Stivers,2023-10-27 Michael Stivers was a kindergarten teacher in a school of children with very few behavior problems Then he lost most of the use of his left arm He could not drive to his school without fear of an accident so he searched for a neighboring school The school he found was close to his home The number of challenging students was much greater To meet those challenges Michael would have to draw on his decades of teaching elementary preschool and special education students Teaching Young Learners in a Superdiverse World Heather Lotherington,Cheryl Paige,2017-04-07 This book documents a collaborative action research project in one school where researchers and practitioners worked together to develop multimodal literacies and pedagogies for diverse multilingual elementary classrooms Following chronologically from Lotherington s Pedagogy of Multiliteracies 2011 this volume picks up after teachers and researchers have learned how to work efficiently as a learning community to offer project based learning approaches This edited collection relates how teachers and students of different grade levels language backgrounds and abilities developed a shared agenda and created a framework for effective and inclusive practices Contributors demonstrate that collaboration creative pedagogical solutions and innovative project based learning are all essential parts of learning and teaching socially appropriate and responsive literacies in a multimodal superdiverse world Teaching as if Learning Matters Jennifer Meta Robinson,Valerie Dean

O'Loughlin, Katherine Kearns, Laura Plummer, 2022-06-07 Teaching is an essential skill in becoming a faculty member in any institution of higher education Yet how is that skill actually acquired by graduate students Teaching as if Learning Matters collects first person narratives from graduate students and new PhDs that explore how the skills required to teach at a college level are developed It examines the key issues that graduate students face as they learn to teach effectively when in fact they are still learning and being taught Featuring contributions from over thirty graduate students from a variety of disciplines at Indiana University Teaching as if Learning Matters allows these students to explore this topic from their own unique perspectives They reflect on the importance of teaching to them personally and professionally telling of both successes and struggles as they learn and embrace teaching for the first time in higher education

He and Him Claude Britt, Jr., 2012-08 He and Him is an autobiography dealing with both psychology and archaeology in the author's life He was born during the Great Depression His parents were an Ohio farmerette and a man from the Tennessee mountains who had become an alcoholic on moonshine whiskey It was a dysfunctional family from the start The mom soon developed very serious emotional problems apparently because she wasn't satisfied with the man whom she had married When the author was a six year old boy she told him that she planned to take him and leave his dad However she did the exact opposite and had more kids Upon adding more offspring to the household the author then seven years old became the victim of terrible physical and emotional abuse as well as complete neglect From the age of seven the author had to essentially raise himself He tried to avoid his parents as much as possible by spending his days in the fields and meadows by himself collecting butterflies pretty rocks and looking for prehistoric Indian arrowheads After finding a few Indian arrowheads on farms in Ohio he started a collection of Indian arrowheads and other artifacts at a very young age His collection eventually turned into a very renowned private museum as he got a little older When the author was almost thirteen years old his parents quit farming and started operating their own country store in a different community Chapter 3 in this book describes life in country stores in Ohio during the 1940s and 1950s The author lived in such a country store environment until he turned eighteen and went away to college He was the first of any of his relatives to ever go away to college His mother furnished him money to attend college but he did it completely on his own with absolutely no family encouragement or support to get a degree From the time that the author started getting educated his mom refused to ever call him by his given name She only referred to him as either He or Him Others in the family soon became full of covetousness towards him because they perceived that he had advantages which they didn't have Competitive jealousy of others in the household mounted their believing that they had to try to outdo the educated member of the family A long drawn out bitter family war against the author ensued Disrespect for the author's higher education continued in later years by not only the third generation but also by in laws who didn't even know the author when he was in college After receiving both a BS degree and an MA degree in geology with a master's thesis dealing with archaeology of Archaic Indian sites near his hometown the author took a temporary summer job as a national park ranger at Canyon de Chelly National Monument at Chinle Arizona Canyon de Chelly is located in the center of the vast Navajo Indian Reservation Getting to live and work in such a beautiful natural area was like a dream come true That first summers work at Canyon de Chelly motivated the author to eventually work as a seasonal park ranger in six other national parks and monuments After working at Canyon de Chelly for one summer the author ended up going back to Arizona where he lived for ten more years He married a woman in Kansas who he hardly even knew then he went to the University of Arizona where he spent two years working towards a PhD degree After that he and his wife spent eight more years back on the Navajo Indian Reservation During those years on the reservation he taught Navajo Indian children on a substitute teaching certificate It was a full time job in the winter Almost all of his students were Navajo Indians He taught all grade levels from kindergarten through high school Chapters 6 7 and 8 of this book are devoted to stories about life in remote areas of the reservation in the 1960s and 1970s At that time the author s doctor and grocery stores were 145 miles from where he lived There we
