Preservation and Place Katherine Crawford-Lackey, Megan E. Springate, 2019-09-04 Significant historic and archaeological sites affiliated with two spirit lesbian gay bisexual transgender and queer history in the United States are examined in this unique volume The importance of the preservation process in documenting and interpreting the lives and experiences of queer Americans is emphasized The book features chapters on archaeology and interpretation as well as several case studies focusing on queer preservation projects The accessible text and associated activities create an interactive and collaborative process that encourages readers to apply the material in a hands on setting Down the Up Staircase Bruce D. Haynes, Syma Solovitch, 2017-04-11 Down the Up Staircase tells the story of one Harlem family across three generations connecting its journey to the historical and social forces that transformed Harlem over the past century Bruce D Haynes and Syma Solovitch capture the tides of change that pushed blacks forward through the twentieth century the Great Migration the Harlem Renaissance the early civil rights victories the Black Power and Black Arts movements as well as the many forces that ravaged black communities including Haynes s own As an authority on race and urban communities Haynes brings unique sociological insights to the American mobility saga and the tenuous nature of status and success among the black middle class In many ways Haynes s family defied the odds All four great grandparents on his father s side owned land in the South as early as 1880 His grandfather George Edmund Haynes was the founder of the National Urban League and a protégé of eminent black sociologist W E B Du Bois his grandmother Elizabeth Ross Haynes was a noted children s author of the Harlem Renaissance and a prominent social scientist Yet these early advances and gains provided little anchor to the succeeding generations This story is told against the backdrop of a crumbling three story brownstone in Sugar Hill that once hosted Harlem Renaissance elites and later became an embodiment of the family s rise and demise Down the Up Staircase is a stirring portrait of this family each generation walking a tightrope one misstep from free fall

Monuments of Diverse Heritage in Early America Barry L. Stiefel, 2025-10-01 Monuments of Diverse Heritage in Early America Placemaking and Preservation by Black Indigenous and Jewish Peoples explores a more inclusive history of preserving public historic sites At a time when some Americans have embraced white nationalism in response to unfolding demographic changes and others celebrate individual identities over all else an inclusive tolerant and unifying historical vision is sorely needed While past preservation efforts sometimes resulted in exclusionary forms of historical inspiration that need not be the case in the future Bringing greater attention to the diverse heritage of the United States will not only help dismantle the lingering remnants of exclusionary and elitist narratives but also celebrate a pluralistic and diverse past and present An inclusive empowering history can provide social cohesion while allowing room for individual groups to have authority over their pasts and representation in public side by side with one another The Synagogues of New York's

Lower East Side: Gerard R. Wolfe, 2013 The classic book on the Lower East Side's synagogues and their congregations past and present now back in print in a completely revised and expanded edition

Afro-Asian Connections in Latin America and the Caribbean Debbie Lee-DiStefano, Luisa Marcela Ossa, 2018-11-27 Afro Asian Connections in Latin America and the Caribbean explores the connections between people of Asian and African descent in Latin America and the Caribbean. Although their journeys started from different points of origin spanning two separate oceans their point of contact in this hemisphere brought them together under a hegemonic system that would treat these seemingly disparate continental ancestries as one. Historically an overwhelming majority of people of African and Asian descent were brought to the Americas as sources of labor to uphold the plantation agrarian economies leading to complex relationships and interactions. The contributions to this collection examine various aspects of these connections. The authors bring to the forefront perspectives regarding history, literature, art, and religion and engage how they are manifested in these Afro Asian relationships and interactions. They investigate what has received little academic engagement outside the acknowledgement that there are groups who are of African and Asian descent. In regard to their relationships with the dominant Europeanized center, references to both groups typically only view them as singular entities. What this interdisciplinary collection presents is a more cohesive approach that strives to place them at the center together and view their relationships in their historical contexts.
