Gelber, 1999-06-25 Whether it s needlepoint or woodworking collecting stamps or dolls everyone has a hobby or is told they need one But why do we fill our leisure time with the activities we do And what do our hobbies say about our culture Steven Gelber here traces the history and significance of hobbies from the mid nineteenth century through the 1950s Although hobbies are often touted as a break from work Gelber demonstrates that they reflect and reproduce the values and activities of the workplace by bringing utilitarian rationality into the home imitating the economic stratification of the marketplace and reinforcing traditional gender roles Drawing on a wide array of social and cultural theory Hobbies fills a critical gap in American cultural history and provides a compelling new perspective on the meaning of leisure Stamping American Memory Sheila Brennan, 2018-06-15 Winner of the University of Michigan Press Humanities Arts Science and Technology Alliance and Collaboratory HASTAC Prize for Notable Work in the Digital Humanities In the age of digital communications it can be difficult to imagine a time when the meaning and imagery of stamps was politically volatile While millions of Americans collected stamps from the 1880s to the 1940s Stamping American Memory is the first scholarly examination of stamp collecting culture and how stamps enabled citizens to engage their federal government in conversations about national life in early twentieth century America By examining the civic conversations that emerged around stamp subjects and imagery this work brings to light the role that these underexamined historical artifacts have played in carrying political messages Sheila A Brennan crafts a fresh synthesis that explores how the US postal service shaped Americans concepts of national belonging citizenship and race through its commemorative stamp program Designed to be saved as souvenirs commemoratives circulated widely and stood as miniature memorials to carefully selected snapshots from the American past that also served the political needs of small interest groups Stamping American Memory brings together the histories of the US postal service and the federal government collecting and philately through the lenses of material culture and memory to make a significant contribution to our understanding of this period in American history Crap Wendy A.

Egypt's Housing Crisis Yahia Shawkat,2020-09-08 A provocative analysis of the roots of Egypt s housing crisis and the ways in which it can be tackled Along with football and religion housing is a fundamental cornerstone of Egyptian life it can make or break marriage proposals invigorate or slow down the economy and popularize or embarrass a ruler Housing is political Almost every Egyptian ruler over the last eighty years has directly associated himself with at least one large scale housing project It is also big business with Egypt currently the world leader in per capita housing production building at almost double China s rate and creating a housing surplus that counts in the millions of units Despite this Egypt has been in the grip of a housing crisis for almost eight decades From the 1940s onward officials deployed a number of policies to create adequate housing for the country s growing population By the 1970s housing production had outstripped population growth but today half of Egypt's one hundred million people cannot afford a decent home Egypt's Housing Crisis takes presidential speeches parliamentary reports legislation and official statistics as the basis with which to investigate the tools that officials have used to solve the housing crisis rent control social housing and amnesties for informal self building as well as the inescapable reality of these policies outcomes Yahia Shawkat argues that wars mass displacement and rural urban migration played a part in creating the problem early on but that neoliberal deregulation crony capitalism and corruption and neglectful planning have made things steadily worse ever since In the final analysis he asks is affordable housing for all really that hard to achieve

The Nail in the Skull and Other Victorian Urban Legends Simon Young, 2022-06-27 Winner of the 2023 Brian McConnell Book Award from the International Society for Contemporary Legend Research In the last fifty years folklorists have amassed an extraordinary corpus of contemporary legends including the Choking Doberman the Eaten Ticket and the Vanishing Hitchhiker But what about the urban legends of the past These legends and tales have rarely been collected and when they occasionally appear they do so as ancestors or precursors of the urban legends of today rather than as stories in their own right In The Nail in the Skull and Other Victorian Urban Legends Simon Young fills this gap for British folklore and for the wider English speaking world of the 1800s Young introduces seventy Victorian urban legends ranging from Beetle Eyes to the Shoplifter's Dilemma and from Hands in the Muff to the Suicide Club While a handful of these stories are already known the vast majority have never been identified and they have certainly never received scholarly treatment Young begins the volume with a lengthy introduction assessing nineteenth century media emphasizing the importance of the written word to the perpetuation and preservation of these myths He draws on numerous nineteenth century books periodicals and ephemera including digitized newspaper archives particularly the British Newspaper Archive an exciting new hunting ground for folklorists The Nail in the Skull and Other Victorian Urban Legends will appeal to an academic audience as well as to anyone who is interested in urban legends
