Light the Road of Freedom Sahbaa Al-Barbari, 2021-09-27 Sahbaa Al Barbari's story provides a unique perspective on Palestinian experiences before and after the 1948 Nakba Born and educated in Gaza Al Barbari was an activist in her community When Israel occupied the Gaza Strip in 1967 Al Barbari and her husband Mu in Bseiso became refugees stripped of their residency rights and forced to live in exile for the next three decades While in exile moving from Lebanon to Syria Libya Kuwait Egypt and finally Tunisia Al Barbari held tight to her hope of one day returning to Gaza Her life speaks volumes about the struggle experienced by millions of disenfranchised Palestinians separated from family members and their homeland This is the second book in the Women's Voices from Gaza series which honours women's unique and underrepresented perspectives on the social material and political realities of Palestinian life Foreword by Ramzy Baroud

I remember my name Vacy Vlazna (ed.), 2016-05-10 I remember my name is a compelling contribution to Arabic literature and shares with you the deeply personal and deeply political expressions of three gifted Palestinian poets in exile from Gaza Samah Sabawi Ramzy Baroud Jehan Bseiso Although Samah Ramzy and Jehan have distinctive styles they possess in common incisive intellects finely tuned by a sense of justice inherent in the Palestinian experience and in their love for Palestine particularly besieged and suffering Gaza While their roots are in Gaza their life journeys typical of Palestinian refugees are painfully scattered across the world London artist David Borrington delivers a powerful visual accompaniment to nine of the poems and cover

