Mystique Politique Charles P Guy:

French VII Bibliography, 1999 Radicalism and the Revolt Against Reason (Routledge Revivals) Irving Louis Horowitz, 2009-09-10 Radicalism and the Revolt Against Reason is a work that continues to have a steady and large scale impact on political and social theory fifty years since its first appearance A study of how radical thought modifies its actions and ideologies in a time of unrealized and frustrated expectations the focus is on Georges Sorel and the Europe of the fin de siècle a time when socialist revolution was forcefully set aside by liberal reform In a technique that presaged contemporary period radical demands did not simply dissolve or disappear they profoundly changed emphasis from the impersonal forces of history to highly personal forces of individual will This edition includes a substantial brand new introduction by the author

Children of God Edmund Newey, 2016-05-23 Children of God uncovers the significant but largely unnoticed place of the child as a prototype of human flourishing in the work of four authors spanning the modern period Shedding new light on the role of the child figure in modernity and in theological responses to it the book makes an important contribution to the disciplines of historical theology theology and literature and ecumenical theology Through a careful exploration of the continuities and differences in the work of Thomas Traherne Jean Jacques Rousseau Friedrich Schleiermacher and Charles P Guy it traces the ways in which their distinctive responses to human childhood structured the broader pattern of their theology showing how they reached beyond the confines of academic theology and exercised a lasting influence on their literary and cultural context

The King's Two Bodies Ernst Kantorowicz, 2016-05-10 Originally published in 1957 this classic work has guided generations of scholars through the arcane mysteries of medieval political theology Throughout history the notion of two bodies has permitted the postmortem continuity of monarch and monarchy as epitomized by the statement The king is dead Long live the king In The King's Two Bodies Ernst Kantorowicz traces the historical dilemma posed by the King's two bodies the body natural and the body politic back to the Middle Ages The king's natural body has physical attributes suffers and dies as do all humans however the king's spiritual body transcends the earth and serves as a symbol of his office as majesty with the divine right to rule Bringing together liturgical works images and polemical material Kantorowicz demonstrates how early modern Western monarchies gradually began to develop a political theology Featuring a new introduction and preface The King's Two Bodies is a subtle history of how commonwealths developed symbolic means for establishing their sovereignty and with such means began to establish early forms of the nation state The Challenge of Progress Harry F. Dahms, 2019-11-26 Globalization has accelerated the process of social political cultural and especially economic transformations since the 1990s Examining the choices of modern society Dahms and contributors ask what are the social costs of progress Twentieth-Century Ireland (New Gill History of Ireland 6) Dermot Keogh, 2005-09-27 Professor Dermot Keogh's Twentieth Century Ireland the sixth and final book in the New Gill History of Ireland series is a wide ranging informative and hugely engaging study of the long twentieth century surveying politics administrative history social and religious history culture and censorship politics literature and art It focuses on the consolidation of the new Irish state over the course of the twentieth century Professor Keogh highlights the long tragedy of emigration its effect on the Irish psyche and on the under performance of the Irish economy He emphasises the lost opportunities for reform of the 1960s and early 70s Membership of the EU had a diminished impact due to short term and sectionally motivated political thinking and an antiquated government structure Professor Keogh looks at how the despair of the 1950s revisited the country in the 1980s as almost an entire generation felt compelled to emigrate very often as undocumented workers in the United States Professor Keogh also argues that the violence in Northern Ireland from the late 1960s was an Anglo Irish failure which was turned around only when Britain acknowledged the role of the Irish government in its resolution He extends his analysis of the twentieth century to include a wide ranging survey of the most contentious events financial corruption child sexual abuse scandals in the Catholic Church between 1994 and 2005 Twentieth Century Ireland Table of Contents A War without Victors Cumann na nGaedheal and the Conservative Revolution De Valera and Fianna Fáil in Power 1932 1939 In the Time of War Neutral Ireland 1939 1945 Seán MacBride and the Rise of Clann na Poblachta The Inter Party Government 1948 1951 The Politics of Drift 1951 1959 Seán Lemass and the Rising Tide of the 1960s The Shifting Balance of Power Jack Lynch and Liam Cosgrave 1966 1977 Charles Haughey and the Poverty of Populism Ireland in the New Century Catholicisme et

Women's Studies of the Christian and Islamic Traditions Kari Elisabeth Børresen, K. Vogt, 2012-12-06 In this collection of articles Kari Elisabeth Børresen and Kari Vogt point out the convergence of androcentric gender models in the Christian and Islamic traditions They provide extensive surveys of recent research in women's studies with bio-socio-cultural genderedness as their main analytical category Matristic writers from late Antiquity the Middle Ages and the Renaissance are analysed in terms of a female God language reshaping traditional theology The persisting androcentrism of 20th century Christianity and Islam as displayed in institutional documents promoting women's specific functions is critically exposed This volume presents a pioneering investigation of correlated Christian and Islamic gender models which has hitherto remained unexplored by women's studies in religion This work will serve scholars and students in the humanistic disciplines of theology religious studies Islamic studies history of ideas Medieval philosophy and women's history Mercure de France, 1911
