Crime David Platten, 2011-12 For 150 years the French public and literati have enjoyed a love affair with crime fiction This book investigates the nature of this relationship and how through periods of dramatic social and political change in France it has flourished It challenges the conventional view of a popular genre feeding a niche market depicting crime fiction instead as a field of creative endeavour which has gradually matured into one of considerable literary fertility By inviting us to share secrets and crack codes creating suspense and at times not shirking from presenting horrific events in graphic language the crime story brings into play the intellect and emotions of its readership This book explores both this intrinsic literary value of the crime novel and its extrinsic witness to historical events and cultural trends arguing that these apparently distinct aspects are in fact dynamic interrelated parts of the same whole This blend of cultural history with literary analysis allows for the discussion of themes such as politics memory the urban environment and youth cultures mixed with case studies of major French crime writers including Gaston Leroux Georges Simenon Jean Patrick Manchette Daniel Pennac and Fred Vargas

Pathos, poetry and politics in Michel Houellebecq's fiction Russell Williams, 2020-02-03 In Pathos Poetry and Politics in Michel Houellebecq's fiction Russell Williams examines the literary style of France's most notorious novelist Houellebecq is frequently the focus of debate for his provocative comments about Islam and the decline of Western civilisation This book refocuses attention on how such provocation is an integral part of the texture of his novels Williams considers Houellebecq's writing about literature and outlines the key principles of the author's poetics founded on an acute sensitivity to reading experience He then explores Houellebecq's earliest poetry before mapping this poetic voice into his subsequent fiction including S rotonine 2019 Houellebecq's relationship with genre fiction and the crucial issue of the authorial persona that exists in and around his texts are also explored Tales from the Cuban Empire Antonio José

Ponte,2002-09 Witty ironic stories from the heart of the Empire a very unexpected Cuban empire In the Heart of the Heart of Another Country Etel Adnan,2005-09 A mosaic of lyrical vignettes at once deeply personal and political set against the turbulent backdrop of Arab Western relations Adnan writes Contrary to what is usually believed it is not general ideas and grandiose unfolding of great events that impress the mind during times of heightened historic upheavals but rather the uninterrupted flow of little experiences observations disturbances small ecstasies or barely perceptible discouragements that make up day to day living Etel Adnan a Lebanese American poet painter and essayist lives in Paris Beirut and the San Francisco Bay Area Among her books the novel Sitt Marie Rose is considered a classic of Middle Eastern literature She has been a powerful voice for compassion and empowerment in feminist and antiwar movements Leftovers Ruth Cruickshank,2020-01-31 The intrinsic ambivalence of eating and drinking often goes unrecognised In Leftovers Cruickshank s new theoretical approach reveals how representations of food drink and their consumption proliferate with overlooked figurative psychological ideological and historical interpretative potential Case studies of novels by Robbe Grillet Ernaux Darrieussecq and Houellebecq demonstrate the transferrable potential of re thinking eating and drinking Affect and Belonging in Contemporary Spanish Fiction and Film Jesse Barker,2017-08-24 This book brings together recent Spanish fictions and films that point to individualism as the root problem driving diverse circumstances of social economic and psychological suffering in the present and recent past The works privilege sensation movement and emotion rather than identity as the core elements of existential experience However the works also problematize notions of intersubjectivity confronting ideals of affective immersion and cultural nomadism with the concrete contexts that shape particular lives and social formations This confrontation underlies a series of crossroads or productive engagements that guide the book s five main chapters locally rooted identity and global cultural circuits historical contexts and universal modes of being personal authenticity and consumer culture migration and cultural identity Spain s historical underdevelopment and impending future crises All of these issues make affective connection and attachment the greatest existential challenge facing individuals and collectives in the contemporary world both in Spain and elsewhere The N'Gustro Affair Jean-Patrick Manchette,2021-09-21 The debut novel of a pioneering author of French crime thrillers Mean arrogant naive sadistic on occasion the young Henri Butron records his life story on tape just before death catches up with him a death passed off as a suicide by his killers French secret service agents who need to hush up their role and Butron s in the kidnapping torture and murder of a prominent opposition leader from a third world African nation in the throes of a postcolonial civil war The N Gustro Affair is a thinly veiled retelling of the 1965 abduction and killing of Mehdi Ben Barka a radical opponent of King Hassan II of Morocco But this is merely the backdrop to Jean Patrick Manchette s first person portrait with shades of Jim Thompson s The Killer Inside Me of a man who lacks the insight to see himself for what he is a wannabe nihilist too weak to be even a full bore fascist Fatale Jean-Patrick Manchette,2011-12-07 A New York Review Books Original Whether you call her a coldhearted grifter or the soul of modern capitalism there's no question that Aimée is a killer and a more than professional one. Now she's set her eyes on a backwater burg where while posing as an innocent albeit drop dead gorgeous newcomer to town she means to sniff out old grudges and engineer new opportunities deftly playing different people and different interests against each other the better as always to make a killing. But then something snaps the master manipulator falls prey to a pure and wayward passion. Aimée has become the avenging angel of her own nihilism exacting the destruction of a whole society of destroyers. An unholy original Jean-Patrick Manchette transformed the modern detective novel into a weapon of gleeful satire and anarchic fun. In Fatale he mixes equal measures of farce, mayhem and madness to prepare a rare literary cocktail that packs a devastating punch.

