Ideal homes, 1918-39 Deborah Sugg Ryan, 2018-03-06 This book explores the aspirations and tastes of new suburban communities in interwar England for domestic architecture and design that was both modern and nostalgic in a period where homeownership became the norm It investigates the ways in which new suburban class and gender identities were forged through the architecture design and decoration of the home in choices such as ebony elephants placed on mantelpieces and modern Easiwork dressers in kitchens Ultimately it argues that a specifically suburban modernism emerged which looked backwards to the past whilst looking forward to the future Thus the inter war ideal home was both a retreat from the outside world and a site of change and experimentation The book also examines how the interwar home is lived in today It will appeal to academics and students in design social and cultural history as well as a wider readership curious about interwar homes

Spaces of the Cinematic Home Eleanor Andrews, Stella Hockenhull, Fran Pheasant-Kelly, 2015-07-24 This book examines the ways in which the house appears in films and the modes by which it moves beyond being merely a backdrop for action Specifically it explores the ways that domestic spaces carry inherent connotations that filmmakers exploit to enhance meanings and pleasures within film Rather than simply examining the representation of the house as national symbol auteur trait or in terms of genre contributors study various rooms in the domestic sphere from an assortment of time periods and from a diversity of national cinemas from interior spaces in ancient Rome to the Chinese kitchen from the animated house to the metaphor of the armchair in film noir
