by the many large and small stories that make up the discourse embedded in our multi sensory social experience It is this postmodern understanding of identity and reality that has prompted the authors to fashion a new way of thinking about doing research in faith communities today particularly through a Doctor of Ministry program It is our belief that in order for faith communities to define themselves and to know what to do in ministry they must first understand the multiple stories which intersect with a given ministry situation in their specific context     A Change of Heart Thomas C.
