is too late      The Wall Between Women Beth Brykman,2012-04-03 Women today struggle to make difficult choices involving their children and their careers so why do they simultaneously criticize and point fingers at one another Beth Brykman taps her personal experience as well as her professional marketing skills in crafting this well researched look at the life transforming issue that American mothers face Having been both a full time employed mother and a stay at home mom Brykman interviewed more than one hundred mothers She lets these women speak for themselves about the reality of their lives their views of the other mother and how they balance the pros and cons of motherhood Separate chapters examine the factors that create the wall between women stereotypes of mothers on both sides of the wall the lives and attitudes of full time employed mothers versus mothers who choose to stay at home working part time the reality of daycare how different women determined what was right for them and their families coparenting and suggestions for modifying marriages and letting go of the emotional baggage of success and guilt including suggestions for broad cultural change An appendix details her research methods including questions she posed to each mother and a useful bibliography that points readers to other resources Filled with revealing quotations and stories from mothers themselves this insightful discussion of contemporary motherhood reveals the many challenges facing women and offers creative solutions for overcoming those challenges      All About My Two Dads Roji, Meet Nao and Ai a couple that has been dating since their university days The legalization of same sex marriage spurs them into taking the next step and formalizing their union along with adopting Hiro a newborn baby boy See how these two polar opposites handle sleepless nights sending Hiro off to his first day of preschool and managing relationships with other parents They may even find that being a parent to Hiro teaches them more about themselves than they could have ever imagined      Butt Blast Susan Berran,2021-10-01 How can my butt smell when it doesn't have a nose This gross question and more are answered in this hilarious book all about disgusting body happenings This book of short stories features wacky icky stories that will make kids enjoy reading gag a little and laugh a lot Butt Blast combines seriously silly language with icky illustrations to create a cringe worthy reading experience that kids will love      Daddy Muscles Dylan Stafford,2010-12 Daddy Muscles is a first time father's story of finding the love of his life getting married struggling with fertility blessedly getting pregnant and finally experiencing the new parent transitions of Year One This is Dylan's first book He is learning to be a dad and husband one day at a time He holds a BA from Texas A M University and an MBA from the University of Chicago He works as an admissions director at the UCLA Anderson School of Management and lives in Los Angeles with his wife Marisa and their son Jack      Living In the Land of the Uprights Kathaleen Sorensen,2024-07-23 I strive to create an example of all that I can be so that others in my situation can see disability for what it is Disability does not separate me from anyone All people are disabled and only some are temporarily enabled Everyone will age Everyone will need a little help If people understand this then all are equal Thomas Thomas is a brilliant student an advocate for people with special needs and a loving son and brother He has a rare form of muscular dystrophy that over a short time leaves him completely physically helpless He cannot roll over swat away flies or feed himself and he requires 24 7 care But despite his daily challenges Thomas never lets his disability get in the way Always quick with a joke he s eternally optimistic finds the positive in any situation and looks out for those around him trying to make their day better In Living in the Land of the Uprights Thomas s mother Kathy recounts Thomas s journey as their family faces uphill battles navigating doctor s appointments visits to emergency rooms advocating for funding and fighting for equal rights for Thomas A close knit family they celebrate successes and support each other through heartbreak In his time on earth Thomas faces the world on his terms and vows everyone he encounters never taking no for an answer and lobbying to move across the country to follow his dream He and his family have no idea of the powerful impact he will have and how he will change so many lives When you read this book not only will you feel the pure blissful passion of Thomas s life story but you will also learn how to leave a legacy that will live forever as Thomas has done through kindness perseverance and humour Cases in Field Epidemiology Dr. Mark S. Dworkin,2010-09-17 This collection of case studies some never before published uncover the details of actual disease outbreaks from within the United States and around the world At the conclusion of each chapter the investigator reviews the methods and processes that were employed to execute the investigation Ideal as a complement to any text on infectious disease epidemiology these case studies will bring to life the classic functions of field epidemiology and the application of epidemiological methods to unexpected health problems that require fast on site investigation and timely intervention The cases cover investigations in infectious and non infectious disease outbreaks as well as environmental health related disease outbreaks 2011 484 pages The Unbroken Steve Serbic,2021-04-07 When a series of traumatic calls on the job as a firefighter leaves Steve shaken and unable to recover he reluctantly at first seeks out clinical counselling His one rule I won t talk about my childhood closes the door on several therapists until he meets one who is willing to respect his wishes providing he explores his childhood on his own When Steve begins to reflect on his past he also begins to write it all down The good and the terrible Those written words are here Growing up in a fractured family rocked by addiction and trauma Steve had to learn how to understand life and death on his own As a self described street rat on Boundary Road in East Vancouver Steve caused trouble when it wasn t already following him around Struggling in school at home and in countless fights he navigated his way through adolescence with the help of his father and pursued his dream of becoming a firefighter While realizing that dream he is forced to confront the demons of his past and the reality of post traumatic stress injury Through clinical counselling he is able to release his past and find the power of self acceptance and vulnerability The Unbroken is the memoir of one firefighter his family trauma and resilience Most importantly it is a story that teaches all of us no matter our situation that life is school and the subject is ourself our life habits thoughts and our reactions to them And that sometimes it is okay to not be okay Teacher Confidential Valerie Hill-Jackson,2018-02-22 All humans encounter challenges in life teachers are no different Sometimes these trials knock the wind right out of us and cause us to fall into despair Occasionally these setbacks if educators pay attention can offer new insights into ways to rebound from stressful life events Teacher Confidential Personal Stories of Stress Self Care and Resilience tells the stories of seven educators who have fallen but have learned critical life lessons They share these messages in this compilation of nonfiction essays in the voices of PreK 16 educators It relates the personal experiences of teachers and their steps toward healing and self care The educators embrace vulnerability and share on topics such as the death of a spouse workplace bullying the failed induction of a first year passionate teacher domestic abuse that ends in divorce job dissatisfaction that transforms to joy finding gratitude for teaching in the face of a cancer diagnosis the road to weight loss and healthy living and coming out as a gay educator Authentic courageous and cathartic these accounts of humanity and strength encourage other teachers to reflect more deeply on their own lives outside of the classroom Teacher Confidential Personal Stories of Stress Self Care and Resilience offers a clearer understanding of what happens to teachers after the school bell rings and it underscores teachers ability to become resilient and remain in the profession to better serve learners

