Stay Lose all she s ever known Go Lose the love of a lifetime As a struggling 21st century farmer Kenzie MacMartin knows if she doesn t recover that registered ram that cost her a bundle her dog won t be the only one howling in the Highlands And to make matters worse when she chases that fool sheep through a cave she discovers a troupe of trespassing re enactors mucking up her land with some kind of clan skirmish complete with realistic weapons monstrous warhorses and a restless herd of Highland cows The only upside is their strikingly handsome leader until he kidnaps her Mathias Stronach questions his sanity in laying claim to the strangely dressed woman and her vicious wee dog Perhaps he should have let the MacPhersons take her prisoner Then she would ve distracted them instead of him Such daring and fire in this feisty lass He d bet his best dagger her passions burn just as fiercely And that fine round backside of hers nestled between his thighs as they ride Makes a man think twice about choices he s made Like promising to marry a woman he s never loved so he can be the next chieftain of Clan Stronach When Kenzie realizes she s barged into the thirteenth century her priority is getting back to that cave and hoping if she retraces her steps she ll find her way back home But vengeful clans a medieval sociopath and the mesmerizing warrior who draws her in like a bee to sweet clover thwarts that priority at every turn Her head knows better Her heart refuses to listen She misses her family is worried about her farm and would kill for coffee and a toothbrush But those aren t the worst things about traveling back several centuries The worst thing is loving a man who once she returns to her time will have been dead for over eight hundred years
