Grant Underwood provides answers to this question that are clear, detailed, and thoughtful. Writing for a broad and interested Christian audience, he systematically brings Mormon thought into conversation with main currents of Christian theology. He focuses on major topics that have engaged Christian thinkers over the years: who God is, who Jesus Christ is, who we are, how we are saved, what the church is, and what the future holds for human history as well as for individual human lives. Most chapters follow a format in which relevant themes are introduced with an overview of significant Christian reflection on the topic, followed by an exploration of Latter-day Saint thought on the subject. Throughout the book, Underwood's goal is to analyze, not catechize. While the author is a practicing Latter-day Saint, that reality only enhances his appreciation for the theology produced by centuries of fellow Christians of faith who, in Anselm's words, have diligently and devoutly sought understanding Underwood seeks to facilitate mutual understanding among Christians who may worship differently who conceive of God and God's relations with humanity differently and who articulate their religious beliefs in terms and concepts that are unfamiliar to each other Readers of this book are invited to approach its sympathetic presentation of such Christian theologies including that of the Latter day Saints with an openness and curiosity that can lead to a more accurate nuanced understanding of the doctrines discussed Teacher's Manual to accompany Bible Translation: An Introductory Course in Translation Principles Katharine Barnwell, 2022-06-06 Whether you are an instructor preparing a course a trainer of beginning translators or a self study student of Bible translation this teacher's manual is an essential complement to the fourth edition of Bible Translation An Introductory Course in Translation Principles It includes an introduction to planning the training program lesson plans and suggested assignments directions for use of additional resources including PowerPoints PDFs and links to reference materials and videos guidance for planning and organising a Bible translation project
