in Nigeria politics and administration and presents a nuanced explanation of events and circumstances that have dangerously flung this complex dynamic and troubled giant to the brink It is one of the most updated and comprehensive analysis of Africa s most important and populous nation that has been undermined in recent decades by ethnic and religious conflict political instability rampant corruption and an ailing economy      May 15, 16, June 5, 6, 7, and 8, 1967 United States. Congress. House. Committee on Foreign Affairs,1967 Considers H R 7099 a bill to amend further the Foreign assistance act of 1961 as amended and for other purposes to authorize foreign and military aid expenditures for FY68 Focuses on foreign and military assistance programs to Vietnam and other parts of southeast Asia Classified material has been deleted      Veils, Turbans, and Islamic Reform in Northern Nigeria Elisha P. Renne,2018-10-16 Veils Turbans and

Islamic Reform in Northern Nigeria tells the story of Islamic reform from the perspective of dress textile production trade and pilgrimage over the past 200 years As Islamic reformers have sought to address societal problems such as poverty inequality ignorance unemployment extravagance and corruption they have used textiles as a means to express their religious positions on these concerns Home first to the early indigo trade and later to a thriving textile industry northern Nigeria has been a center for Islamic practice as well as a place where everything from women s hijabs to turbans buttons zippers short pants and military uniforms offers a statement on Islam Elisha P Renne argues that awareness of material distinctions religious ideology and the political and economic contexts from which successive Islamic reform groups have emerged is important for understanding how people in northern Nigeria continue to seek a proper Islamic way of being in the world and how they imagine their futures spiritually economically politically and environmentally African Frontiers John Idriss Lahai,Tanya Lyons,2016-03-23 Through a multidisciplinary approach African Frontiers counters the superficial Eurocentric and gender insensitive dominant discursive representation of Africa within the discourse of war and conflict management and security and peace nation building The chapters historicize and theorize the realities in postcolonial African states and the ramifications on the continents future Situating the study within the context of the prevailing cultural and geo political realities in the postcolonial African states the chapters illustrate the complex ways in which events and processes are experienced at the local level and how these local realities in turn impact and shape the patterns of political and military engagement in Africa and beyond Organized along three major themes Insurgency governance and peacebuilding expert researchers from around the world contribute chapters on Rebel and insurgent formations such as the RUF the LRA and Boko Haram state governance and corruption terrorism and counter terrorism security and peacebuilding focussing on the tensions and challenges facing post conflict societies such as Sierra Leone Rwanda and the newest nation state on the continent South Sudan This highly significant and topical study problematizes the impact of wars on African nations as well as the epistemological framing of the local realities and fallouts of armed conflict on post colonial states Conspiracy of Silence Azukaoma Uche Osakwe,2022-08-28 Nigeria is rife with divisions particularly between Christians and Muslims Both groups aim at converting others and so they are in direct conflict with each other The bitterness came to a head when Goodluck Jonathan a Christian succeeded his former boss Musa Yar Adua upon his death Jonathan would serve as president from 2010 to 2015 The northern oligarchy was infuriated because they depended on rent and patronage which they knew would not be feasible under a Christian president They employed every tactic they could to destabilize his regime and in 2015 he lost the presidential election to the former military head of state Gen Muhammadu Buhari In this book the author lays out how politics in Nigeria is no longer based on what politicians can do for the community Rather the focus is on what they can do for themselves There is no more catching fish for God The religion they follow is based on stealing from the people Buhari was presented as an agent of change but his seven years in charge have only brought pain bloodshed anarchy and more turmoil Something must be done to move Nigeria away from the precipice Praise for Conspiracy of Silence Azukaoma Uche Osakwe's book is another in a growing list of sad narratives on the failure of leadership in Nigeria under the leadership of Muhammadu Buhari's Administration The book painstakingly combs through the many ills of Nigerian society under Buhari and the collapse of such institutions as the police army electoral body government officials and the various ethnic nationalities He accuses these people of conspiring to stay mum amid terrible governance The author charges the citizenry as well as the Igbo Nation which he says are marginalized to buckle up and take what remains of their destiny in their own hands Jude Atupulazi editor in chief Fides Newspaper Awka Nigeria Conspiracy of Silence this book must necessarily take a long title It would indeed be difficult to capture the Muhammadu Buhari era as president of Nigeria with an elegantly titled book The simple reason is that the Buhari tenure was devoid of neither elegance nor finesse Conspiracy of Silence encapsulates this rather dark epoch in fine detail warts and all It's a racy report of Africa's giant caught in the vice grips of mediocrity and mendacity in equal measures It's stranger than fiction Steven Osuji columnist and former member of the editorial board The Nation Nigeria

The Spirituality of the Igbo People of Nigeria as an Example of Religious Modernization in a Global World Henry CHUKWUDI OKEKE, 2020-02-18 If there is no religion in the world the world would more or less become a jungle The world will be inhuman Religion touches all aspects of human life Identifying God's will in our world today has become a major problem for many religions of the world In the past in Igbo Traditional Religion human sacrifice as well as the killing of twins were practised For the Igbo traditionalists then that was the will of the deities and equally not against God's will But following the encounter of Igbo Traditional Religion with Christianity these are no longer practised Misinterpretation of God's will by some religions of the world has given rise to religious violence religious extremism fanaticism and terrorism we are experiencing today in the world For these problems to be resolved it is pertinent that the study of various religions be taken seriously This study should be aiming at better understanding co existence respect for one another and frequent inter religious dialogues among the various religions of the world When this is achieved the believers of various religions would realize that many are worshipping one God and their desire is to communicate with Him although they may approach Him differently