The Mad and the Bad Jean-Patrick Manchette, 2014-07-15. An NYRB Classics Original. Winner of the French American Foundation Translation Prize for Fiction. Michel Hartog, a sometime architect, is a powerful businessman and famous philanthropist whose immense fortune has just grown that much greater following the death of his brother in an accident. Peter is his orphaned nephew, a spoiled brat. Julie is in an insane asylum. Thompson is a hired gunman with a serious ulcer. Michel hires Julie to look after Peter. And he hires Thompson to kill them. Julie and Peter escape. Thompson pursues. Bullets fly. Bodies accumulate. The craziness is just getting started. Like Jean-Patrick Manchette's celebrated Fatale, The Mad and the Bad is a clear-eyed, cold-blooded, pitch-perfect work of creative destruction.

Euro Horror Ian Olney, 2013-02-07. Beginning in the 1950s Euro Horror movies materialized in astonishing numbers from Italy, Spain and France and popped up in the US at rural drive-ins and urban grindhouse theaters such as those that once dotted New York's Times Square. Grier sexier and stranger than most American horror films of the time, they were embraced by hardcore fans and denounced by critics as the worst kind of cinematic trash. In this volume Olney explores some of the most popular genres of Euro Horror cinema including giallo films named for the yellow covers of Italian pulp fiction, the S-M horror film and cannibal and zombie films and develops a theory that explains their renewed appeal to audiences today.

The History of French Literature on Film Kate Griffiths, Andrew Watts, 2020-12-24. French novels, plays, poems and short stories, however temporally or culturally distant from us, continue to be incarnated and reincarnated on cinema screens across the world. From the silent films of Georges Méliès to the Hollywood production of Gustave Flaubert's Madame Bovary directed by Sophie Barthes, The History of French Literature on Film explores the key films, directors and movements that have shaped the adaptation of works by French authors since the end of the 19th century. Across six chapters, Griffiths and Watts examine the factors that have driven this vibrant adaptive industry as filmmakers have turned to literature in search of commercial profits, cultural legitimacy and stories rich in dramatic potential. The volume also explains how the work of theorists from a variety of disciplines—literary theory, translation theory, adaptation theory—can help to deepen both our understanding and our appreciation of literary adaptation as a creative practice. Finally, this volume seeks to make clear that adaptation is never a simple transcription of an earlier literary work. It is always simultaneously an adaptation of the society and era for which it is created Adaptations of French literature are thus not only valuable artistic artefacts in their own right so too are they important historical documents which testify to the values and tastes of their own time

Culture, Experience, Care: Re-Centring the Patient Eric Sandberg, Maren Scheurer, 2019-01-04 This volume was first published by Inter Disciplinary Press in 2014 Susan Sontag claimed that everyone who is born holds dual citizenship in the kingdom of the well and the kingdom of the sick and while we all prefer to use only the good passport sooner or later each of us is obliged at least for a spell to identify ourselves as citizens of that other place We are all in other words past present or future patients This collection examines the many ways in which the idea of the patient can be conceptualized in different cultural professional intellectual and emotional contexts as part of an on going multidisciplinary and international attempt by scholars health care professionals and indeed patients themselves to rethink and re examine patienthood and patient care These chapters attempt to put the patient at the centre not just although clearly not least at the centre of the processes institutions and ideologies of medical care but of a wide range of intellectual and social practices

The Roman Noir in Post-war French Culture Claire Gorrara, 2003 The Roman Noir in Post War French Culture offers a lively introduction to the post war French roman noir from a cultural studies perspective A populist and widely disseminated genre the French roman noir has suffered from a reputation as a minor genre with its roots in American popular culture In this study Claire Gorrara challenges such preconceptions and examines how selected writers have appropriated the roman noir as a critical response to formative concerns and debates in post war

French society Starting with the first truly French roman noir L o Malet s 120 rue de la gare 1943 and concluding with Maud Tabachnik s feminist thriller Un t pourri 1994 Gorrara analyses both texts and film in relation to their specific historical and cultural context From the heritage of the Second World War and France s wars of decolonisation to the rise of consumer culture and questions of gender and sexual equality the roman noir operates in dialogue with its times mediating social change and transformation with stories of crime transgression and marginality All the novelists studied were published initially in popular collections such as the S rie noire but they have been chosen for the innovation of their work and the exciting ways in which they resist tired conventions and offer new ways of representing social reality One of the first English language studies of this popular genre The Roman Noir in Post War French Culture offers much more than close readings of these fascinating texts it demonstrates the important contribution of the roman noir to the cultural histories of post war France

The Body Onscreen in the Digital Age Susan Flynn,2021-02-26 This collection examines the peculiarly modern phenomenon of voyeurism as it is experienced through the digital screen Violence voyeurism and power populate film more than ever and the centrality of the terrified body to many digital narratives suggests new forms of terror and angst where bodies are subjected to an endless knowing look The particular perils of the digital age can be seen on by and through screen bodies as they are made remade represented and used The essays in this book examine the machinations of voyeurism in the digital age and the realization of power through digital visual forms They look at the uses of power over the female body at the domination and repression of women through symbolic violence at discourses of power as they are played out onscreen and at how the digital realm might engage the active passive dichotomy in new ways
