Passport Customer Service Centre:

The future of the Newport Passport Office Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Welsh Affairs Committee, 2011-02-03 Newport Passport Application Processing Centre serves the whole of Wales and south west England It deals with 47 000 passport applications annually around 10 per cent of the national total The Identity and Passport Service IPS proposes to close the Passport Office at Newport with a loss of over 300 jobs although the Home Office announced that a customer service centre would be retained in Newport to service South Wales and the South West of England The piecemeal nature of the announcements suggests the lack of a co ordinated strategy regarding the future of the IPS in Wales The Office s significance to Wales and its value to the Welsh economy have not been truly appreciated by the Government No economic impact assessment of the proposal has been completed and the criteria on which the decision was based should be re examined The Newport Passport Office is the second largest employer in the city centre Its closure would have a significant economic impact on the city and would be a further blow for the Welsh economy The Committee is not convinced that long term savings will be made by reducing the size of the Office The IPS should on the contrary provide a detailed appraisal of the costs and benefits of consolidation and expansion as opposed to a reduction of services Without the retention of the office in Newport the Government s duty to provide a Welsh language service to users may not be properly discharged Health and Safety, Environment and Quality Audits Stephen Asbury, 2013-10-15 This book provides a step by step guide to technical and operational integrity audits which has become invaluable for senior management and auditors alike This book Shows practitioners and students how to carry out internal audits to the key international health and safety environment and quality standards Contains over 20 new case studies 20 additional A Factors and superb new illustrations Includes checklists forms and practical tips to make learning easier With the addition of colour Health and Safety Environment and Quality Audits delivers a powerful and proven approach to auditing business critical risk areas It covers each of the aspects that need to be taken into account for a successful risk based audit to international or company standards and is an important resource for auditors and lead auditors managers HSEQ professionals and others with a critical interest in governance assurance and organizational improvement The companion website at www.routledge.com/cw/asbury contains relevant articles example risk management frameworks and a video by the author explaining the key aspects of the book Managing Transformation J. Satyanarayana, 2012-02-11 Change is the law of life This precept holds for individuals and organizations alike Radical change called transformation is not so frequent Organizational transformation entails fundamental changes that encompass the entire gamut of the organization A successful transformation exercise begins with formulating a set of Objectives at the beginning and ends up with realizing the desired Outcomes This book delves deep into the intricacies of the life cycle of organizational transformation and explains how it can be managed effectively adopting a systematic and step by step methodology In this well researched text the author J Satyanarayana with his vast and varied experience in the field of management and governance gives a brilliant exposition of managing transformation The book postulates the O2O Objectives to Outcomes framework as a seven step methodology The methodology in a sense is a meta framework for transformation It harmonizes and synthesizes altogether 40 sub frameworks which include some well known concepts such as Porter s Value Chain Framework Kaplan and Norton s Balanced Scorecard and Hammer s BPR framework The author illustrates the O2O framework through a Case Study on Passport Seva Project designed by him and being implemented all over India to transform the quality of passport related services provided to the citizens This text with its blend of theory and practice would prove extremely valuable to the students of management and commerce It should also be a valuable reference book to the administrators and management consultants

KEY FEATURES By expounding the O2O methodology the book addresses the managerial requirements of conceptualizing designing and implementing major transformation projects Focuses on the four principal dimensions of transformation namely Process People Technology and Business Model while explaining the major concepts Interspersed with plenty of examples to illustrate the concepts Includes chapter end review questions to drill the students in self study

HC 238 - Her majesty's passport Office: Delays in Processing Applications Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Home Affairs Committee, 2014-09-16 Applications for a passport are administered by Her Majesty s Passport Office HMPO This executive agency of the Home Office was established on 13 May 2013 At the beginning of June 2014 it became apparent that there were delays in the processing of passport applications Members of the public who did not contact their MPs were held in queues and their cases were not dealt with a sufficient level of service All applicants should be able to receive details of their applications regardless of whether they follow it up themselves or if it is followed up by their constituency MP A number of people have ended up out of pocket due to HMPO s inability to meet its service standard HMPO should compensate all those people who made an initial application on or after 1 May 2014 who subsequently upgraded to the fast track service and who met the criteria for the free upgrade which was later offered and the Home Office should remove the agency status from Her Majesty s Passport Office HMPO bringing it back under the direct control of Ministers

HC 516 - Support for British Nationals Abroad: The Consular Service Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons. Foreign Affairs Committee, 2014 The Consular Service of the Foreign and Commonwealth Office provides vital support to British nationals overseas It offers a wide range of services handling anything from lost passports to kidnap a major crisis evacuation or verification of a document It is the FCO's public face and it is central to its reputation at home Britons undertaking more adventurous travel large expatriate populations and a series of major overseas crises have tested the Consular Service in recent years In 2013 the FCO dealt with over 450 000 consular customers over 17 000 of whom received personal assistance The Consular Service has responded with a strategic shift to provide a more standardised and professional service However the strategic shift to a smaller and better consular service has also meant that some services have been limited or withdrawn and standardisation has meant the end of so called over service as well as under service The FCO has consequently put great emphasis on encouraging self help managing expectations and explaining the limits of its assistance to British nationals Despite these efforts to explain to the public what the FCO can and cannot do there was still a significant gap between the high expectations of the public and the reality of what the FCO could provide