The Truth About Me Rachelle Rose,2012-07-28 Being raised as a Jehovah s Witness Rachelle grew up in a fearfilled world of lies In her early teens she ran away from this life and spent three years living on the streets As a young vulnerable girl on the streets of Minnesota she became tangled in the web of a teenage prostitution ring which led her to the dangerous streets of New York Through all of this Rachelle suffered with severe pain from an undiagnosed brain disorder Chiari Malformation Fighting for a diagnosis and treatment for this supposedly rare brain disorder is her main battle As with many disorders Rachelle was faced with a medical wall of disbelief Although the traumas in her life are vast Rachelle discovers an amazing truth about herself and finds the inner strength and wisdom she needs to overcome life s difficulties Forrmrly published in 2000 under the title The Angel Within Me Rachelle has rewritten her story adding information she previously was not ready to reveal

Power Moves Rev. Dr. Antonio M. Settles,2023-02-09 Power moves in the worldin homes and in the church When there is unhealthy power and control in the church and a lack of accountability in the leadership structure it leads to conflict Conflict leads to division and division leads to decline Power Moves offers a guide to help church leadership to recognize unhealthy control its sources and its effects on the congregation It is a valuable resource for gaining direction accountability and self awareness in pastors and laity

Faith for the Times: From the Shadows into the Marvelous Light Faith for the Times: From the Shadows into the Marvelous Light, 2023-05-13 Our nation is currently in a unique and perilous time of division which includes our communities of faith Unique in the sense that issues of faith are being used by many secular and sacred sources to exploit the divide of our nation further and perilous because if left unchecked our nation could move to civil war Faith for the Times first describes the political social and civil issues facilitating the division in our nation s faith communities Following those descriptions are discussions of methods to heal those divides supported by anecdotes and experiences from over thirty years of ministry in various communities of faith in the Washington D C area Divisions in our nation exist in several ways but in this writing they are generalized into the three areas of political social and civil What is most alarming about our times is that these divisions combine with the many existing divisions in the communities of faith in our nation There have always been divisions between types of faith and there have been many conflicts between them throughout history But it seems that since the turn of the century beginning with the September 11 2001 attacks on New York City that conflicts among some of the major faiths such as Christianity Judaism and Islam have escalated What s more with the accelerated political polarization of the Evangelical Christian community divides between denominations of the Evangelical church have grown In the first part of this writing the author describes the dividing of our nation and the role faith has played in that division This is done by borrowing a technique used by David in the writing of his Psalms using the term shadows The author applies that term as the shadows of faith as an illustration how our faith influences our political social and civil expressions of living The intent with Part 1 of this writing is to expose the complexity of the divide in our nation and how faith interacts with that divide In Part 2 the author addresses how to close the divide by faith There is no pretense in this writing to suggest a nation as big and diverse as ours could be united with this one writing But there is a confidence portrayed in the text concerning what God has done in the author s faith journey that allows the writing of these words and ideas as something to ponder and perhaps light a spark to begin the healing process required of our nation The reader is invited to embrace what may be a new conversation of faith A faith that focuses more on what we have in common with other people of faith than what divides us That passion has been birthed in the author because of a faith journey not of his choosing but by his experience Being raised Catholic the author converted to Protestant as a young adult Moving through several denominations by experiences of faith the result has been a faith and a passion to impact people for God not for a particular denomination The reader is invited to join this celebration of faith with the author
