2020 Association of Catholic Publishers third place award in theology 2020 Catholic Press Association third place award in Pope Francis books The dangerous tendency to reduce theological positions to political ones has always fueled divisions in the Church and it plagues debates surrounding Pope Francis's teaching today This collection of essays was born of a landmark international symposium designed to promote theological understanding by contextualizing the thought of Pope Francis from his understanding of history to his theology of mission within important theological conversations rarely heard in the US Catholic Church Its contributors demonstrate decisively that Pope Francis's magisterium is the fruit of a profound and distinctive yet deeply Catholic intellectual engagement with the theological and ecclesial traditions of the Church

Hispanic & Latino Heritage in Virginia Christine Stoddard, 2016-06-06 Long before the adventures of John Rolfe and Pocahontas Spanish ships reached Virginia's shore In the centuries that followed Hispanics and Latinos settled in Virginia to seek new opportunities away from home The 1980s saw the beginnings of el Nuevo Sur or the New South as Virginia's Latin American population surged Since then the now defunct Virginia Center for Latin American Art briefly showcased Virginia's Latino and Hispanic evolving arts heritage Restaurants like Pollo Campero and La Tasca have joined the local culinary scene and schools and churches have forged plans for their changing communities Join author Christine Stoddard as she traces the vibrant history and culture of Hispanics and Latinos in Virginia

Preaching to Latinos Michael Kueber, Michael I. Kueber, 2022-11-08 There is a wide and growing gap in the Catholic Church in the United States between the clergy who are mostly of European descent and the large percentages of Catholics who identify as Latinos While the US Church has made a concerted effort to build Hispanic ministries many clergy and lay ministers are still ill equipped to understand the cultural background of their parishioners especially the large numbers who are foreign born Because of this disconnect the Church risks missing the Hispanic Moment in the US Church in which the faith and traditions of these newest waves of US immigration could not just exist in parallel to English language congregations but enrich and enliven the faith of the whole community while passing on the faith to subsequent generations Learning Spanish while helpful is not enough There are intercultural competencies that can only be developed through practice but it also helps already busy clergy to have a concise guide In addition to knowing the scholarly literature on cross cultural preaching and Hispanic culture Father Michael Kueber has twenty years of experience serving first generation Hispanic immigrants and their second generation children In Preaching to Latinos Kueber provides the readers with best practices for preaching to and leading their churches As a
