Pastoral The New Critical Idiom:

Pastoral Terry Gifford, 1999-08-05 Pastoral is a succinct and up to date introductory text to the history major writers and critical issues of this genre Terry Gifford clarifies the different uses of pastoral covering the history of the genre from its classical origins to Elizabethan drama through eighteenth century pastoral poetry to contemporary American nature writing the pastoral impulse of retreat and return beginning with constructions of Arcadia and using a combination of close reading of quoted texts cultural studies and eco criticism post pastoral texts with a look at writers who Gifford argues have discovered ways of reconnecting us with our natural environment The Lively Arts of the London Stage, 1675-1725

Kathryn Lowerre, 2016-12-05 Unlike collections of essays which focus on a single century or whose authors are drawn from a single discipline this collection reflects the myriad performance options available to London audiences offering readers a composite portrait of the music drama and dance productions that characterized this rich period Just as the performing arts were deeply interrelated the essays presented here by scholars from a range of fields engage in dialogue with others in the volume The opening section examines a famous series of 1701 performances based on the competition between composers to set William Congreve's masque The Judgment of Paris to music The essays in the central section the mainpiece showcase performers and productions on the London stage from a variety of perspectives including English tastes in art and music the use of dance the depiction of madness and masculinity in both spoken and musical performances and genres and modes in the context of contemporary criticism and theatrical practice A brief afterpiece looks at comic pieces in relation to satire parody and homage By bringing together work by scholars of music dance and drama this cross disciplinary collection illuminates the interconnecting strands that shaped a vibrant theatrical world Transit i Norden och Europa Petra

Broomans, Ester Jiresch, Janke Klok Klok, Anja Schüppert, 2019-04-30 The IASS International Association for Scandinavian Studies is the international organization for the research of Nordic literature culture and linguistics Since 1956 the IASS conference has been organized every other year In 2016 the 31th IASS conference took place in Groningen Netherlands This 2016 conference revolved around the 21st century as an era characterized by dynamics with different implications These ongoing global transitions are reflected in the humanities the dichotomy between centre and periphery has invaded the literary discourse In many small language areas more translated literature is being published than literature written in the national language This implies that cultural mediators play a major role in the production of literature Their efforts are made visible in a transnational approach to the history of literature Materiality and the Modern Cosmopolitan Novel Alan

McCluskey, 2015-10-07 In this work Alan McCluskey explores materialism in its many conceptual forms in the contemporary cosmopolitan novel The author applies a cosmopolitan materialist lens to the novels of Caryl Phillips J M Coetzee and Philip Roth three contemporary authors who hail from different parts of the world and produce highly dissimilar novels Forces of Nature Bernadette H. Hyner, 2009-03-26 In Forces of Nature the authors investigate the relationships between the natural world and gender and sexuality The authors explore the frameworks within which femininity and nature have been constructed as well as the impact nature has had on our understandings of masculinity homosexuality and heterosexuality For some writers nature has restorative powers for others nature embodies violence and destruction Yet one common thread runs across all of the chapters in this collection nature and animals can not be separated from the human experience Forces of Nature brings to light the intimate connection humans have with the natural world and provides students and scholars with innovative readings of both canonical and noncanonical texts Ecocriticism in the Modernist Imagination Kelly Sultzbach, 2016-08-24 Sultzbach's book provides a wide ranging investigation into how the works of Forster Woolf and Auden helped shape our environmental imagination The Golden Age Chris Murray, Elizabeth Rogers, Jeffrey W. Smith, 2016-09-23 This volume investigates the diverse applications and conceptions of the term The Golden Age The phrase resonates with the theme of nostalgia which is popularly understood as a wistful longing for the past but which also denotes homesickness and the unrecoverability of the past While the term Golden Age typically conjures up idealised visions of the past and gestures forward to utopian visions of future golden ages the idea of nostalgia is suggestive of a discontented present The Golden Age and nostalgia are therefore related ideas but are also partly in conflict with one another as many nostalgic sentiments are not idealised and may indeed be dark ironic or self aware There are of course many other ways to characterise the relationship between the Golden Age and nostalgia and the tension between the two can produce myths and romantic idylls or in religious terms images of prelapsarian innocence or dogmas relating to values associated with childhood The Golden Age is also often used to refer to specific respected periods of cultural production in all kinds of literature and visual media Indeed nearly every period genre nation and cultural form has some kind of mythic often illusory Golden Age against which it is defined and in which nostalgia often plays a part This collection interrogates the notion of the Golden Age and its connection to feelings of nostalgia from a range of interdisciplinary perspectives with a strong focus on the relationship between word and image It will interest scholars working on the subject of the Golden Age nostalgia particularly in English literature film studies comics studies history and the fine arts The Romantics and the May Day Tradition Essaka Joshua, 2016-02-24 This important contribution to both Romantic and cultural studies situates literature by Wordsworth Southey Hunt Clare and Blake within the context of folklore and popular customs associated with May Day Romantic responses to May Day bring into focus a range of issues now regarded as central to the writing of the period the natural world city life the pastoral regional and national identities popular culture cultural degeneration and cultural difference Essaka Joshua explores new connections between these issues in the context of a set of heterogeneous cultural practices that are rooted in the traditions and activities of diverse social groups She shows how Romantic writers have positioned themselves in relation to what has become known as the public sphere and the way in which they articulate an understanding of the common sphere as a site of plebeian self expression Joshua's nuanced account acknowledges the full complexity of class formations and inter class relationships and permits noncanonical and canonical texts such as the Prelude Songs of Innocence and Experience and The Village Minstrel to be reinterpreted in a cultural context that has not been previously explored by literary critics

