A Pentecostal Political Theology for American Renewal Steven M. Studebaker,2016-10-26 This book argues that Christians have a stake in the sustainability and success of core cultural values of the West in general and America in particular Steven M Studebaker considers Western and American decline from a theological and specifically Pentecostal perspective The volume proposes and develops a Pentecostal political theology that can be used to address and reframe Christian political identity in the United States Studebaker asserts that American Christians are currently not properly engaged in preventing America s decline or halting the shifts in its core values The problem he suggests is that American Christianity not only gives little thought to the state of the nation beyond a handful of moral issues like abortion but its popular political theologies lead Christians to think of themselves more as aliens than as citizens This book posits that the proposed Pentecostal political theology would help American Christians view themselves as citizens and better recognize their stake in the renewal of their nation The foundation of this proposed political theology is a pneumatological narrative of renewal a biblical narrative of the Spirit that begins with creation proceeds through Incarnation and Pentecost and culminates in the new creation and everlasting kingdom of God This narrative provides the foundation for a political theology that speaks to the issues of Christian political identity and encourages Christian political participation     New Life for Archaeological Collections Rebecca Allen,Ben Ford,2019-05-01 New Life for Archaeological Collections explores solutions to what archaeologists are calling the curation crisis that is too much stuff with too little research analysis and public interpretation This volume demonstrates how archaeologists are taking both large and small steps toward not only solving the dilemma of storage but recognizing the value of these collections through inventorying and cataloging curation rehousing artifact conservation volunteer and student efforts and public exhibits Essays in this volume highlight new questions and innovative uses for existing archaeological collections Rebecca Allen and Ben Ford advance ways to make the evaluation and documentation of these collections more accessible to those inside and outside of the scholarly discipline of archaeology Contributors to New Life for Archaeological Collections introduce readers to their research while opening new perspectives for scientists and students alike to explore the world of archaeology These essays illuminate new connections between cultural studies and the general availability of archaeological research and information Drawing from the experience of university professors government agency professionals and cultural resource managers this volume represents a unique commentary on education research and the archaeological community

Isaac of Nineveh's Ascetical Eschatology Jason Scully, 2017 This volume discusses the development of Isaac of Nineveh's eschatology through an examination of his use of Syriac source material

John Macquarrie's Natural Theology Georgina Morley, 2017-11-30 Title first published in 2003 John Macquarrie has been a major contributor in the theological world for more than forty years but as yet very little secondary material on his work has appeared This book offers an insightful introduction to Macquarrie's theology arguing that at its heart is a systematic theology of gift Tracing the development of his thought from its early existentialism to the social and world affirming perspectives of later writings this book shows how these developments emerge in dialogue with contemporary thinkers Morley demonstrates how Macquarrie's theology mediates between two traditionally opposing theologies of gift and being centring on the doctrines of God and of human being and reaching its fullest expression in Christology with Christ as the focal point of two personal movements of self giving divine and human Macquarrie himself contributes a Foreword

Are You Ready for a New Life? , New Life for Old Houses George Stephen, 2013-03-21 Easy to understand introduction to good design and rehabilitation explains everything from selecting an architect and choosing appropriate materials to restoring interiors from ceiling to floor 300 illustrations

Journeys to New Life, Identity, and Community Peter Kwang-Hee Yun, 2021-09-06 In Journeys to New Life Identity and Community Dr Peter K Yun explores the complexities of identity for Muslim background believers MBBs in Bangladesh Encompassing scholarship surrounding contextualization and the insider movement as well as extensive personal interviews with Bangladeshi MBBs this book offers insight into the lived reality of following Christ within a Muslim context Yun identifies three primary approaches to negotiating social identity within MBB communities and examines the potential strengths and weaknesses of each as well as the implications for believers navigating the gospel's call to be within culture and simultaneously beyond it This book offers careful anthropological observation while speaking to missiological concerns and offering practical suggestions for local believers practitioners and future scholars It is a powerful resource for anyone passionate about God's work in Muslim contexts     New Perspectives on Healing, Restoration and Reconciliation in John's Gospel Jacobus Kok, 2016-10-05 In New Perspectives on Healing Restoration and Reconciliation in John Jacobus Kobus Kok investigates the depth and applicability of Jesus healing narratives in John's gospel Against the background of an ancient group oriented worldview it goes beyond the impasse of most Western approaches to interpreting the Biblical healing narratives to date He argues that the concept of healing was understood in antiquity as in some parts of Africa in a much broader way than we tend to understand it today He shows inter alia why the interaction between Jesus and the Samaritan woman could be interpreted as a healing narrative illustrating the ancient interrelationship between healing restoration and reconciliation     The Passionate Long Walk to the Awakening of a New Life Katherine Steele, 2018-03-08 To carve a path in the wilderness in the area of disability and to bring change requires a compassionate heart and a suit of armour to deflect the arrows When faced with a problem that others call totally impossible there is always some part of it within your ability to handle and often you will be surprised to find that dealing with one insignificant aspect in the complexity of the problem will turn the tide New forces and sources from out of the blue will rescue you Step out in faith one step at a time and you will see a miracle Katherine Steele is one of the most amazing women I have ever spoken to Katherines knowledge of Aspergers syndrome is like no other account I have ever read Katherine brings her reader with her throughout the heart wrenching hills and valleys of a mothers journey through her childs pain as well as a mothers despair I have never met a woman such as Katherine and consider myself a lucky person to have been able to read her words as she was creating them Katherine is an amazing woman who will inspire others when they feel I cant with Oh yes you can love I did So many children fall into the autism spectrum this mothers journey can help so many mothers through theirs Katherines words tell the reader Yes I understand I have been there and I am here with you now A Must Read Tina Colbert Balboa Press There are heroes in life and having known Katherine and Lourdes they are my heroes Their story is captivating informative and uplifting Professor Tony Attwood