Parliamentary Debates (Hansard). Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons,1920 Contains the 4th session of the 28th Parliament through the session of the Parliament Crafting Customer Experience Strategy Sapna Popli,Bikramjit Rishi,2021-05-04 Crafting Customer Experience Strategy Lessons from Asia looks at how Customer Experience Management can be vital in providing a competitive advantage for businesses This is essential reading for marketing scholars and practitioners looking for insights into improving their customers experiences Regulation in Infrastructure Services Syamal Kumar Sarkar,Kaushik Deb,2001 The Papers In This Publication Review Different Aspects Of Regulatory Development Not Only In India But In Other Parts Of The World Too Bringing Out Their Complexity And Making Recommendation For Future Progress A Ready Reference For Various Issues In Regulation In India S Infrastructure Sectors The Study Is Covered In 4 Parts Independent Regulation Tarrif Setting Other Regulatory Issues Paths Forward Cover Slightly Shop Soiled Spine Frayed At Top End Otherwise Condition Is Good Departmental annual report 2010-11 Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Foreign Affairs Committee,2012-04-13 Despite the impressive performance of the Foreign and Commonwealth Office in representing the UK s interests across the globe with what is in Governmental terms a particularly small budget the Foreign Affairs Committee believes that the FCO is under funded This situation has been exacerbated by the Spending Review 2010 and the lack of detail provided by the FCO and the BBC World Service as to exactly how the spending reductions target will be met is disappointing There are concerns about the steps taken by the FCO to adjust to its reduced budget reductions in the deployment of UK based staff overseas and the optimistic planned programme of property sales will have a detrimental impact on the ability of the UK to protect its interests overseas The establishment of the European External Action Service EEAS will place a further strain on the FCO s resources The Committee welcomes the appointment of Lord Williams of Baglan to the post of International Trustee with responsibility for the BBC World Service but reiterates its belief that a formal concordat governing the World Service s budget and output should be drawn up setting out the World Service s independence from budgetary pressures elsewhere in the BBC The budget cuts faced by the British Council will lead to the Council becoming a substantially different organisation by the end of the Spending Review period The greater emphasis that the British Council will place on commercial activity risks a diminution of the UK's influence and soft power

Beyond Kolkata Ishita Dey, Ranabir Samaddar, Suhit K. Sen, 2016-03-23 This book examines the politics behind and the socio economic and ecological repercussions of the making of a new township variously called New Town Megacity or Jyoti Basu Nagar in Rajarhat near Kolkata Conceived by the West Bengal state government in the mid 1990s in pandering to the vision of urban planners of creating a hi tech town beyond an unruly crowded Kolkata and feeding the hunger of realtors and developers the city is built on the foundations of coercive even violent land acquisition state largesse and corruption and at the cost of erasing a self sufficient subsistence economy and despoiling a fragile environment Yet after its completion and departure of construction labour the new town appears as a necropolis a ghost city that belies its promised image of an urban utopia even as the displaced locals lead a precarious mobile existence as transit labour engaged in odd and informal jobs Written on the basis of intensive fieldwork government documents court records and chronicles of public protests this book broadly analyses the politics and economics of urbanisation in the age of post colonial capitalism particularly the paradoxical combination of neoliberal and primitive modes of capital accumulation upon which the global emergence of new towns is based Departing from the dominant styles of urban studies that focus on cultural or spatial analysis of cities the authors show the links between changes in space technology political economy class composition and forms of urban politics which give concrete shape to a city It will immensely interest those in sociology political science economics development studies urban studies policy and governance studies and history The Beautiful and the Damned Siddhartha Deb,2011-08-09 The one book you need on the New India In 2004 after six years in New York Siddhartha Deb returned to India to look for a job He discovered that sweeping change had overtaken the country With the globalization of its economy the relaxation of trade rules the growth in technology and the shrinking down of the state a new India was being born Deb realised he had found his job to explore this vast complex and bewildering nation and try to make sense of what was underway The Beautiful and the Damned is the triumphant outcome It is a virtuosic work that combines personal narrative travelogue reportage penetrating analysis and the stories of many individuals across a vast range of geographical and social circumstances Deb talks to the great and good and those in charge but listens as intently to the worker at the call centre remaking herself from her provincial upbringings and the migrant sweatshop worker trying to make his way in the city By listening to the stories of the people he meets and works alongside the author did his time on the phones at a call centre Deb shows how people caught in the midstream of these changes actually experience them Visiting the metropolises small towns and villages as well as both gated suburban communities and camps for displaced peasants Deb offers a panoramic view of the changes in landscape and urban geography creating an epic narrative of the people who make up the world's second most populous and soon to be the most populous nation This is a work of social reportage that presents the reader with the fullest and most enlightening picture of a diverse emerging superpower
