My Father Always Embarrasses Me:

My Father Always Embarrasses Me Meir Shalev, 1990 Mortimer finds that everything his father does embarrasses him until the day he enters a baking contest in Mortimer's class Engaging the Old Testament Dominick S.

Hernández, 2023-04-18 This introductory textbook invites students into the depths and riches of the Old Testament and shows the Old Testament's relevance for Christian readers Rising Latino evangelical Old Testament scholar Dominick Hernández demonstrates how to read Old Testament texts well and put the ancient written word into practice in our day and age Hernández shows that four core commitments put readers on the right trajectory for reading and applying the Old Testament to their lives 1 reading humbly 2 reading successively 3 reading entirely and 4 reading deliberately Students will learn how to become better readers of the text and how to read select Old Testament passages well paying attention to how the biblical authors used rhetorical techniques to provoke readers to action Children's Books from Other Countries Carl M.

Tomlinson, 1998-01-15 Every child is entranced by the magic of story regardless of national boundaries Many of the most memorable childhood stories have their origins in other countries Exposing children to this multi national body of literature introduces them to the great diversity of people and cultures that populate the world at a young age enabling them to become more thoughtful and generous individuals Children's Books from Other Countries is a complete and current guide to international children's literature The concept of a bibliography of international children's literature is not new In the past many books have accomplished this task The last two decades however have not yet produced a current reference source devoted to international children's books Children's Books from Other Countries wonderfully rectifies this lack of attention An introductory essay provides an overview of the field including a discussion on the rationale of sharing international books with children a brief history of the children's literature movement related books and awards and basic information about the International Board on Books for Young People IBBY and its American branch the United States Board on Books for Young People USBBY An annotated bibliography contains over 700 titles from 29 different countries printed between 1950 and 1996 All titles are available in English many have been translated and others have originated in other English speaking countries The titles are organized by genre and have been selected for their high quality They are primarily targeted for children ages 0-14 although a few outstanding young adult titles are included Winners of the Mildred Batchelder Award and the Hans Christian Andersen Medal are listed in the appendix Indexes include Author Title Index Country of Origin Index and Subject Index Affordable and readable this timely resource is certainly a must for librarians and teachers and other professionals working with children Sponsored by the United State China Lake Barret Baumgart, 2017-05-01 Barret Baumgart's literary debut presents a haunting and deeply personal portrait of civilization poised at the precipice a picture of humanity caught between its deepest past and darkest future In the fall of 2013 during the height of California's historic drought Baumgart toured the remote military base NAWS China Lake near Death Valley California His mother the survivor of a recent stroke decided to come along for the ride She hoped the alleged healing power of the base s ancient Native American hot springs might cure her crippling headaches Baumgart sought to debunk claims that the military was spraying the atmosphere with toxic chemicals to control the weather What follows is a discovery that threatens to sever not only the bonds between mother and son but between planet Earth and life itself Stalking the fringes of Internet conspiracy speculative science and contemporary archaeology Baumgart weaves memoir military history and investigative journalism in a dizzying journey that carries him from the cornfields of Iowa to drought riddled California from the Vietnam jungle to the caves of prehistoric Europe and eventually the walls of the US Capitol the sparkling white hallways of the Pentagon and straight into the contradicted heart of a worldwide climate emergency The Loves of Judith Meir Shalev,2012-08-28 A woman with three loves and a son with three fathers a universal story of passion and personal destiny by the award winning author of A Pigeon and a Boy When the mysterious Judith arrives in a small agricultural village in Palestine in the 1930s she attracts attention of three men Moshe a widowed farmer Globerman a wealthy cattle dealer and Jacob who loses his wife the most beautiful woman in the village because of his obsession with Judith who insists on living in a cowshed rather than settling down with any of her admirers When she gives birth to Zayde all three suitors consider him their son and Zayde who tragically loses Judith imbibes their triple wisdom and their distinct versions of his origins As Zayde pieces together the beguiling story of the singular woman who was his mother Meir Shalev weaves a magical novel of the joys and secrets of village life of an unconventional family and the unexpected fruits of love The Routledge Encyclopedia of Jewish Writers of the Twentieth Century Sorrel Kerbel,2004-11-23 Now available in paperback for the first time Jewish Writers of the Twentieth Century is both a comprehensive reference resource and a springboard for further study This volume examines canonical Jewish writers less well known authors of Yiddish and Hebrew and emerging Israeli writers includes entries on figures as diverse as Marcel Proust Franz Kafka Tristan Tzara Eugene Ionesco Harold Pinter Tom Stoppard Arthur Miller Saul Bellow Nadine Gordimer and Woody Allen contains introductory essays on Jewish American writing Holocaust literature and memoirs Yiddish writing and Anglo Jewish literature provides a chronology of twentieth century Jewish writers Compiled by expert contributors this book contains over 330 entries on individual authors each consisting of a biography a list of selected publications a scholarly essay on their work and suggestions for further reading The Last Happy Occasion Alan Shapiro,1997-10-27 A coming of age story of an American Jew and aspiring writer in the 60s and 70s In this memoir in six movements Alan Shapiro recalls how poetry helped him make sense of his own and other people s lives My Wild Garden Meir Shalev,2020-03-31 A colorfully illustrated round of the season in the garden of the best selling novelist memoirist and champion putterer with a wheelbarrow On the perimeter of Israel s Jezreel Valley with the Carmel mountains rising up in the west Meir Shalev has a beloved garden neither neatly organized nor well kept as he cheerfully explains Often covered in mud and scrapes Shalev cultivates both nomadic plants and house dwellers using his own quirky techniques He extolls the virtues of the lemon tree rescues a precious variety of purple snapdragon from the Jerusalem Tel Aviv highway and does battle with a saboteur mole rat He even gives us his superior private recipe for curing olives Informed by Shalev's literary sensibility his sometime riotous humor and his deep curiosity about the land My Wild Garden abounds with appreciation for the joy of living quite literally on Earth Our borrowed time on any particular patch of it is enhanced the author reminds us by our honest respectful dealings with all manner of beings who inhabit it with us A Texas Beauty,
