Vaughn,2011-11-14 Sometimes we don't understand all the things that we must go through in life and we sometimes never find the answers that we hope to find Even though we may have scars that will never heal we must move forward and give forgiveness in an unforgiving world This book has given me the courage to face the future the knowledge to find love where I thought none existed and the strength to get past the shadows that haunt me Dress and Identity in America Daniel Delis Hill,2023-12-14 Dress and Identity in America is an examination of the conservatism and materialism that swept across the country in the late 1940s through the 1950s a backlash to the wartime tumult privations and social upheavals of the Second World War The study looks at how American men sought to recapture a masculine identity from a generation earlier that of the stoic patriarch breadwinner and dutiful father and in the process became the men in the gray flannel suits who were complacently conventional and conformist Parallel to that is a look at how American women who had donned pants and went to work in wartime munitions factories or joined services like the WACS and WAVES were now expected to stay at home as housewives and mothers dressed in cinched ultrafeminine New Look fashions As the Space Age dawned their baby boom children rejected the conventions of their elders and experimented with their own ideas of identity and dress in an emerging era of counterculture revolutions

Immigration and Social Capital in the Age of Social Media Joong-Hwan Oh,2016-02-18 In this new age of social media the role of online ethnic networks is as important as offline ethnic networks families friends etc in helping immigrants adjust to their new country This is something that has received very little attention in the academic field of international immigration which Oh hopes to rectify through this book He focuses on the five American social institutions immigration welfare education housing and finance to explore this topic through the lens of married Korean American women In their online MissyUSA community the largest Korean American women s online community in North America they share a wide range of information about the rules of each of these social institutions as they work together to navigate American society Oh explores how the MissyUSA community creates two distinctive forms of social capital social resources and social support For some of its members inquirers or information seekers the MissyUSA community functions as an important source of their information social resources about the rules of the American social institutions Likewise it also functions as a network of social supporters respondents or information providers for those information seekers Here what makes this book a significant one is the fact that these social supporters are distinctively identified as instrumental guiders information describers expositors confirmers and advisors and emotional supporters companions encouragers and critics By researching the lives of Korean American women who are members of the MissyUSA community Oh s book works to understand how a sub set of the Korean American community shares information about American institutions and uses the internet to do so

The Boy & the Old Man Omar Eby, 2009-02-09 So who is Omar Eby A retired English professor tenderhearted and cynical who looks with affection and severity upon the young man he once was in Somalia Ebys first chapter Learning My Name quickly and playfully sets the tone for this fascinating memoir The Boy and the Old Man Identifying with one Omar after another Eby skips from a Taliban terrorist and a four star general to a translator of Somali tales and an Old Testament duke then recalls an English student in Mogadiscio and an Epicurean Persian poet meets a Chilean Anabaptist and finally names the close friend of Prophet Muhammad Omar ibn al Khattab You think this an exercise in narcissism Of course not the author finds too many ties linking a nave Mennonite missionary boy to Muslim society and the incredible beauty of the natural world shows too well the tensions between documented facts and dramatic memory On the horn of Africa Somali pirates seize tankers On the mainland clans fire rockets into each others quarters of Mogadishu once the capital of the Somali Republic But Omar Eby remembers another Somalia when he taught there 50 years ago Through the grid of accumulated years Eby studies that missionary boy The reader hears two voices the 23 year old boy and the 73 year old man Often the old man loves the boy often the boy embarrasses him The Somalis Eby remembers as beautiful and exasperating then in 1959 as now in 2009 The chapters are like a series of transparencies laid down one on top of the other The boys views overlaid by the mans two visits to Somalia in his thirties and then memory laid over everything With more details everything should be clearer Yet Eby writes in the Introduction we are pleasantly surprised to find that the historically reconstructed self is still blurred as muddy as the Shebelli River which flows through Somalia from the Ethiopian highlands
