Chronicles of a Reluctant Immigrant Raj Pandya,2015-01-29 This autobiographical journey is a multi dimensioned narrative encompassing a number of distinct though interwoven themes It is a coming of age story of a boy Raj from an obscure small town in India born and raised in an orthodox Hindu family It is a love story that spans distant continents and different cultures It is a story of a mixed race and cross cultural marriage played out in the East and the West It is a commentary about the history and culture of the people and places the protagonist encounters over the journey and the times he lives through Finally it is the story of a well educated man who is frustrated and disheartened because he is unable to find professional fulfillment in his country of birth and reluctantly looks to the West for better opportunities where he finally succeeds in salvaging his moribund professional career and in earning the recognition he deserves The narrative would tickle the imagination of readers it would enhance their understanding of diverse cultures and it would nudge them to empathize with the protagonists dilemmas as he navigates through the social and cultural landscapes of the East and the West

Hindu and Muhammadan Festivals John Murdoch,1904 Humanity and Religion , The Womanist Idea Layli Maparyan,2012-03-22 Following on the heels of The Womanist Reader The Womanist Idea offers a comprehensive systematic analysis of womanism including a detailed discussion of the womanist worldview cosmology ontology

epistemology logic axiology and methodology and its implications for activism From a womanist perspective social and ecological change is necessarily undergirded by spirituality as distinct from religion per se which invokes a metaphysically informed approach to activism Performing Masculinity Geir Presterudstuen, 2020-06-11 Geir Henning Presterudstuen provides an ethnographic account of how men in the multicultural urban centres of Fiji perceive construct and perform masculinities in the context of rapid social change Theoretically informed by critical feminist theories postcolonialism R W Connell's work on masculinities and a Bourdieuan conceptualization of the body this book explores how notions of masculinity manhood and the male body are shaped by the conflicting social forces of Fijian tradition modernity commercialization and urbanization The book provides a timely intervention from the grassroots level in the global south into an ongoing discourse about men and masculinities that has long been dominated by voices from Europe and the US Combining classic ethnography with innovative social analysis Presterudstuen's book is suitable for students and academics with an interest in gender and social change and for scholars across a variety of disciplines including anthropology gender studies sociology pacific studies and international development Heritage, Crafting Communities and Urban Transformation Debapriya Chakrabarti, 2023-10-06 This book emphasises the need to empower marginalised communities to contribute to decision making processes within policy realms It contributes to ongoing debates in the social sciences about infrastructure rights and citizenship and it throws insight on human infrastructure interactions in the informal neighbourhoods of the global South The book delves into the complexities of caste gender class and political identities and affiliations associated with the multiple factors of inclusion and exclusion particularly in the case of access to infrastructure in informal settlements in urban areas with an added productive function This book is about how this historic inner city situated religious idol crafting community is transforming due to factors including access to physical and social infrastructure local governance policies sociopolitical hierarchies and complexities of informal tenure Drawing on sociocultural norms and values of idol crafting practices it documents analyses and presents the networks and relations of the neighbourhood through a spatial and material lens Findings contribute to understanding how traditional practices of a crafting community are adapting appropriating producing and reshaping informal spaces in Kumartuli The book is aimed at academic audiences across the world researching creative industries Kolkata's regeneration agenda and cultural tourism It will be of interest to the wide disciplines of Urban Studies Development Studies Architecture and Planning and Culture and Tourism Studies From Midnight to Glorious Morning? Mihir Bose, 2017-07-03 Mihir Bose was born in January 1947 Eight months later India became a modern free nation The country he knew growing up in the 1960s has undergone vast and radical change India today exports food sends space probes to Mars and all too often Indian businesses rescue their ailing competitors in the West In From Midnight to Glorious Morning Bose travels the length and breadth of India to explore how a country that many doubted would survive has been transformed into one capable of rivaling China as the world's preeminent economic superpower Multifarious challenges still continue to plague the country although inequality and corruption are issues not unique to India such a rapid ascent to global prominence creates a precarious position However as Bose outlines this rapid ascent provides evidence that India is ever capable of making great strides in the face of great adversity Bose s penetrating analysis of the last seventy years asks what is yet to be done for India in order to fulfill the destiny with which it has been imbued The predictions of doom in August 1947 have proved to be unfounded the growth of the nation in population and capital has been exponential and there is much to celebrate But Bose s nuanced personal and trenchant book shows that it is na ve to pretend the hoped for bright morning has yet dawned

