Education and Social Sciences and related areas      The Second Language Acquisition of French Tense, Aspect, Mood and Modality Dalila Ayoun, 2013-07-04 Temporal aspectual systems have a great potential of informing our understanding of the developing competence of second language learners So far the vast majority of empirical studies investigating L2 acquisition have largely focused on past temporality neglecting the acquisition of the expression of the present and future temporalities with rare exceptions aside from ESL learners leaving unanswered the question of how the investigation of different types of temporality may inform our understanding of the acquisition of temporal aspectual and mood systems as a whole This monograph addresses this question by focusing on three main objectives a to contribute to the already impressive body of research in the L2 acquisition of tense aspect and mood modality from a generative perspective and in so doing to present a more complete picture of the processes of L2 acquisition in general b to bridge the gap between linguistic theory and L2 acquisition c to make empirical findings more accessible to language instructors by proposing concrete pedagogical applications      The Multilingual Lexicon Jasone Cenoz, Britta Hufeisen, U. Jessner, 2007-05-28 This book is unique because it explores the multilingual lexicon by providing insights from research studies conducted in psycholinguistics applied linguistics and neurolinguistics It goes beyond the use of two languages and thus concentrates on a new and developing area in linguistic research The different perspectives provide a link to the mainstream work on the lexicon and vocabulary acquisition and will stimulate further debate in these areas and in the study of multilingualism      Multilingualism Larissa Aronin, David Singleton, 2012 Offers an account of multilingualism a phenomenon affecting a vast number of communities thousands of languages and millions of language users This book focuses on the knowledge and use of multiple languages It deals with both bilingualism and polyglottism at the level of the individual speaker as well as at the societal level

Fossilization in Adult Second Language Acquisition ZhaoHong Han, 2004-03-16 This book is a systematic attempt to address the issue of fossilization in relation to a fundamental question in second language acquisition research which is why are learners adults in particular unable to develop the level of competence they have aspired to in spite of continuous and sustained exposure to the target language adequate motivation to learn and sufficient opportunity to practice      New Perspectives on CALL for Second Language Classrooms Sandra Fotos, Charles M. Browne, 2013-06-17 This practical handbook is designed to help language teachers teacher trainers and students learn more about their options for using computer assisted language learning CALL and develop an understanding of the theory and research supporting these options The chapters in New Perspectives on CALL for Second Language Classrooms synthesize previous CALL theory and research and describe practical applications to both second and foreign language classrooms including procedures for evaluating these applications The implementation of CALL at the institutional level is also addressed with attention to designing multimedia language laboratories and creating collaborative CALL based projects between educational institutions Although many chapters locate their descriptions of CALL activities and projects within the ESL EFL setting the principles and activities described are equally useful for other language settings The book does not require prior knowledge of CALL computers or software To assist readers a glossary of CALL terms and an appendix of CALL Web sites are provided The book also has its own accompanying Web site <http://www.era.com/callforL2classrooms> presenting chapter abstracts author contact information and regularly updated links to pedagogical research and teacher development sites By integrating theoretical issues research findings and practical guidelines on different aspects of CALL this book offers teachers multiple levels of resources for their own professional development for needs based creation of specific CALL activities for curriculum design and for implementation of institutional and inter institutional CALL projects
