Participatory Critical Rhetoric Theoretical Methodological:

Participatory Critical Rhetoric Michael Middleton, Aaron Hess, Danielle Endres, Samantha Senda-Cook, 2015-12-16

Increasingly rhetorical scholars are using fieldwork and other ethnographic performance and qualitative methods to access document and analyze forms of everyday in situ rhetoric rather than using already documented texts In this book the authors argue that participatory critical rhetoric as an approach to in situ rhetoric is a theoretically methodologically and praxiologically robust approach to critical rhetorical studies This book addresses how participatory critical rhetoric furthers understanding of the significant role that rhetoric plays in everyday life through expanding the archive of rhetorical practices and texts emplacing rhetorical critics in direct conversation with rhetors and audiences at the moment of rhetorical invention and highlighting marginalized voices that might otherwise go unnoticed This book organizes the theoretical and methodological foundations of participatory critical rhetoric through four vectors that enhance conventional rhetorical approaches 1 the political commitments of the critic 2 rhetorical reflexivity and the role of the embodied critic 3 emplaced rhetoric and the interplay between the field text and context and 4 multiperspectival judgment that is informed by direct participation with rhetors and audiences In addition to laying the groundwork and advocating for the approach Participatory Critical Rhetoric also offers significant contributions to rhetorical theory and criticism more broadly by revisiting the field s understanding of core topics such as role of the critic text context audience rhetorical effect and the purpose of criticism Further it enhances theoretical conversations about material rhetoric place space affect intersectional rhetoric embodiment and rhetorical reflexivity

Blake Scott,2017-07-06 This volume charts new methodological territories for rhetorical studies and the emerging field of the rhetoric of health and medicine In offering an expanded behind the scenes view of rhetorical methodologies it advances the larger goal of differentiating the rhetoric of health and medicine as a distinct but pragmatically diverse area of study while providing rhetoricians and allied scholars new ways to approach and explain their research Collectively the volume s 16 chapters Develop through extended examples of research creative theories and methodologies for studying and engaging medicine s high stakes practices Provide thick descriptions of and heuristics for methodological invention and adaptation that meet the needs of needs of new and established researchers Discuss approaches to researching health and medical rhetorics across a range of contexts e g historical transnational socio cultural institutional and about a range of ethical issues e g agency social justice responsiveness Rhetorical Criticism Jim A. Kuypers,2016-04-21 Now in its second edition Rhetorical Criticism Perspectives in Action presents a thorough accessible and well grounded introduction to contemporary rhetorical criticism Systematic chapters contributed by noted experts introduce the fundamental aspects of a perspective provide students with an example to model when writing their own criticism and address the potentials and pitfalls of the approach In addition to covering traditional modes of rhetorical criticism the volume presents less commonly discussed rhetorical perspectives exposing students to a wide cross section of techniques Essays in Critical, Contemporary, and Philosophical Rhetoric Raymie E. McKerrow,2024-10-24 This text is a representative sample of my research focus in contemporary rhetoric since the mid 1970s It highlights work that explores themes expressed in the text s title While not an exhaustive account of the themes the text provides easy access to theoretical issues in rhetorical studies These include topics such as the role of culture citizenship how space and time interact to affect the words we use and the impulse to use language in critiquing the expressions of others The collection is designed to be used by faculty teaching upper level undergraduate to doctoral level courses in rhetoric at colleges and universities in the USA It also will be a resource at universities across the globe The goal is to stimulate thought and provoke critical responses to the ideas and arguments contained in the essays Thus this is a text to be used to assist scholars and students as they engage in their own work

Rhetorics Haunting the National Mall

Roger C. Aden,2018-09-15 Rhetorics Haunting the National Mall Displaced and Ephemeral Public Memories vividly illustrates that a nation s history is more complicated than the simple binary of remembered forgotten Some parts of history while not formally recognized within a commemorative landscape haunt those landscapes by virtue of their ephemeral or displaced presence Rather than being discretely contained within a formal sites these memories remain public by lingering along the edges and within the crevices of commemorative landscapes By integrating theories of haunting place and public memory this collection demonstrates that the National Mall often referred to as the nation s front yard might better be understood as the nation s attic because it hides those issues we do not want to address but cannot dismiss The neatly ordered installations and landscaping of the National Mall if one looks and listens closely reveal the messiness of US history From the ephemeral memories of protests on the Mall to the displaced but persistent presences of inequality each chapter in this book examines the ways in which contemporary public life in the US is haunted by incomplete efforts to close the book on the past

Tracing Rhetoric and Material Life

Bridie McGreavy,Justine Wells,George F. McHendry, Jr.,Samantha Senda-Cook,2017-11-27 This volume brings together three areas of scholarship and practice rhetoric material life and ecology The chapters build a multi layered understanding of material life by gathering scholars from varied theoretical and critical traditions around the common theme of ecology Emphasizing relationality connectedness and context the ecological orientation we build informs both rhetorical theory and environmentalist interventions Contributors offer practical theoretical inquiries into several areas rhetoric s cosmologies the trophe bioregional rhetoric s nuclear colonialism and more collectively forging new avenues of communication among scholars in environmental communication communication studies and rhetoric and composition This book aims at inspiring and advancing ecological thinking demonstrating its value for rhetoric and communication as well as for environmental thought and action

