Parrish, 2017-11-30 For this edited volume the editors solicited chapters that investigate the place of nonhuman animals in the purview of rhetorical theory what it would mean to communicate beyond the human community how rhetoric reveals our brute roots In other words this book investigates themes that enlighten us about likely or possible implications of the animal turn within rhetorical studies The present book is unique in its focus on the call for nonanthropocentrism in rhetorical studies Although there have been many hints in recent years that rhetoric is beginning to consider the implications of the animal turn as yet no other anthology makes this its explicit starting point and sustained objective Thus the various contributions to this book promise to further the ongoing debate about what rhetoric might be after it sheds its long standing humanistic bias Index-catalogue of Medical and Veterinary Zoology United States.
