My Disillusionment in Russia Emma Goldman, 2015-06-02 Excerpt from My Disillusionment in Russia The decision to record my experiences observations and reactions during my stay in Russia I had made long before I thought of leaving that country In fact that was my main reason for departing from that tragically heroic land The strongest of us are loath to give up a long cherished dream I had come to Russia possessed by the hope that I should find a new born country with its people wholly consecrated to the great though very difficult task of revolutionary reconstruction And I had fervently hoped that I might become an active part of the inspiring work I found reality in Russia grotesque totally unlike the great ideal that had borne me upon the crest of high hope to the land of promise It required fifteen long months before I could get my bearings Each day each week each month added new links to the fatal chain that pulled down my cherished edifice I fought desperately against the disillusionment About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving
