Nice Ball Stories Tara Ison:

Ball Tara Ison, 2015-11-10 Ball is the thrilling and emotionally provocative debut collection of short fiction by the acclaimed author of the novels Rockaway and A Child Out of Alcatraz and the essay collection Reeling through Life. Ball explores the darker edges of love and sex and death how they are intimately and often violently connected with bright vivid stories set mostly in contemporary Los Angeles. In Cactus a young girl comes to fear the outside world following the freakish accidental death of her adventure seeking naturalist boyfriend in the California desert. In Wig a woman must help her best friend face life threatening cancer while covering up an unseemly affair with her friend's husband. In Fish the narrator sits watch over a dying uncle trying to pay for past sins while administering to his final needs but distracted by the ravenous fish in the Koi pond near the hospital. And in the collection's stunning title story the bonds of friendship and pet ownership collide in the most startling and unexpected ways. With a keen insight into the edges of human behavior and an assured literary hand Ball is the new book by one of the West's most provocative stylists.

Reeling Through Life Tara Ison, 2015-01-01 Reeling Through Life How I Learned to Live Love and Die at the Movies looks at how film shapes identity Through ten cleverly constructed essays Ison explores how a lifetime of movie watching has for better or worse taught her how to navigate the world and how to grapple with issues of career family faith illness sex and love Cinema is a universal cultural experience one that floods our senses with images and sounds a powerful force that influences our perspective on the world around us Ison discusses the universal aspects of film as she makes them personal looking at how certain films across time shaped and molded who she has become Drawing on a wide ranging catalog of films both cult and classic popular and art house Reeling Through Life examines how cinema shapes our views on how to make love how to deal with mental illness how to be Jewish how to be a woman how to be a drunk and how to die with style Rather than being a means of escape or object of mere entertainment Ison posits that cinema is a more engaging form of art a way to slip into other identities and inhabit other realities A way to orient oneself into the world Reeling Though Life is a compelling look at one popular art form and how it has influenced our identities in provocative and important ways

The Atmospherians Alex McElroy, Isle McElroy, 2021-05-18 Sasha Marcus was once the epitome of contemporary success an internet sensation social media darling and a creator of a high profile wellness brand for women But a confrontation with an abusive troll has taken a horrifying turn and now she s at rock bottom canceled and doxxed online fired from her waitress job and fortressed in her apartment while men s rights protestors rage outside All that once glittered now condemns Sasha confides in her oldest childhood friend Dyson a failed actor with a history of body issues who hatches a plan for Sasha to restore her reputation by becoming the face of his new business venture The Atmosphere a rehabilitation community for men Based in an abandoned summer camp and billed as a workshop for job training it is actually a rigorous program designed to rid men of their toxic masculinity and heal them physically emotionally and socially Sasha has little choice but to accept But what horrors await her as the resident female leader of a crew of washed up desperate men And what exactly does Dyson want

The Making of Jane Austen Devoney Looser, 2017-06-27 Returning author Devoney Looser has written a study of Jane Austen s legacy in high and popular culture looking at stage and film adaptations of her work how Austen has been taught in classrooms Austen s depiction in visual culture and Austen s role in the women s suffragist movement Looser draws on popular print and unpublished archival sources amassing evidence from high middlebrow and popular culture in order to craft a more capacious history of posthumous reception The book is a detailed and revealing account of what Looser calls the public dimension of Jane Austen who is a manufactured creation Looser has dug deep and come up with brand new material on Austen something that is very hard to do This is the kind of material that Janeites and Austen scholars live for Women Do Genre in Film and Television Mary Harrod, Katarzyna Paszkiewicz, 2017-10-30 Winner of first Prize in the BAFTSS Best Edited Collection competition this volume examines how different generations of women work within the genericity of audio visual storytelling not necessarily to undo or subvert popular formats but also to draw on their generative force Recent examples of filmmakers and creative practitioners within and outside Hollywood as well as women working in non directing authorial roles remind us that women are in various ways authoring commercially and culturally impactful texts across a range of genres Put simply this volume asks what do women who are creatively engaged with audio visual industries do with genre and what does genre do with them The contributors to the collection respond to this question from diverse perspectives and with different answers spanning issues of direction screenwriting performance and audience address reception The Film Journal ,1991 Feminist Bookstore News ,1997