Refuge and Resistance Anne Irfan, 2023-07-18 Shortlisted 2024 Academic Book Award Palestine Book Awards In the decades after World War II the United Nations established a global refugee regime that became central to the lives of displaced people around the world This regime has exerted particular authority over Palestinian refugees who are served by a specialized UN body the Relief and Works Agency UNRWA Formed shortly after the 1948 war UNRWA continues to provide quasi state services such as education and health care to Palestinian refugee communities in the Middle East today This book is a groundbreaking international history of Palestinian refugee politics Anne Irfan traces the history and politics of UNRWA s interactions with Palestinian communities particularly in the refugee camps where it functioned as a surrogate state She shows how Palestinian refugees invoked internationalist norms to demand their political rights while resisting the UN s categorization of their plight as an apolitical humanitarian issue Refuge and Resistance foregrounds how nonelite activism shaped the Palestinian campaign for international recognition showing that engagement with world politics was driven as much by the refugee grass roots as by the upper echelons of the Palestine Liberation Organization It demonstrates that refugee groups are important actors in global politics not simply aid recipients Recasting modern Palestinian history through the lens of refugee camps and communities Refuge and Resistance offers vital new perspectives for understanding politics beyond the nation state Come My Children Hekmat Al-Taweel,2023-08-18 Hekmat Al Taweel 1922 2008 was a native Palestinian Christian from Gaza City whose narrative unearths a version of history long excluded from mainstream discourse and provides an unfamiliar perspective on Muslim Christian relationships Her stories about life in Gaza highlight shared history vibrant culture and cherished traditions Al Taweel continued her education after marriage sought community volunteer work worked as a teacher and supervisor and committed to activism throughout her life all of which contradicts widespread Western orientalized stereotypes of Arab women She also shares insights into life in Gaza during the British Mandate period as well as the 1948 Nakba and its aftermath This is the third book in the Women s Voices from Gaza Series which honours women s unique and underrepresented perspectives on the social material and political realities of Palestinian life Foreword by Ilan Pappé A White Lie Madeeha Hafez Albatta,2020-10-19 This first narrative in the Women s Voices from Gaza Series turns the clock back more than ninety years and invites readers on a journey of reimagining a once upon a time in Palestine Madeeha Hafez Albatta s story recounts a life of happiness uncertainty loss and also ultimately of pride resistance and hope Weaving together many narrative threads A White Lie unearths a version of history long excluded from mainstream discourse illuminating a vibrant culture rich community relations old traditions and grand resistance Madeeha was born and raised in Khan Younis a town in the southern part of the Gaza Strip and her life took her along with her family across mandatory Palestine to Egypt Jordan Syria Lebanon Tunis the United States Germany Greece Austria and Canada In 1938 Madeeha had to resort to tricking her family into allowing her to attend college That white lie changed her life forever She became a teacher while still in her teens and then the principal of a school while in her early twenties As a teacher and headmistress a campaigner for rights an activist and community organizer a mother and a champion of dignity Madeeha witnessed some of the most turbulent periods of Palestine s recent history Her narrative preserves minute details of distinctly Palestinian individual and collective life through different eras and regimes It depicts a vibrant culture old traditions customs and other critical features of Palestinian society that readers rarely encounter The Women s Voices from Gaza Series honours women s unique and underrepresented perspectives on the social material and political realities of Palestinian life Foreword by Salman Abu Sitta Apartheid in Palestine Ghada Ageel, 2016-01-18 Of all the crimes to which Palestinians have been subjected through a century of bitter tragedy perhaps none are more cruel than the silencing of their voices The suffering has been most extreme criminal and grotesque in Gaza where Ghada Ageel was one of the victims from childhood This collection of essays is a poignant cry for justice far too long delayed Noam Chomsky There are more than two sides to the conflict between Palestine and Israel There are millions Millions of lives voices and stories behind the enduring struggle in Israel and Palestine Yet the easy binary of Palestine vs Israel on which the media so often relies for context effectively silences the lived experiences of people affected by the strife Ghada Ageel sought leading experts Palestinian and Israeli academic and activist to gather stories that humanize the historic processes of occupation displacement colonization and most controversially apartheid Historians scholars and students of colonialism and Israel Palestine studies and anyone interested in more nuanced debate will want to read this book Foreword by Richard Falk Contributors Yasmeen Abu Laban Ghada Ageel Huwaida Arraf Abigail B Bakan Ramzy Baroud Samar El Bekai James Cairns Edward C Corrigan Susan Ferguson Keith Hammond Rela Mazali Sherene Razack Tali Shapiro Reem Skeik Rafeef Ziadah Stranger in My Own Land Fida Jiryis, 2022-09-28 After the 1993 Oslo Accords a handful of Palestinians were allowed to return to their hometowns in Israel Fida Jiryis and her family were among them This beautifully written memoir tells the story of their journey which is also the story of Palestine from the Nakba to the present a seventy five year tale of conflict exodus occupation return and search for belonging seen through the eyes of one writer and her family Jiryis reveals how her father Sabri a PLO leader and advisor to Yasser Arafat chose exile in 1970 because of his work Her own childhood in Beirut was shaped by regional tensions the Lebanese Civil War and the 1982 Israeli invasion which led to her mother s death Thirteen years later the family made an unexpected return to Fassouta their village of origin in the Galilee But Fida twenty two years old and full of love for her country had no idea what she was getting into Stranger in My Own Land chronicles a desperate at times surreal search for a homeland between the Galilee the West Bank and the diaspora asking difficult questions about what the right of return would mean for the millions of Palestinians waiting to come home

A Genocide Foretold Chris Hedges, 2025-04-08 With intimate and harrowing portraits of the human consequences of oppression occupation and violence experienced in Palestine today Pulitzer prize winning journalist Chris Hedges issues a call to action urging us to bear witness and engage with the ongoing humanitarian crisis Hedges wrote the first section of the book when he was in Ramallah in July 2024 and he draws from his experience doing extensive reporting from the Middle East including Gaza for the New York Times A Genocide Foretold confronts the stark realities of life under siege in Gaza and the heroic effort ordinary Palestinians are waging to resist and survive Weaving together personal stories historical context and unflinching journalism Chris Hedges provides an intimate portrait of systemic oppression occupation and violence The book includes chapters on What life is like in Gaza City and Ramallah in the midst of approaching bombs and gunfire The history of the dispossession of Palestinians of their land in relation to the ideology of Zionism A portrait of Amr a 17 year old highschool student who is forced to evacuate his village with his family Psychoanalysis of the state of permanent war that has led to the destruction of hospitals telecommunications centers governmental buildings roads homes universities schools and libraries and archaeological and heritage sites in Gaza The ways in which the collective retribution against innocents is a familiar tactic employed by colonial rulers A heartbreaking final chapter called Letter to the Children of Gaza Hedges the Pulitzer Prize winning former Middle East Bureau Chief for The New York Times is an Arabic speaker who spent seven years covering the conflict He wrote the first section of the book when he was in Ramallah in July 2024 A Pulitzer Prize winning journalist he is also the author of two bestselling books War is a Force that Gives us Meaning and The Greatest Evil is War In A Genocide Foretold he writes with an emotional depth that can only be achieved from spending many years on the ground in Gaza and the West Bank A Genocide Foretold is a call to action urging us to bear witness and engage with the ongoing humanitarian crisis

