New Ipswich War Rebellion Classic:

New Ipswich in the War of the Rebellion Lydia Ann Obear, 2015-07-12 Excerpt from New Ipswich in the War of the Rebellion What Its Men and Women Did The War of the Rebellion has become a matter of history The participants in its scenes who are left to us are growing gray and bent and as they thread our streets we notice that their steps are less vigorous than in their prime The men and women no less patriotic and ardent who did what they could to aid and encourage those who went to the front are also in the sere and yellow leaf and will soon be blown from life's tree or have already passed on to a Land of eternal peace It is due to each of these classes that what they did and bore for the Union should go down to their posterity It is due to their posterity that they should receive such a legacy That they may do so this little book has been written The author dedicates it to the citizens of the town in which she has had happy citizenship for more than half a century About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
