Judgment According to Works in Romans Kevin W. McFadden, 2013-10-01 Kevin W. McFadden shows that Paul wrote the letter to remind Roman Christians of his gospel because of his vocation as apostle to the Gentiles The letter simultaneously demonstrates the guilt of the world and calls Paul's audience to live out the implications of the gospel The theme of judgment thus appears in two distinct ways Paul opposes justification by works of law but simultaneously affirms as did most of the early Christian movement McFadden argues a final judgment according to works These are not contradictory observations but belong together in a cohesive understanding of Paul's theology and of his purpose in the letter

Romans: Jimmy Swaggart Bible Commentary Jimmy Swaggart, 1996
 ROMANS BIBLE COMMENTARY After nearly 40 years of full time ministry Brother Swaggart published his first commentary on the book of Genesis that was later described as the most helpful Bible commentary ever published It would take nearly 20 years to complete the entire commentary series from Genesis to Revelation True to Pentecostal theology the Jimmy Swaggart Commentary collection leads its readers chapter by chapter to a better understanding of the Bible Rather than providing notes on every Bible verse these commentaries focus on the salient verses of each chapter to offer the reader a condensed synopsis of what the Holy Spirit intended Where most relevant cultural and historical references are also included along with explanations of the allegories types and symbolisms used in the Bible to add depth and dimension for students of the Holy Scriptures Yet what seems to separate this work from all other commentaries are the biblical applications made to present day circumstances facing every believer Printed on high quality paper and bound with a beautiful hardback cover this unique reference will be cherished by anyone who loves to study the Word of God

Reflections on Biblical Themes by an Octogenarian Reuben J. Swanson, 2007-01-01 Reflections on Biblical Themes by an Octogenarian represents the journey into faith by the author of the essays over the span of sixty years in the pastoral ministry and as a professor on college university and theological school levels There has been a continuing growth in understanding from the beginnings of a rather conservative religious background and training to a more mature appreciation and understanding of life This growth came about through the interchange in the classroom as a student in preparation for ministry then as a pastor in the everyday work experience and interchange with parishioners and especially in the interchange with students in the classroom This more mature understanding and growth is reflected in the essays presented in this volume on various themes as listed in the Table of Contents It is hoped that they will be of value to lay persons and to professionals in the life of the church and in the academic world and that they will stimulate thought and discussion in parishes and in institutions of higher learning Some of the viewpoints may seem to be controversial but how are we to grow intellectually and spiritually unless we wrestle seriously with the deep and profound questions of our faith and life These reflections are offered with the hope and prayer that they will stimulate discussion and growth in the life of the church in both parish and academic settings

Patzia, 2025-11-04 The story of the making of the New Testament is one in which scrolls bumped across cobbled Roman roads and pitched through rolling Mediterranean seas finally finding their destinations in stuffy dimly lit Christian house churches in Corinth or Colossae There they were read aloud and reread handled and copied forwarded and collected studied and treasured And eventually they were brought together to make up our New Testament This revised and expanded edition of The Making of the New