Performative Citizenship Laura Iannelli,Pierluigi Musarò,2017-05-30T00:00:00+02:00 The essays collected in this book adopt different disciplinary approaches to point out the forms of citizens participation developed in the field of contemporary public art and urban design From Sardinia to Queensland New York to Bologna Hasselt and Genk to L Aquila Rio de Janeiro to Utrecht these essays analyze a variety of projects that deal with political confl icts of the societal life in the urban spaces such as environmental risks and immigrant populations propose diverse forms of citizens participation in the representations of marginalized interests values problems and needs offer to citizens and policy makers new ways of thinking about territory renewal and aim to reorient the decisions taken in the fi eld of institutionalized politics either denouncing territory governance or supporting its improvement

Environmental Communication Anabela Carvalho,Tarla Rai Peterson,2024-12-30 This handbook reviews extant research and offers critical summaries of key topics and issues in the field enriched by authoritative analyses of specific cases and examples It displays pluralism across a number of axes epistemological theoretical geographical cultural and thematic The first part offers historical routes through the international development of the field and explores the epistemological grounds of multiple strands of environmental communication studies In aiming to map the field broadly as well as stimulating new thinking the second part is organized along three core perspectives arenas voice and place It comprises chapters on various public spaces that are critical to the symbolic constitution of the environment and sheds light on a range of aspects and social agents that have received insufficient attention including research about and carried out in non Western countries Crucially at a time of profound environmental crisis the final part of this book discusses possibilities and constraints to social change and the potential contributions of environmental communication research to ways of understanding and responding to the challenge

Local Theories of Argument Dale Hample,2021-03-25 Argumentation is often understood as a coherent set of Western theories birthed in Athens and developing throughout the Roman period the Middle Ages the Enlightenment and Renaissance and into the present century Ideas have been nuanced developed and revised but still the outline of argumentation theory has been recognizable for centuries or so it has seemed to Western scholars The 2019 Alta Conference on Argumentation co sponsored by the National Communication Association and the American Forensic Association aimed to question the generality of these intellectual traditions This resulting collection of essays deals with the possibility of having local theories of argument local to a particular time a particular kind of issue a particular place or a particular culture Many of the papers argue for reconsidering basic ideas about arguing to represent the uniqueness of some moment or location of discourse Other scholars are more comfortable with the Western traditions and find them congenial to the analysis of arguments that originate in discernibly distinct circumstances The papers represent different methodologies cover the experiences of different nations at different times examine varying sorts of argumentative events speeches court decisions food choices and sound explore particular personal identities and the issues highlighted by them and have different overall orientations to doing argumentation scholarship Considered together the essays do not generate one simple conclusion but they stimulate reflection about the particularity or generality of the experience of arguing and therefore the scope of our theories

Theorizing Digital Rhetoric Aaron Hess,Amber Davisson,2017-07-20 Theorizing Digital Rhetoric takes up the intersection of rhetorical theory and digital technology to explore the ways in which rhetoric is challenged by new technologies and how rhetorical theory can illuminate discursive expression in digital contexts The volume combines complex rhetorical theory with personal anecdotes about the use of technologies to create a larger philosophical and rhetorical account of how theorists approach the examinations of new and future digital technologies This collection of essays emphasizes the ways that digital technology intrudes upon rhetorical theory and how readers can be everyday rhetorical critics within an era of ever increasing use of digital technology Each chapter effectively blends theorizing between rhetoric and digital technology informing readers of the potentiality between the two ideas The theoretical perspectives informed by digital media studies rhetorical theory and personal professional use provide a robust accounting of digital rhetoric that is timely personable and useful

Inviting Understanding Sonja K. Foss,Cindy L. Griffin,2020-08-20 Inviting Understanding A Portrait of Invitational Rhetoric is an authoritative reference work designed to provide a comprehensive overview of the theory of invitational rhetoric developed twenty five years ago by Sonja K Foss and Cindy L Griffin This theory challenges the conventional conception of rhetoric as persuasion and defines rhetoric as an invitation to understanding as a means to create a relationship rooted in equality immanent value and self determination Rather than celebrating argumentation division and winning invitational rhetoric encourages rhetors to listen across differences to engage in dialogue and to try to understand positions different from their own Organized into the three categories of foundations extensions and applications Inviting Understanding is a compilation of published articles and new essays that explore and expand the theory The book provides readers with access to a wide range of resources about this revolutionary theory in areas such as community organizing social justice activism social media film graffiti institutional and team decision making communication and composition pedagogy and interview protocols

