Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists ,1979-03 See No Evil Robert Baer,2002-01-17 In See No Evil one of the CIA s top field officers of the past quarter century recounts his career running agents in the back alleys of the Middle East In the process Robert Baer paints a chilling picture of how terrorism works on the inside and provides compelling evidence about how Washington politics sabotaged the CIA s efforts to root out the world s deadliest terrorists On the morning of September 11 2001 the world witnessed the terrible result of that intelligence failure with the attack on the World Trade Center and the Pentagon In the wake of those attacks Americans were left wondering how such an obviously long term globally coordinated plot could have escaped detection by the CIA and taken the nation by surprise Robert Baer was not surprised A twenty one year veteran of the CIA s Directorate of Operations who had left the agency in 1997 Baer observed firsthand how an increasingly bureaucratic CIA lost its way in the post cold war world and refused to adequately acknowledge and neutralize the growing threat of Islamic fundamentalist terror in the Middle East and elsewhere A throwback to the days when CIA operatives got results by getting their hands dirty and running covert operations Baer spent his career chasing down leads on suspected terrorists in the world s most volatile hot spots As he and his agents risked their lives gathering intelligence he watched as the CIA reduced drastically its operations overseas failed to put in place people who knew local languages and customs and rewarded workers who knew how to play the political games of the agency s suburban Washington headquarters but not how to recruit agents on the ground See No Evil is not only a candid memoir of the education and disillusionment of an intelligence operative but also an unprecedented look at the roots of modern terrorism Baer reveals some of the disturbing details he uncovered in his work including In 1996 Osama bin Laden established a strategic alliance with Iran to coordinate terrorist attacks against the United States In 1995 the National Security Council intentionally aborted a military coup d etat against Saddam Hussein forgoing the last opportunity to get rid of him In 1991 the CIA intentionally shut down its operations in Afghanistan and Saudi Arabia and ignored fundamentalists operating there When Baer left the agency in 1997 he received the Career Intelligence Medal with a citation that says He repeatedly put himself in personal danger working the hardest targets in service to his country See No Evil is Baer s frank assessment of an agency that forgot that service to country must transcend politics and is a forceful plea for the CIA to
