Passion for Place Book II Anna-Teresa Tymieniecka, 2013-06-29 Among the multiple subliminal passions that inspire our life in innumerable ways literature shows us one that seems to play a particularly penetrating role in human concerns This passion which Tymieniecka calls an esoteric passion finds its projection and crystallization in space it is the esoteric passion for space This subliminal passion investigated through literature allows the philosopher to reach beneath the fallacious separations of nature humanness and the cultural world restoring the wholeness of experience that has become lost in the artificial one sidedness of contemporary approaches confined to language as they are The elemental passion for place is investigated here in the literary fruits of creative imagination Unravelling from the very depths of the primogenital onto poietic unfolding of life the passion for place is revealed as projecting into the flux of life it is a station of life significance This collection presents papers from two conferences of the International Society of Phenomenology and Literature held in Cambridge MA in 1993 4 Love of Fame the Universal Passion ... The tenth edition Edward Young,1750 Dark Nights, Bright Lights Susanne Bach,Folkert Degenring,2015-10-16 Light and darkness shape our perception of the world This is true in a literal sense but also metaphorically in theology philosophy literature and the arts the light of day signifies life safety knowledge and all that is good while the darkness of the night suggests death danger ignorance and evil A closer inspection however reveals that things are not quite so clear cut and that light and darkness cannot be understood as simple binary opposites On a biological level for example daylight and darkness are inseparable factors in the calibration of our circadian rhythms and a lack of periodical darkness appears to be as contrary to health as a lack of exposure to sunlight On a cultural level too night and darkness are far from being universally condemnable in fiction drama and poetry the darkness of the night allows not only nightmares but also dreams it allows criminals to ply their trade and allows lovers to meet it allows the pursuit of pleasure as well as deep thought it allows metamorphoses transformations and transgressions unthinkable in the light of day But night is not merely darkness The night gains significance as an alternative space as an other of the day only when it is at least partially illuminated The volume examines the interconnection of night darkness and nocturnal illumination across a broad range of literary texts The individual essays examine historically specific light conditions in literature tracing the symbolic and metaphoric content of darkness and illumination and the attitudes towards them The Universal Passion. Pilosity, Prejudice, and Passion in The Tale of Old Bearded Achbor by Yaakov ben El'azar of Toledo Tovi Bibring,2025-05-22 In Pilosity Prejudice and Passion in The Tale of Old Bearded Achbor by Yaakov ben El azar of Toledo Tovi Bibring argues that behind the restless parody and the sour tone of the tale lies a fierce discourse of hate toward the Other incarnated as a black woman as well as an insistent alarm regarding the threat of assimilation Following an enticing fully annotated translation of an overwhelming medieval Hebrew composition featuring a pathetic sermon a hedonist feast a love liaison violent shaming and murder Bibring artfully explores their significances through a variety of chapters From highlighting how hair symbolism and color symbolism construe dangerous prejudices to suggesting that Achbor is a symbolic incarnation of a new Balaam the author through close readings of selected excerpts draws connections to the broader medieval and classical context By highlighting possible literary correspondences she sheds insightful light on this mysterious tale This book stands as a testament to the richness of medieval European Hebrew culture making it a must read for scholars and enthusiasts alike
