Librarians will also find this a great tool for icebreaker activities in staff development settings. Titles covered range from award winners to fairy tales to classics.

Listen Here Sandra L. Ballard, Patricia L. Hudson, 2013-07-24 A comprehensive and unsurpassed anthology of women writers from Appalachia. Exceptional in diversity and scope. Southern Historian. Listen Here Women Writing in Appalachia is a landmark anthology that brings together the work of 105 Appalachian women writers including Dorothy Allison, Harriette Simpson Arnow, Annie Dillard, Nikki Giovanni, Denise Giardina, Barbara Kingsolver, Jayne Anne Phillips, Janice Holt Giles, George Ella Lyon, Sharyn McCrumb, and Lee Smith. Editors Sandra L. Ballard and Patricia L. Hudson offer a diverse sampling of time periods and genres, established authors and emerging voices. From regional favorites to national bestsellers, this unprecedented gathering of Appalachian voices displays the remarkable talent of the region's women writers who've made their mark at home and across the globe. A giant step forward in Appalachian studies for both students and scholars of the region and the general reader. Nothing less than a groundbreaking and landmark addition to the national treasury of American literature.

Bloomsbury Review A remarkable accomplishment bringing together the work of 105 female Appalachian writers saying what they want to and saying it in impressive bodies of literature.

Lexington Herald Leader One of the keenest pleasures in Listen Here lies in its diversity of voices and genres.

Material Culture Besides introducing readers to many new voices, the anthology provides a strong counterpart to the stereotype of hillbillies that have cursed the region.

Atlanta Journal Constitution Full of welcome surprises to those new to this regional literature, specifically it includes particularly strong selections from children's fiction and a substantial number of African American writers.

Choice Hidden History of the Toe River Valley Michael C. Hardy, 2023 The Toe River winds its way past the peaks of Mount Mitchell, carving the valley that bears its name. Mineral mines go back to the earliest days of Yancey County and encouraged industrialists to come to the region. Mitchell County's Bakersville experienced violent unrest in 1892 with a riot and lynching, but did they actually happen? The section of the Blue Ridge Parkway that runs through Avery County was left incomplete for years because of a property dispute with the owner of Grandfather Mountain. Take a journey along forgotten rail lines and discover abandoned communities and sites whose histories have shaped this valley's story just as the river has shaped its landscape.

North Carolina historian and author Michael C. Hardy explores the hidden historical gems of the region.

Literacy Moments Jacqueline Witter-Easley, 2019-06-05 In the course of any given day in an early elementary classroom, a variety of situations present themselves through which a thoughtful teacher could develop teachable moments. This book provides teachers with the tools to consider those teachable opportunities as literacy moments: brief, authentic, joyful encounters with texts in all forms Here teachers learn to nurture joyful readers by infusing their classrooms daily lives with authentic literacy moments every day The book is organized into three sections each section containing three chapters The first section s chapters focus on creating a literacy moments learning environment addressing both the affective and physical domains as well as the need for teachers to undergo a mindset shift in cultivating their personal reading habits The second section s chapters emphasize literacy moments for the foundational skills of word recognition and vocabulary development Here readers explore the integration of popular culture and the arts into their physical domain as well as methods for creating and effectively using a print rich environment The last section s chapters target literacy moments for developing critical thinking through comprehension processes The chapters focus on intentionally incorporating literacy moments in each stage of the reading process pre reading during reading and post reading book focused way to start the day Bulletin of the Center for Children's Books Books Children Love (Revised Edition) Elizabeth Laraway Wilson, 2002-10-30 A love for reading is one of the most precious gifts that we can give children. It nurtures their imagination and creativity, lets them explore other worlds and opens their minds to new truths and knowledge in appealing, inspiring ways. But how can we sort through thousands of children's books to discover the really worthwhile ones? Elizabeth Wilson offers us a newly revised, comprehensive guide to the very best in children's literature. Just as in the original volume, she comments on the tone and content of excellently written, captivating books in over two dozen subject areas. Hundreds of new titles have been added while retaining timeless classics and modern favorites, all of which respect traditional values. So that no matter what the children's ages are or whether they love fact or fiction, you can trust these books to share things that you can believe in and kids will delight in. A to Zoo Rebecca L. Thomas, 2018-06-21 Whether used for thematic story times, program and curriculum planning, readers advisory, or collection development, this updated edition of the well-known companion makes finding the right picture books for your library a breeze. Generations of savvy librarians and educators have relied on this detailed subject guide to children's picture books for all aspects of children's services, and this new edition does not disappoint. Covering more than 18,000 books published through 2017, it empowers users to identify current and classic titles on topics ranging from apples to zebras. Organized simply with a subject guide that categorizes subjects by theme and topic and subject headings arranged alphabetically, this reference applies more than 1,200 intuitive, as opposed to formal catalog subject terms, to children's picture books, making it both a comprehensive and user-friendly resource that is accessible to parents and teachers as well as librarians. It can be used to identify titles to fill in gaps in library collections, to find books on particular topics for young readers, to help teachers locate titles to support lessons or to design thematic programs and story times. Title and illustrator indexes, in addition to a bibliographic guide arranged alphabetically by author name, further extend access to titles. Mentor Texts Rose Cappelli, 2023-10-10 In their first edition of Mentor Texts, authors Lynne Dorfman and Rose Cappelli helped teachers across the country make the most of high-quality children's literature in their writing instruction. Mentor Texts: Teaching Writing Through Children's Literature, K-6, 2nd Edition, the authors continue to show teachers how to help students become confident, accomplished writers by using literature as their foundation. The second edition includes brand-new Your Turn Lessons built around the gradual release of responsibility model, offering suggestions for demonstrations and shared or guided writing. Reflection is emphasized as a necessary component to understanding why mentor authors chose certain strategies, literary devices, sentence structures, and words. Dorfman and Cappelli offer new children's book titles in each chapter and, in a carefully curated and annotated Treasure Chest. At the end of each chapter, a Think About It, Talk About It, Write About It section invites reflection and conversation with colleagues. The book is organized around the characteristics of good writing: focus, content, organization, style, and conventions. The authors write in a friendly and conversational style, employing numerous anecdotes to help teachers visualize the process and offer strategies that can be immediately implemented in the classroom This practical resource demonstrates the power of learning to read like writers Keep the Rest of the Class Reading and Writing Susan Finney,2000 Contains sixty reproducible activities teachers may use to teach reading and writing skills to students in grades three through six many with links to novels and nonfiction books Joy of Reading Debbie Duncan,1998 Author shares her family s personal reading success stories and Identifies their favorite books for each age category Extensive reading lists by titles and authors over 600 children s books referenced
