Nice Book International Politics Political Issues Debate:

International Politics Scott P. Handler, Robert T. Person, 2020-12-23 Why do states do what they do Who are the relevant nonstate actors in international politics and why do they do what they do What causes conflict and cooperation in the international system These are some of the most basic questions that the discipline of International Relations IR seeks to answer they are also the questions that drive the objectives organization and content of this book International Politics Classic and Contemporary Readings Second Edition seeks to help students engage critically with some of the world's most challenging questions through the use of leading classic and contemporary scholarship in the field of international relations The first five chapters of the book explore the leading theoretical traditions in international relations while subsequent chapters explore the themes of international security international political economy and contemporary challenges in international relations This organization makes the book easy to use as standalone text or alongside core text Class tested on over 10 000 students in the last decade this text was built from the ground up to introduce students to the traditions and new foundations of international relations as well to the principles of intellectually rigorous thought International Relations, Political Theory, and the Problem of Order Nicholas J. Rengger, 2000 This book seeks to offer a general interpretation and critique of both methodological and substantive aspects of International theory The Eighty Years' Crisis Ken Booth, Michael Cox, Timothy Dunne, 1998 This book uses the agenda of E H Carr and most obviously extends the title of his classic book The Twenty Years Crisis as the point of departure to discuss aspects of the world historical crisis from the end of the First World War until the end of the 1990s This crisis identified by 80 years of destructive wars inequalities in life chances and today's casualties of the global political economy has shaped both the practices of international politics and the way they have been conceptualised and reconceptualised by specialists in International Relations A distinguished group of contributors have written about the development of the academic discipline of International Relations in the inter war years the Cold War and post Cold War eras ethics power and nationalism the conditions of peace and the roles of law and peaceful change and finally considering future prospects about globalization and the end of the old order Making Global Knowledge in Local Contexts Katarzyna Kaczmarska, 2020-04-08 This book draws on extensive ethnographic research undertaken in Russia to show how the wider sociopolitical context the political system relationship between the state and academia as well as the contours of the public debate shapes knowledge about international politics and influences scholars engagement with the policy world Combining an in depth study of the International Relations discipline in Russia with a robust methodological framework the book demonstrates that context not only bears on epistemic and disciplinary practices but also conditions scholars engagement with the wider public and policymakers This original study lends robust sociological foundations to the debate about knowledge in International Relations and the social sciences more broadly In particular the book questions contemporary thinking about the relationship between knowledge and politics by situating the university within rather than abstracting it from the political setting The monograph benefits from a comprehensive engagement with Russian language literature in the Sociology of Knowledge and critical reading of International Relations scholarship published in Russia This text will be of interest to scholars and students in International Relations Russian and Post Soviet Studies the Sociology of Knowledge Science and Technology Studies and Higher Education Studies It will appeal to those researching the knowledge policy nexus and knowledge production practices Discovery United States Air Force Academy,1985

Philosophy of the Tourist Hiroki Azuma,2023-05-09 An inventive philosophical study that reconsiders the figure of the tourist Tourism is a characteristically

modern phenomenon yet modern thinkers have tended to deride the tourist as a figure of homogenizing globalism This philosophical study considers the tourist anew as a subject position that enables us to redraw the map of globalized culture in an era increasingly in revolt against the liberal intellectual worldview and its call for the welcome of the Other Why has the tourist proved so resistant to philosophical treatment asks Hiroki Azuma Tracing the reasons for this exclusion through the work of Rousseau and Voltaire and subsequently in Kant Carl Schmitt Alexandre Kojve Hannah Arendt and Hardt and Negri Azuma contends that the figure of the tourist has been rendered illegible by becoming ensnared in a series of misleading conceptual dichotomies and a linear model of world history In the widening gap between the infrastructure of globalization and inherited ties of local and national belonging Azuma's retheorization of the tourist presents an alternative to the choice between doubling down on local identity and roots or hoping for the spontaneous uprising of a multitude from within the great networked Empire For the tourist is the subject capable of moving most freely between the strata of the global and the local With explorations of the connection between tourism and fan fiction contingency and misdelivery cyberspace and the uncanny and dark tourism Azuma's inventive and optimistic philosophical essay sheds unexpected new light on a mode of engagement with the world that is familiar to us all