Rhetorical Audience Studies and Reception of Rhetoric Jens E. Kjeldsen,2017-11-10 This book examines the reception of rhetoric and the rhetoric of reception By considering salient

rhetoical traits of rhetorical utterances and texts seen in context and relating this to different kinds of reception and or audience use and negotiation the authors explore the connections between rhetoric and reception In our time new media and new forms of communication make it harder to distinguish between speaker and audience The active involvement of users and audiences is more important than ever before This project is based on the premise that rhetorical research should reconsider the understanding conceptualization and examination of the rhetorical audience From mostly understanding audiences as theoretical constructions that are examined textually and speculatively the contributors give more attention to empirical explorations of actual audiences and users The book will provide readers with new knowledge on the workings of rhetoric as well as illustrative and guiding examples of new methods of rhetorical studies Doing Gender Justice Shui-yin Sharon Yam,Natalie Fixmer-Oraiz,2025-03-25 How reproductive justice birth workers and queer parents build kinships and care relations that resist oppressive structures Anti trans policies that restrict the boundaries of gender reproduction and family formation are a dangerous form of reproductive injustice with grave impacts on trans nonbinary and gender nonconforming people In Doing Gender Justice Shui yin Sharon Yam and Natalie Fixmer Oraiz explore the intricate intersections of gender race and reproductive politics to illuminate how language and care practices can be reshaped to promote transformations at the structural level and in small everyday ways Only by enacting justice oriented forms of reproductive care and relations Yam and Fixmer Oraiz contend could activists and health care workers challenge the dominant affective and ideological investments in binary gender and its complicity in white supremacy Set against a backdrop of relentless anti trans legislation and attacks on bodily autonomy this groundbreaking work shares the lived experiences and advocacy of queer and trans parents gender inclusive birth workers and reproductive justice activists Through rich storytelling and rigorous analysis of ethnographic data and cultural artifacts the authors highlight innovative tactics that trans and nonbinary people use to dismantle oppressive systems and create a more expansive definition of family and kinship Organized to examine how the dominant gender system influences discursive and cultural practices in multiple contexts this book amplifies rhetorical inventions and tactics deployed by reproductive justice advocates birth workers and queer people who have created trans inclusive spaces for reproduction and family making Doing Gender Justice offers a compelling vision for a world where all forms of family and kinship are possible and where reproductive justice can be advanced in a deeply intersectional and coalitional way Rhetorics Change / Rhetoric's Change Jenny Rice,Chelsea Graham,Eric Detweiler,2018-05-01 Rhetorics Change Rhetoric s Change features selected essays multimedia texts and audio pieces from the 2016 Rhetoric Society of America biennial conference which spotlighted the theme Rhetoric and Change The pieces are broadly focused around eight different lines of thought Aural Rhetorics Rhetoric and Science Embodiment Digital Rhetorics Languages and Publics Apologia Revolution Reflection and Intersectionality Interdisciplinarity and the Future of Feminist Rhetoric Simultaneously familiar yet new the value of this collection can be found in the range of its modes and voices Reframing Rhetorical History Kathleen J. Turner, Jason Edward Black, 2022-05-17 Collection of essays that reassesses history as rhetoric and rhetorical history as practice Text + Field Sara L. McKinnon, Robert Asen, Karma R. Chávez, Robert Glenn Howard, 2016-06-01 Rhetorical critics have long had a troubled relationship with method viewing it as at times opening up provocative avenues of inquiry and at other times as closing off paths toward meaningful engagement with texts Text Field shifts scholarly attention from this conflicted history looking instead to the growing number of scholars who are supplementing text based scholarship by venturing out into the field where rhetoric is produced enacted and consumed These field based practices involve observation ethnographic interviews and performance They are not intended to displace text based approaches rather they expand the idea of method by helping rhetorical scholars arrive at new and complementary answers to long standing disciplinary questions about text context audience judgment and ethics The first volume in rhetoric and communication to directly address the relevance processes and implications of using field methods to augment traditional scholarship Text Field provides a framework for adapting these new tools to traditional rhetorical inquiry Aside from the editors the contributors are Roberta Chevrette Kathleen M de On s Danielle Endres Joshua P Ewalt Alina Haliliuc Aaron Hess Jamie Landau Michael Middleton Tiara R Na puti Jessy J Ohl Phaedra C Pezzullo Damien Smith Pfister Samantha Senda Cook Lisa Silvestri and Valerie Thatcher Into the Gateway Catherine Chaput, Amy Pason, 2022-06-08 This book advances the trend toward field methods in rhetorical scholarship by collecting distinct chapters based on the same object of study the University of Nevada Reno s Masterplan that extends the University into the adjacent community Exploring the perennial problem of university community relations from the perspective of multiple publics this book provides thick description of a local issue that resonates with communities across the country The fieldwork for each chapter was conducted in groups during a single week long site visit that asked scholars to study the asymmetrical traction among different communities to organize publicize and advocate positions around a proposed redevelopment project Surveying the results of this professional experiment the Project on Power Place and Publics each chapter offers a theoretical intervention into the same material site illustrates diverse place based field methods and models the scholarly results of work that mixes slow deliberate and thoughtful analysis with the fast pace and spontaneous demands of participatory research This volume is unique for a number of reasons it is the only study to concretely illustrate the compatibility of field methods with a wide range of theoretical perspectives it attests to the possibility of deeply collaborative research as teams of researchers engaged multiple local partners to produce these chapters and it challenges the pervasive intellectual terrain that pits one theory against another by showing how diverse scholarly approaches can bolster one another With a new introduction afterword and post script material from authors the other chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Review of Communication
