Health Care Quality United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Labor and Human Resources,1998 100 Cases in Clinical Ethics and Law Carolyn Johnston, Penelope Bradbury, 2008-04-25 A 70 year old woman bed bound following a stroke has developed bronchopneumonia but her daughter produces an advance directive that she says her mother has written which states that no life sustaining treatment is to be given How are you going to proceed A practical guide on how to approach the legal and ethical dilemmas that frequently occur in hospital wards and medicine in the community 100 Cases in Clinical Ethics and Law explores typical dilemmas through the use of 100 common medical scenarios The book covers issues such as consent capacity withdrawal of treatment and confidentiality as well as less frequently examined problems like student involvement in internal examinations whistle blowing and the role of medical indemnity providers in complaints Each scenario has a practical problem solving element to it and encourages readers to explore their own beliefs and values including those that arise as a result of differing cultural and religious backgrounds Answer pages highlight key points in each case and provide advice on how to deal with the emotive issues that occur when practising medicine at the same time providing information and guidance on appropriate behaviour Feeding Back? Learning from Complaints Handling in Health and Social Care Great Britain. National Audit Office, 2008 There are currently two separate statutory processes for handling complaints about health and social care services NHS organisations are accountable to the Department of Health and social care services are accountable through their local authority whilst adult social care rests with the Department There are differences in the numbers of stages and timescales involved and in the arrangements for advocacy support and independent investigation The Health Service Ombudsman is responsible for the ultimate review and decision on NHS complaints and the Local Government Ombudsman for social care complaints The NAO in this report HCP 853 session 2007 08 has undertaken an evaluation of existing performance capability capacity and costs of complaints handling in both health and adult social care The NAO has set out a number of findings and recommendations including that where people are dissatisfied there is a low number who make formal complaints that navigating the complaints systems is not straightforward particularly for health service users only a small proportion of NHS complainants are aware or receive national advocacy support that the culture and attitudes of the organisations are often a barrier to responsive complaint handling neither the health or social care organisations know the cost of complaints handling that pursuing a complaint requires considerable time determination and resilience Statutes of California and Digests of Measures California, 1999 Investigation of the Veterans' Administration with a Particular View to Determining the Efficiency of the Administration and Operation of Veterans' Administration Facilities United States.
