Unraveling inflammaging : A pathway to Prevent Age-related Disease in Animals Toshiro Arai, Takahiro Teshima, Osamu Yamato, Jose Ceron, 2025-01-13 The field of age related diseases in animals particularly focusing on the concept of inflammaging forms the basis of this research topic Inflammaging a term coined to describe the chronic proinflammatory state often associated with aging has been linked to a variety of degenerative diseases This low grade chronic inflammatory state is believed to result from an accumulation of damaged macromolecules and cellular debris due to increased production and inhibited damage surveillance and repair functions in multiple tissues The secretion of proinflammatory cytokines from senescent cells known as the senescence associated secretory phenotype SASP is thought to contribute to the onset of inflammaging In animals such as dogs and cats the longer they live the more diseases they develop similar to humans with inflammaging being a potential cause of various age related diseases The primary aim of this research topic is to delve deeper into the mechanisms of inflammaging in animals and its role in age related diseases The goal is to develop new diagnostic biomarkers for inflammaging which could potentially lead to early diagnosis and prevention of age related diseases In an aging society the increase in age related diseases is inevitable However the extension of healthy life years and the ability to stay healthy until old age are standard medical requirements Therefore the early diagnosis of inflammaging could be a significant step towards preventing various age related diseases in animals

Federico Colecchia, Eleonora Ceccaldi, Daniele Giunchi, Fang Wang, Rui Qin, 2025-06-09 Emerging technologies such as machine learning and immersive technologies including virtual reality and augmented reality hold great potential for driving disruptive healthcare innovation. However, the adoption of digital technology in healthcare including use of data driven tools in support of clinical decision making and patient facing applications relying on consumer electronic devices is often hindered by issues of user experience, trust, equitability and fairness. There is increasing recognition of a need to facilitate further convergence between the development of emerging technologies and user centered design research for healthcare with a view to achieving a positive impact on patients care professionals and the healthcare system. This article collection addresses current development trends relating to user centered digital healthcare innovation based on machine learning and immersive technologies in order to identify opportunities associated with the deployment of new solutions in a range of environments including clinical, domestic and educational settings and barriers to the adoption of technology by end users. A key aim is to identify opportunities for strengthening interdisciplinary collaboration as well as methods of lowering barriers and overcoming obstacles for the benefit of patients care professionals and the healthcare system. Examples of potential outcomes are effective design and use of solutions based on machine learning and immersive technologies to improve user experience, strategies to facilitate ethical development of digital technology for healthcare and methods of encouraging adoption of advanced tools developed in line with principles of equitability and fairness. Articles should address issues of user centered digital healthcare innovation driven by machine learning and immersive technologies. Submissions should ideally be positioned at the intersection of digital technology development with user centered design although contributions more technical in nature as well as user experience studies are also welcome. A non exhaustive list of suitable topics and manuscript types is given below: Machine learning and or immersive technologies including augmented reality and virtual reality for user centered digital healthcare; Clinical decision support systems; Patient facing applications; Tools for education and training of future medical professionals; Potential barriers to adoption of technology; issues of user experience, trust, equitability and fairness in digital healthcare; Reviews and contributions discussing the development of intuitive, accessible and inclusive digital interfaces. All aspects of healthcare that are being or have the potential to be impacted by machine learning and immersive technologies Cybernetics, Cognition and Machine Learning Applications Vinit Kumar Gunjan, P.
