

Graduation Speech Sample

Good evening friends, family, faculty, and fellow graduates.

As we stand here today, on the brink of a new chapter in our lives, it's hard to believe that it's already been four years (or however long it took us to get here). It seems like just yesterday that we were nervously stepping onto campus, not quite sure what to expect.

But as we look back on the past four years, it's clear that we've come a long way. We've made new friends, learned new things, and grown as individuals. We've faced challenges and overcome them, and we've learned to persevere through difficult times.

And as we move on from this chapter in our lives, I encourage each and every one of us to remember the lessons we've learned and the experiences we've had. These experiences will shape who we are and how we approach the world, and they will serve us well in the years ahead.

But before we get too ahead of ourselves, let's take a moment to reflect on how we got here. I'm sure we all have different stories and experiences, but there are a few things that I think we can all relate to.

For starters, I'm sure we can all agree that college is a lot of hard work. Between classes, assignments, and exams, it's easy to get bogged down and feel overwhelmed. But despite the challenges, we've persevered and made it to this point.

I'm also sure that we've all had moments where we felt lost or unsure of ourselves. It's natural to feel that way, especially when you're trying to navigate a new environment and figure out your place in the world. But despite these moments of uncertainty, we've found our footing and discovered our passions.

And most importantly, I'm sure we can all agree that college has been an amazing experience. We've had the opportunity to learn from some of the best professors in the field, engage in meaningful discussions and debates, and be part of a community of like-minded individuals.

So, as we move on from this chapter in our lives, let's remember to be grateful for the experiences we've had and the people who have supported us along the way. To our parents, who have always believed in us and encouraged us to pursue our dreams, thank you for your unwavering love and guidance. To our teachers and mentors, who have imparted their knowledge and wisdom upon us, thank you for your invaluable guidance and encouragement. And to our friends, who have stood by us through thick and thin, thank you for your friendship and support.

Parents Speech On Daughters Graduation:

The Father's Daughter V. M. Dexter, 2010-05-25 Emily thought her life was perfect with the exception that she always wondered who her father was and what her mother was really like She was adopted as a newborn by her mother's best friend when her real mother died from a blood disease shortly after she was born Her life seemed charmed and she had nearly everything she could want or need Her curiosity through the years of her youth was soothed by pictures of her biological mother but never her father Lisa her adoptive mother didn't know who her father was just that her mother Molly had gone to a sperm bank because she didn't want the complications of having a husband and all the headaches of a relationship with a man Molly wanted a baby to complete her perfect life as Hollywood's prettiest newscaster Her life was charmed and she was perfectly happy without the confinement of a relationship She had had many relationships without satisfying results and decided she didn't need a man in her life if only she just had a baby So she went to the sperm bank and chose the most intelligent and most handsome donor from the vast selection in the catalog She knew her baby would be perfect in every way Before Emily came into Lisa's life she had raised her son and had a pretty quiet but satisfying life Was she ready to take on another child if something happened to Molly She and Molly had been inseparable since they were children She would die for Molly but to raise a child on her own again was no small favor When Emily's father Jake came looking for the child or children his sperm had produced he wasn't sure what to expect As it turned out only one child had been produced and he knew he had to track her down As a widower with no children of his own he longed to know his biological daughter hoping she felt the same way and that she would want to know him Once he found her should he seek custody or just leave her be He wondered what she looked like and how old she was if she would accept him as part of her life or reject him for not being there before even though it wasn't his choice to not be there for her ChatGPT & Co. Divorce (Death) and the Birthing (New Life) of a Single Parent Geniene Dotson Gary,2009-11 The marriage was supposed to last forever but it didn t This book is for women and men who suddenly find themselves thrust into the role of single parenting Just as there are labor pains in childbirth there are labor pains in the process of single parenting Left to raise four children ages eleven ten five and four years old Geniene shares some of her labor pains and her labor of love as a single mother She openly discusses her early thoughts of suicide She shares what she calls the second worst pain a parent could experience her oldest son sentenced to life in prison and the peace of God that helps her to bear the never ending pain She also shares the story of the car accident that almost took her only daughter s life She boldly states why she believes that a mother cannot be both a mother and a father to a son Geniene s faith in God love for her children support from family and friends and determination gave her the strength to push through the pain focus on her children and embrace her new life as a single mother The divorce papers took her by surprise but God is never caught off guard

