Nice History Italian Renaissance Tauris Histories:

A Short History of the Italian Renaissance Virginia Cox, 2015-10-08 The extraordinary creative energy of Renaissance Italy lies at the root of modern Western culture In her elegant new introduction Virginia Cox offers a fresh vision of this iconic moment in European cultural history when between the fourteenth and sixteenth centuries Italy led the world in painting building science and literature Her book explores key artistic literary and intellectual developments but also histories of food and fashion map making exploration and anatomy Alongside towering figures such as Leonardo da Vinci Michelangelo Raphael Petrarch Machiavelli and Isabella d Este Cox reveals a cast of lesser known protagonists including printers travel writers actresses courtesans explorers inventors and even celebrity chefs At the same time Italy's rich regional diversity is emphasised in addition to the great artistic capitals of Florence Rome and Venice smaller but cutting edge centres such as Ferrara Mantua Bologna Urbino and Siena are given their due As the author demonstrates women played a far more prominent role in this exhilarating resurgence than was recognized until very recently both as patrons of art and literature and as creative artists themselves Renaissance woman she boldly argues is as important a legacy as Renaissance man

Imagined Histories Anthony Molho, Gordon S. Wood, 2018-06-05 This collection of essays by twenty one distinguished American historians reflects on a peculiarly American way of imagining the past At a time when history writing has changed dramatically the authors discuss the birth and evolution of historiography in this country from its origins in the late nineteenth century through its present more cosmopolitan character In the book's first part concerning recent historiography are chapters on exceptionalism gender economic history social theory race and immigration and multiculturalism Authors are Daniel Rodgers Linda Kerber Naomi Lamoreaux Dorothy Ross Thomas Holt and Philip Gleason The three American centuries are discussed in the second part with chapters by Gordon Wood George Fredrickson and James Patterson The third part is a chronological survey of non American histories including that of Western civilization ancient history the middle ages early modern and modern Europe Russia and Asia Contributors are Eugen Weber Richard Saller Gabrielle Spiegel Anthony Molho Philip Benedict Richard Kagan Keith Baker Joseph Zizak Volker Berghahn Charles Maier Martin Malia and Carol Gluck Together these scholars reveal the unique perspective American historians have brought to the past of their own nation as well as that of the world. Formerly writing from a conviction that America had a singular destiny, American historians have gradually come to share viewpoints of historians in other countries about which they write. The result is the virtual disappearance of what was a distinctive American voice. That voice is the subject of this book.

Histories of Ornament
 Gülru Necipoğlu, Alina Payne, 2016-03-08

This lavishly illustrated volume is the first major global history of ornament from the Middle Ages to today. Crossing historical and geographical boundaries in unprecedented ways and considering the role of ornament in both art and architecture, Histories of Ornament offers a nuanced examination that integrates medieval, Renaissance, baroque, and modern Euroamerican traditions with their Islamic, Indian, Chinese, and Mesoamerican counterparts. At a time when ornament has re-emerged in architectural practice and is a topic of growing interest to art and architectural historians, the book reveals how the long history of ornament illuminates its global resurgence today. Organized by thematic sections on the significance, influence, and role of ornament, the book addresses ornament's current revival in architecture, its historiography, and theories of its transcontinental mobility in medieval and early modern Europe and the Middle East, and its place in the context of industrialization and modernism. Throughout, Histories of Ornament emphasizes the portability and politics of ornament, figuration versus abstraction, cross-cultural dialogues, and the constant negotiation of local and global traditions. Featuring original essays by more than two dozen scholars from around the world, this authoritative and wide-ranging book provides an indispensable reference on the histories of ornament in a global context. Contributors include Michele Bacci (Fribourg University), Anna Contadini (University of London), Thomas B. F. Cummins (Harvard), Chanchal Dadlani (Wake Forest), Daniela del Pesco (Università degli Studi Roma Tre), Vittoria Di Palma (USC), Anne Dunlop (University of Melbourne), Marzia Faietti (University of Bologna), Marja Judith Feliciano (independent scholar), Finbarr Barry Flood (NYU), Jonathan Hay (NYU), Christopher P. A Cultural History of Color in the Renaissance
 Sven Dupré, Amy Buono, 2022-08-31