Global Appetites Allison Carruth, 2013-05-31 Global Appetites explores how industrial agriculture and countercultural food movements underpin US conceptions of global power in the century since the First World War Allison Carruth's study centers on what she terms the literature of food a body of work that comprises literary realism late modernism and magical realism along with culinary writing food memoir and advertising Through analysis of American texts ranging from Willa Cather's novel O Pioneers 1913 to Novella Carpenter's non-fiction work Farm City 2009 Carruth argues that stories about how the United States cultivates distributes and consumes food imbue it with the power to transform social and ecological systems around the world Lively and accessible this interdisciplinary study will appeal to scholars of American literature and culture as well as those working in the fields of food studies food policy agriculture history social justice and the environmental humanities

The Routledge Companion to Absurdist Literature Michael Y. Bennett, 2024-05-29 The Routledge Companion to Absurdist Literature is the first authoritative and definitive edited collection on absurdist literature As a field defining volume the editor and the contributors are world leaders in this ever exciting genre that includes some of the most important and influential writers of the twentieth century including Samuel Beckett Harold Pinter Edward Albee Eugene Ionesco Jean Genet and Albert Camus Ever puzzling and always refusing to be pinned down this book does not attempt to define absurdist literature but attempts to examine its major and minor players As such the field is indirectly defined by examining its constituent writers Not only investigating the so called Theatre of the Absurd this volume wades deeply into absurdist fiction and absurdist poetry expanding much of our previous sense of what constitutes absurdist literature Furthermore long overdue approximately one third of the book is devoted to marginalized writers black Latin x female LGBTQ and non Western voices Victorian Writers and the Environment Laurence W. Mazzeno, Ronald D. Morrison, 2016-12-08 Applying ecocritical theory to the work of Victorian writers this collection explores what a diversity of ecocritical approaches can offer students and scholars of Victorian literature at the same time that it critiques the general effectiveness of ecocritical theory Interdisciplinary in their approach the essays take up questions related to the nonhuman botany landscape evolutionary science and religion The contributors cast a wide net in terms of genre analyzing novels poetry periodical works botanical literature life writing and essays Focusing on a wide range of canonical and noncanonical writers including Charles Dickens the Brontes John Ruskin Christina Rossetti Jane Webb Loudon Anna Sewell and Richard Jefferies Victorian Writers and the Environment demonstrates the ways in which nineteenth century authors engaged not only with humans interaction with the environment during the Victorian period but also how some authors anticipated more recent attitudes toward the environment The Green Ghost Chad Weidner, 2016-03-16 Until now much scholarly work on Burroughs has focused on the sensational aspects of his life and on his innovative writing The Green Ghost by Chad Weidner uncovers the ecological context of literary texts by William Burroughs By rereading canonical and ignored texts while pushing the boundaries of ecocritical theory and practice Weidner provides a fresh perspective on Burroughs and suggests new theoretical and methodological approaches to understanding the work of other Beat writers Using an ecocritical lens Weidner explores the toxicity in Naked Lunch while at the same time teasing out latent ecological questions embedded in Burroughs later works The author's analysis of unknown and miniature cut ups texts that have been disassembled and rearranged to create new passages provides a novel understanding of these cryptic forms Weidner also examines in detail books by Burroughs