Stories My Father Told Me A father's precious heritage, "The true meaning of living a good life" The author tells a series of stories she had heard from her childhood that were told to her by her father, along with her own life-long observations of her father's life. These stories are of the father's childhood struggles with poverty, war, and refuge and settlement during the Japanese colonial period and the Korean War. And of a life thereafter of living in South Korea as a farmer. Also, stories of fatherhood full of sincerity, perseverance, caring, tolerance, and love, the roots of life values. Stories that seek to show a sincere life is one that adheres to these values. Not preaching, but self realization The father in the book does not instruct with words, but with actions. He shows respect to even very young children and guides them to self realizations. The author communicates her father's "attitude towards life" in an honest and easy to approach manner. Readers glean moments of self-awareness as they read through the book. The story of the father's life, To all parents and children, spreading the fragrance of these stories to the world People are born, children to someone, and themselves become parents to someone. No person is born as an adult, no person is born a parent. As a child, our reality comes from our parents, and we look upon them as if they are "the world." As we become adults, we come to realize that our parents were once young and awkward themselves. We then begin to pay attention to how they themselves became adults, became parents. Although the beginnings may not be perfect, the constant struggle of a father to live a good life is of great value for their children. Therefore, this book contains valuable stories for all parents of this world, and to all the children who are looking to them. A collection of 31 pieces of beautiful and lyrical artwork Thirty-one pieces of beautiful and lyrical artwork augments and enhances the stories contained in the book and greatly adds to the reading experience and value of the book.,2018-12-25 A father s precious heritage The true meaning of living a good life The author tells a series of stories she had heard from her childhood that were told to her by her father along with her own life long observations of her father s life These stories are of the father s childhood struggles with poverty war and refuge and settlement during the Japanese colonial period and the Korean War And of a life thereafter of living in South Korea as a farmer Also stories of fatherhood full of sincerity perseverance caring tolerance and love the roots of life values Stories that seek to show a sincere life is one that adheres to these values Not preaching but self realization The father in the book does not instruct with words but with actions He shows respect to even very young children and guides them to self realizations The author communicates her father s attitude towards life in an honest and easy to approach manner Readers glean moments of self awareness as they read through the book The story of the father s life To all parents and children spreading the fragrance of these stories to the world People are born children to someone and themselves become parents to someone No person is born as an adult no person is born a parent As a child our reality comes from our parents and we look upon them as if they are the world As we become adults we come to realize that our parents were once young and awkward themselves We then begin to pay attention to how they themselves became adults became parents Although the beginnings may not be perfect the constant struggle of a father to live a good life is of great value for their children Therefore this book contains valuable stories for all parents of this world and to all the children who are looking to them A collection of 31 pieces of beautiful and lyrical artwork Thirty one pieces of beautiful and lyrical artwork augments and enhances the stories contained in the book and greatly adds to the reading experience and value of the book Minnesota Parent-teacher ,1927 Report of the Superintendent of Public Instruction, for the State of Indiana, Being the ... New Developments in Parent-child Relations Dorothy M. Devore, 2006. In the life of a person there are probably no events outside influences or genetic characteristics even approaching the significance of the broad category of acts and actions called parent child relations. These include decisions and actions and lack thereof from the first day of life and sometimes throughout the life span. They include learning by example, schooling, disciplining, coping skills, behavioural practices, eating habits, communication skills, conflict management and a plethora of other actions. This book presents new research in this dynamic field.
