Newsroom Decision Making Under New Management:

Newsroom Decision-Making: Under New Management George Sylvie, 2019-02-19 Do news media need a new kind of manager Does an industry beset by digitization convergence recession and perceived lack of value have room for a team player someone who can share information and authority respect subordinates nurture creativity and diversity and possess the interpersonal skills to influence others throughout the news organization Or is this just an academic pipe dream or more business review psychobabble George Sylvie and his collaborators explore just that in Newsroom Decision Making Under New Management which deconstructs newsroom decision making influences and proposes a framework that will enable editors and managers to recapture the leadership mantle if they're up to it and if they're able to evolve along with the rest of the world

Newsroom Decision-Making: Under New Management George Sylvie, 2013 Do news media need a new kind of manager George Sylvie and collaborators explore this issue in Newsroom Decision Making Under New Management which deconstructs newsroom decision making influences and proposes a framework that will enable editors and managers to recapture the leadership mantle Cover

Value-Oriented Media Management Klaus-Dieter Altmeyden, C. Ann Hollifield, Joost van Loon, 2017-04-27 In the light of a rapidly changing media industry with new technologies actors and advertising models and the critical role of media in society this volume highlights the meaning of different values in media companies and media managers' decisions It discusses how economic as well as societal values can be equally integrated in media management processes and how such values affect the internal as well as external environment of media companies The contributions analyze various issues in media management such as the relationship between quality and audience demand the role of branding in building values changes in the value chain and the impact of deregulation Further important topics include hypercompetition mediatization challenges for media managers and the meaning of corporate social responsibility

Business Innovation and Disruption in Publishing Robert DeFillippi, Patrik Wikström, 2022-02-28 This is the first volume in a book series examining how organizations in the creative industries respond to disruptive change and how they themselves generate business innovations The aspiration of this book series is to understand some of the common forces behind the disruptions occurring in so many creative industries today and identifying the most promising strategies and responses by organizations to create new value propositions business models and business practices that can enable these industry participants to cope with and eventually thrive as their industries and sectors are transformed The chapters included in the volume examine the processes of disruption and transformation due to the technology of the Internet social forces driven by social media the development of new portable digital devices with greater capabilities and smaller size the decreasing costs of new information and the creation of new business models and forms of intellectual property ownership rights for a digitized industry One gap that this book series seeks to fill is that between the study of business innovation and disruption by innovation

affection for the trade he examines the growing economic pressures within the industry the roots of the managerial revolution and the impact of marketplace journalism on the operation of the newsroom and employee morale Innovation in the Media Francisco J. Pérez-Latre, Alfonso Sánchez-Tabernero, 2022-03-03 The media are at the end of a cycle and at the beginning of a new model that is still unpredictable For decades the industry enjoyed solid profits a certain tranquillity and clear rules The presence of high barriers to entry hindered the progress of competitors and several key markets were in fact oligopolies This book tells how a stable industry was buffeted by winds that seriously threatened its essential pillars Free access and Internet development caused a dramatic drop of the value of the contents The public could often find information and entertainment at no cost therefore beginning to move away from the media that were poorly differentiated and predictable in terms of subjects and approaches The authors do not restrict themselves to writing a chronicle of those transformations they deepen the causes and propose solutions In their view companies in the sector have lacked the discipline necessary to keep pace with innovation adapt to change and make learning a constant and priority activity The industry needs better leaders managers with vision who can take risks and break the monotonous cycle of systematic imitation of success formulas that already belong to the past Management and Innovation in the Media Industry Cinzia Dal Zotto, Hans van Kranenburg, 2008-12-28 This comprehensive book covers relevant issues on how media companies are currently embracing innovation the levels at which they are doing so and how innovation can help media companies to meet their development needs in the future The primary focus of this study is the relationship between management and innovation in the media industry The book evaluates the importance and the role of innovation within the media industry and helps identify and evaluate the drivers of innovation The contributors demonstrate and build upon an understanding of the issues and strategies that bind media firms to new processes and technologies and offer clear guidelines on how media companies can accelerate growth through effective internal and external collaboration Management and Innovation in the Media Industry highlights those issues that influence strategies organizational structures media content management and public interest within media firms This unique study offers both new theoretical and empirical insights on decision making aspects of innovation relevant for those executives and policy makers operating within the media or related industries It will be of great interest to academics and students in the fields of communication and journalism as well as innovation management Gatekeeping Theory Pamela J. Shoemaker, Timothy Vos, 2009-09-10 Gatekeeping Theory examines the process by which the billions of messages that are available in today's media world get cut down and transformed into the hundreds of messages that reach a given person on a given day Roll! Shooting TV News Rich Underwood, 2007-06-19 Roll Shells fly overhead as night scopes capture deadly fire fights with an eerie green hue a category 5 hurricane devastates the Big Easy hidden cameras enter a Cambodian village of brothels and a veteran journalist interviews himself throughout his own brain surgery Part non fiction drama part trade publication part text book all woven together giving the reader a look through the viewfinders of the very best television photojournalists As 19 experts weigh in with their candid personal stories and photographic tips it s as if you re over their shoulders following their intuitions and hearing their thoughts as they shoot The trade term for what they do is called ENG Electronic News Gathering and whether they re called Cameramen Backpack Journalists Television Photographers or any other moniker de jour they re all paid to bring the world s events into living rooms around the world These are the men and women who capture the bleeding edge of history as it happens Written in a smooth unique interview style this book is a necessary read for photojournalists videographers and tv photojournalists