An Unexpected Journey S. R. Nathan, Timothy Auger, 2011 This engrossing and engaging book tells the story of Singapore s President S R Nathan in his own words It takes readers on a journey from Nathan s modest beginnings and his life as a runaway in Singapore and Malaya through his experiences of the Japanese occupation the birth of Singapore s modern trade union movement and his time as Permanent Secretary Executive Chairman of the Straits Times newspaper for a number of years Singapore s High Commissioner in Malaysia and as Ambassador to the United States to the Presidential elections in 1999 and his tenure as Singapore s longest serving President

Forty Years of Bangladesh Ziauddin M. Choudhury, 2011-12-15 This book is a collection of essays that were published earlier in Bangladesh Magazines and Dailies reflecting on our national achievement and failings in the past years The articles pay homage to the millions of our people who have toiled unfalteringly to take us to the place where we are now Some articles also reflect on the vices that affect our growth such as unbridled corruption political violence and lack of leadership Some articles also are grim reminders that the path to democracy is also fettered by threats that may emanate from politics of religious bigotry and extremism that are not always open to the eyes The founding father of Bangladesh Bangabandhu Sheikh Mujibur Rahman had many dreams for his nation and his people He did not live to see if his dreams of Shonar Bangla Golden Bengal were fulfilled and what stormy path his beloved country traveled in last forty years His life was cut short early in a violent and cruel manner an ironic end for a man who believed in non violence

Hindu Diasporas Knut A. Jacobsen, 2023 Hinduism is a global religion with a significant presence in many countries Hindu Diasporas analyses the religious traditions and practices of Hindus of South Asian descent living outside South Asia offering a foundation for understanding Hindu traditions in their global diasporic contexts and the dynamic development of Hinduism around the world

South Asians in Kenya Pascale Herzig, 2006 For more than a century a substantial South Asian minority has been living in Kenya Within a few decades a majority of the Kenyan Asians has managed to transform their living conditions from an impoverished rural background in South Asia to a globalised and economically successful middle class in East Africa Therefore this research sets an example of migration as an opportunity for social mobility The study is based on empirical data collected with South Asians in Kenya who were differentiated by gender age migratory generation and other social boundaries The research is divided into three levels of analysis interethnic and intra ethnic relations i.e the relations within the South Asian minority as well as the relations within the family To understand the complexity of migrants lives an approach of geographies of intersectionality was developed which takes different intersecting social boundaries into account and additionally considers the significance of place The study shows that migration has an impact on the relations between genders age groups and migratory generations and leads to changing identities and new lifestyles Book jacket Performative Politics and the Cultures of Hinduism Raminder Kaur,2005

Performative Politics and the Cultures of Hinduism focuses on one of the major festivals of western India the Ganapati Utsava dedicated to the elephant headed god Raminder Kaur uses this occasion as the central anthropological and historiographical site within which to examine the dynamic relationship between spectacle religion and nationalist politics Chanting in the Hillsides Jeaneane D. Fowler,Merv Fowler,2009 In 1983 a tiny group of people in Cardiff and a married couple in Aberporth West Wales were the only Welsh members of Soka Gakkai International a Japanese movement based on the beliefs and teachings of the 13th century Buddhist Nichiren Daishonin Today there are hundreds of members in Wales and the Borders This book examines the history of the movement in these two areas and draws on original research gleaned from the members themselves The research elicits facets of their faith practices and study as well as their testimonies to the success of such beliefs and practices in their daily lives The book combines the twin goals of academic analysis of the Buddhism of Nichiren Daishonin in general with the warmth of its expression in the lives of its adherents in Wales and the Borders

Science and Religion Yiftach Fehige,2016-02-12 This volume situates itself within the context of the rapidly growing interdisciplinary field that is dedicated to the study of the complex interactions between science and religion It presents an innovative approach insofar as it addresses the Eurocentrism that is still prevalent in this field At the same time it reveals how science develops in the space that emerges between the local and the global The volume examines a range of themes central to the interaction between science and religion Eastern thought within Western science and religion and vice versa and revisits thinkers who sought to integrate Eastern and Western thinking It studies Zen Buddhism and its relation to psychotherapy Islamic science Vedantic science atheism in India and Darwinism offering in turn new perspectives on a variety of approaches to nature Part of the Science and Technology Studies series this volume brings together original perspectives from major scholars from across disciplines and will be of great interest to scholars and students of science and technology studies history of science philosophy of science religious studies and sociology Douglas Poetics Kavyta Kay,2024-12-04 Rooted in lived experiences and real conversations this book challenges mixed race studies which often prioritise Black white binaries in the Global North while excluding multiracial experiences across the Global South