Our Vision For Liberation Ramzy Baroud,Ilan Pappé,2022-03-01 This is a fascinating great book ROGER WATERS founding member Pink Floyd These moving visions of a decolonized democratic and free Palestine will resonate wherever collective yearnings for freedom have survived Palestinian intellectuals activists and artists are a beacon both for the future of Palestine and the destiny of our globe ANGELA DAVIS Read this book and you will be strengthened and inspired It s a death knell to the Zionist fantasy and imperialist domination RONNIE KASSRILS South African anti apartheid icon Our Vision for Liberation Engaged Palestinian Leaders none bode well for any of the parties involved Here an alternative Palestinian view of liberation and decolonization is provided by engaged Palestinian leaders and intellectuals those who been actively involved in generating an ongoing Palestinian discourse on liberation taking into account the parameters of their struggle as it now stands Drawing on their own remarkable personal experiences and successes as archaeologists artists authors community leaders educators filmmakers historians human rights activists journalists lawyers spiritual leaders political prisoners and the like they address what now what next is to be done in a manner that reflects not only Palestinian aspirations but their view of what is possible Liberation is a term that was dropped from the official Palestinian lexicon simply because it was incompatible with the US championed political discourse but it has resurfaced here because without its justice dimensions there can be no peace Now that the international community is able to see that Oslo along with the two state solution model has irreversibly failed the paradigmatic void has opened space for the articulation of new possibilities Our Vision for Liberation embraces this opportunity to introduce a new Palestinian discourse one that is able to address current challenges and obstacles to Palestinian rights and freedom and provide diverse paths all leading forward

Struggle and Survival in Palestine/Israel Mark LeVine,Gershon Shafir,2012-09-01 Too often the study of Israel Palestine has focused on elite actors and major events Struggle and Survival in Palestine Israel takes advantage of new sources about everyday life and the texture of changes on the ground to put more than two dozen human faces on the past and present of the region With contributions from a leading cast of scholars across disciplines the stories here are drawn from a variety of sources from stories passed down through generations to family archives interviews and published memoirs As these personal narratives are transformed into social biographies they explore how the protagonists were embedded in but also empowered by their social and historical contexts This wide ranging and accessible volume brings a human dimension to a conflict ridden history emphasizing human agency introducing marginal voices alongside more well known ones defying typical definitions of Israelis and Palestinians and ultimately redefining how we understand both struggle and survival in a troubled region

Activestills Vered Maimon, Shiraz Grinbaum, 2016-10-20 In 2005 a group of photographers took a stand alongside the people of the small town of Bil'in and documented their fight to stop the Israeli government building the infamous West Bank Barrier Inspired by what they had seen in Bil'in the group went on to form Activestills a collective whose work has become vital in documenting the struggle against Israeli occupation and everyday life in extraordinary situations Activestills Photography as Protest in Palestine Israel examines the collective's archive and activity from historical theoretical critical and personal perspectives It is the result of an in depth dialogue among members of the collective and activists journalists intellectuals and academics and stands as the definitive study of the collective's work Combining striking full colour photographs with essays and commentary Activestills stands as both a major contribution to reportage on Israel Palestine and a unique collection of visual art

Lifeworlds of Islam Mohammed A. Bamyeh, 2019 Lifeworlds of Islam shows that Islam has typically operated not in the form of standard dogmas but more often as a compass for practical individual orientations or lifeworlds Mohammed A Bamyeh develops a sociology of Islam that maps out how Muslims have employed the faith to foster global networks public philosophies and engaged civic lives both historically and in the present

The Plight of the Palestinians W.