that have been virtually ignored by critics exposing the deep ecology of the Beat writer's vision In calling attention to Burroughs's narrative strategies that link him to an environmental political position The Green Ghost demonstrates that the work of the Beat writer is a ripe source for ecocritical dialogue Persuading the Cretans Aldred A. Genade, 2011-03-23 The Letter to Titus is often branded as incoherent its salutation inchoate Such premature conclusions are directly related to the authenticity debate that has marred analyses of the so called Pastoral Epistles From the corridors of academia echoes the cry to study the letters individually and independently of the authorship issue This book does exactly that It lays bare intricate and novel persuasive strategies strategies that belie the charge of incoherency In fact there is not one but three ways to describe the structure of this masterfully composed letter In Persuading the Cretans Aldred Genade does this utilizing a technique known as text generated persuasion analysis Careful thought has gone into the composition of the letter to communicate timeless truths relevant for generations of Christians This is first century outcomes based communication at its best and communicators preachers and scholars stand to benefit from the lessons in communication the author of Titus can teach us Publisher description Ecocriticism Greg Garrard, 2023-03-29 Ecocriticism explores the ways in which we imagine and portray the relationship between humans and the environment across many areas of cultural production including Romantic poetry wildlife documentaries climate models the Hollywood blockbuster The Day After Tomorrow and novels by Margaret Atwood Kim Scott Barbara Kingsolver and Octavia Butler Greg Garrard's animated and accessible volume responds to the diversity of the field today and explores its key concepts including pollution pastoral wilderness apocalypse animals Indigeneity the Earth Thoroughly revised to reflect the breadth and diversity of twenty first century environmental writing and criticism this edition addresses climate change and justice throughout and features a new chapter on Indigeneity It also presents a glossary of terms and suggestions for further reading Concise clear and authoritative Ecocriticism offers the ideal introduction to this crucial subject for students of literary and cultural studies

Fictions of Home Martin Mühlheim, 2018-04-23 This study aims to counter right wing discourses of belonging It discusses key theoretical concepts for the study of home focusing in particular on Marxist feminist postcolonial and psychoanalytic contributions The book also maintains that postmodern celebrations of nomadism and exile tend to be incapable of providing an alternative to conservative xenophobic appropriations of home In detailed readings of one film and six novels a view is developed according to which home as a spatio temporal imaginary is rooted in our species being and as such constitutes the inevitable starting point for any progressive politics

Shakespeare's Foreign Queens Sandra Logan, 2018-05-11 This book examines Shakespeare's depiction of foreign queens as he uses them to reveal and embody tensions within early modern English politics Linking early modern and contemporary political theory and concerns through the concepts of fragmented identity hospitality citizenship and banishment Sandra Logan takes up a set of questions not widely addressed by scholars of early modern queenship How does Shakespeare's representation of these queens challenge the opposition between friend and enemy that ostensibly defines the context of the political And how do these queens expose the abusive potential of the sovereign Focusing on Katherine of Aragon in Henry VIII Hermione in The Winter's Tale Tamora in Titus Andronicus and Margaret in the first history tetralogy Logan considers them as means for exploring conditions of vulnerability alienation and exclusion common to subjects of every social position exposing the sovereign himself as the true enemy of the state