News, Gender and Power Stuart Allan,Gill Branston,Cynthia Carter,2002-01-31 How do gender relations affect the practice of journalism Despite the star status accorded to some women reporters and the dramatic increase in the number of women working in journalism why do men continue to occupy most senior management positions And why do female readers viewers and listeners remain as elusive as ever News Gender and Power addresses the pressing questions of how gender shapes the forms practice institutions and audiences of journalism The contributors who include John Hartley Pat Holland Jenny Kitzinger and Myra Macdonald draw on feminist theory and gender sensitive critiques to explore media issues such as ownership and control employment and occupation status the representation of women in the media the sexualization of news and audience research Within this framework the contributors explore media coverage of the trial of O J Simpson British beef and the BSE scandal the horrific crimes of Fred and Rosemary West child sexual abuse and false memory syndrome the portrayal of women in TV documentaries such as Modern Times and Cutting Edge Changing the News Wilson Lowrey,Peter J. Gade,2012-01-25 Changing the News examines the difficulties in changing news processes and practices in response to the evolving circumstances and struggles of the journalism industry The editors have put together this volume to demonstrate why the prescriptions employed to salvage the journalism industry to date haven t worked and to explain how constraints and pressures have influenced the field s responses to challenges in an uncertain changing environment If journalism is to adjust and thrive the following questions need answers Why do journalists and news organizations respond to uncertainties in the ways they do What forces and structures constrain these responses What social and cultural contexts should we take into account when we judge whether or not journalism successfully responds and adapts The book tackles these questions from varying perspectives and levels of analysis through chapters by scholars of news sociology and media management Changing the News details the forces that shape and challenge journalism and journalistic culture and explains why journalists and their organizations respond to troubles challenges and uncertainties in the way they do The Organization of Journalism Patrick Ferrucci,2024-11-11 New business models have splintered journalists once monolithic professional culture Where the organization once had little sway in the newsroom in today s journalism ecosystem owners and management influence newsgathering more than ever Using rich interviews and participant observation Patrick Ferrucci examines institutions with funding mechanisms that range from traditional mogul ownership and online only nonprofits to staff owned cooperatives and hedge fund control The variations in market models have frayed the tenets of professionalization with unique work cultures emerging from each organization s focus on its mission and the implantation of its own processes and ethical guidelines As a result the field of American journalism no longer shares uniform newsgathering practices and a common identity a break with the past that affects what information we consume today and what the press will become tomorrow An inside look at a fracturing profession The Organization of Journalism illuminates the institution s expanding impact on newsgathering and the people who practice it
