Stage by Stage Henry Arthur Jones,2008 For all its wonderful achievements both on stage and off Market Harborough Drama Society had something else to be proud of when it reached its 75th anniversary this year It was a milestone worthy of celebration and some of the more pro active members of the society got to work organising what form those celebrations should take A number of events were planned One aim was to update the book Stage By Stage first published during the society s diamond jubilee year in 1993 It was decided that when the book was updated in the 75th anniversary year the original Stage By Stage conceived and written as a labour of love by the late Arthur Jones who had long standing links with the society should remain intact His efforts had produced a fascinating and valuable account of the society s colourful past and it was agreed his original text should not be altered Updating the book however would take just as much time and effort as the last 15 years had seen many changes as well as a number of memorable plays and performances It would be a collaborative process Many members of the drama society would contribute memories and stories to help fill its pages Though impossible to mention everyone who has contributed to the theatre and the drama society over the years the aim of the new version of Stage By Stage is to promote and showcase what the society does as well as capture and preserve in writing its important place within the town s history

The South American Coffee Shop Chronicles Ross W. Nielsen, 2013-03-23 Some people think I didn't have a childhood as they think I was born on a cold and wet Saturday morning at the age of 23 in the front bar of The Lord Forrester Hotel I did in fact have a childhood but it was spent on a wheat farm but I hated dirt and country music so as soon I was old enough I left the farm I ended up in a country city doing a trade motor mechanic for four years After I had my trade papers in my hand I was out of there and down to the big smoke a city of millions of people I owe that city a lot as it turned me from a country youth into a man I discovered many things including motorcycles race cars the ocean sailing and diving and also bookshops I hated school with a passion but I am thankful to my teachers who taught me how to read The bookshops in that big city were amazing every Saturday morning would see me on a bus heading into the city and I would comb the bookshops Those bookshops were a turning point in my life that put me on a very different road to the farm boy I was supposed to be From there I wandered around the country and finally landed a job in South America working for an American company South America it's people and the crazy guys I worked with was another turning point in my life In my travels I noticed people seemed to live by a script a script for life Some poor souls had been given a bad script but they still lived by it I worked out who gave them these scripts good or bad I discovered one's life script is vital in how we live our lives One can rewrite one's script but your belief system will try to stop you from changing your script Firstly you have to learn how to overcome your belief system and then rewrite your script