A Cultural History of Color in the Renaissance covers the period 1400 to 1650, a time of change, conflict, and transformation. Innovations in color production transformed the material world of the Renaissance, especially in ceramics, cloth, and paint. Collectors across Europe prized colorful objects such as feathers and gemstones as material illustrations of foreign lands. The advances in technology and the increasing global circulation of colors led to new color terms, enriching language. Color shapes an individual's experience of the world and also how society gives particular spaces, objects, and moments meaning. The 6-volume set of the Cultural History of Color examines how color has been created, traded, used, and interpreted over the last 5000 years. The themes covered in each volume are color philosophy and science color technology and trade power and identity religion and ritual body and clothing language and psychology literature and the performing arts art architecture and interiors and artefacts Amy Buono is Assistant Professor at the Wilkinson College of Arts Humanities and Social Sciences at Chapman University USA Sven Dupr is Professor of History of Art Science and Technology at Utrecht University and the University of Amsterdam The Netherlands Volume 3 in the Cultural History of Color set General Editors Carole P Biggam and Kirsten Wolf attempting to command her own destiny in a man's world. It is the story of two cities unknown to each other at the height of their powers: the hedonistic Mughal capital in which the brilliant Akbar the Great wrestles daily with questions of belief, desire, and the treachery of his sons; and the equally sensual city of Florence during the High Renaissance where Niccol Machiavelli takes a starring role as he learns the hard way about the true brutality of power. Vivid, gripping, irreverent, bawdy, profoundly moving, and completely absorbing, The Enchantress of Florence is a dazzling book full of wonders by one of the world's most important living writers.

Romantic 'Anglo-Italians' Maria Schoina, 2009-01-01. Focusing on key members of the Pisan Circle: Byron, the Shelleys, and Leigh Hunt, Maria Schoina explores configurations of identity and the acculturating practices of British expatriates in post-Napoleonic Italy. The problems involved in British Romanticism's relations to its European others are her point of departure as she argues that the emergence and mission of what Mary Shelley termed the Anglo-Italian is inextricably linked to the social, political, economic, and cultural conditions of the age: the forging of the British identity in the midst of an expanding empire; the rise of the English middle class and the establishment of a competitive print culture; and the envisioning by a group of male and female Romantic liberal intellectuals of social and political reform. Schoina's emphasis on the political implications of the British Romantics' hyphenated self-representation results in fresh readings of the Pisan Circle's Italianate writings that move them away from interpretations focused on a purely aesthetic or poetic attachment to Italy to uncover their complex ideological underpinnings.

Florence Ki Jadugarni Salman Rushdie, 2014-02-13. This is a translation from English of the book The Enchantress of Florence written by Salman Rushdie. A tall, yellow-haired young European traveller calling himself Mogor dell'Amore, the Mughal of Love, arrives at the court of the real Grand Mughal, the Emperor Akbar, with a tale to tell that begins to obsess the whole imperial capital. The Stranger claims to be the child of a lost Mughal princess, the youngest sister of Akbar's grandfather Babar. Qara Koz, Lady Black Eyes, a great beauty believed to possess powers of enchantment and sorcery, who is taken captive first by an Uzbek warlord, then by the Shah of Persia, and finally becomes the lover of a certain Argalia, a Florentine soldier of fortune, commander of the armies of the Ottoman Sultan. When Argalia returns home with his Mughal mistress, the city is mesmerized by her presence and much trouble ensues. The Enchantress of Florence is the story of a woman attempting to command her own destiny in a man's world. It brings together two cities that barely know each other: the hedonistic Mughal capital in which the brilliant emperor wrestles daily with questions of belief, desire, and the treachery of sons; and the equally sensual Florentine world of powerful courtesans, humanist philosophy, and inhuman torture. Where Argalia's boyhood friend, il Machia, Niccolò Machiavelli, is learning the hard way about the true brutality of power. These two worlds, so far apart, turn out to be uncannily alike, and the enchantments of women hold sway over them both. But is Mogor's story true? And if so, then what happened to the lost princess? And if he's a
