and engaging work of two very different Canadian cartoonists who bring their own alternatives into play Jeff Lemire in his bridging of Canadian US and mainstream alternative sensibilities and Nina Bunjevack in her own blending of realism and fantasy as well as of insider outsider status Despite an upsurge in research on Canadian comics there is still remarkably little written about most major and all minor Canadian cartoonists This volume provides insight into some of the lesser known Canadian alternatives still awaiting full exploration

Using Graphic Novels in the English Language Arts Classroom

William Boerman-Cornell, Jung Kim, 2020-10-01 Shortlisted for the UK Literacy Association's Academic Book Award 2021

There is an increasing trend in teachers using graphic novels to get their students excited about reading and writing using both original stories and adaptations of classic works by authors such as Homer Shakespeare and the Brontes However there is surprisingly little research available about which pedagogies and classroom practices are proven to be effective This book draws on cutting edge research surveys and classroom observations to provide a set of effective methods for teaching with graphic novels in the secondary English language arts classroom These methods can be applied to a broad base of uses ranging from understanding literary criticism critical reading multimodal composition to learning literary devices like foreshadowing and irony The book begins by looking at what English language arts teachers hope to achieve in the classroom It then considers the affordances and constraints of using graphic novels to achieve these specific goals using some of the most successful graphic novels as examples including Maus Persepolis The Nameless City and American Born Chinese and series such as Manga Shakespeare Finally it helps the teacher navigate through the planning process to figure out how to best use graphic novels in their own classroom Drawing on their extensive teaching experience the authors offer examples from real classrooms suggested lesson plans and a list of teachable graphic novels organized by purpose of teaching

Comics as a Nexus of Cultures Mark Berninger,, Jochen Ecker, Gideon Haberkorn, 2010-03-10 These essays from various critical disciplines examine how comic books and graphic narratives move between various media while merging youth and adult cultures and popular and high art The articles feature international perspectives on comics and graphic novels published in the U S Canada Great Britain Portugal Germany Turkey India and Japan Topics range from film adaptation to journalism in comics to the current manga boom
